TON Wednesday of last week the colored people of Tuscarora Valley held a pic nie in Philip Kepner's grove, in Turbett township. About 50 colored persons were in attendance. A gentleman from Spruce Hill township, who was present as a spectator, informs us that a number of white folks were on the ground, and were prevailed on to partake of the dinner, which was served on a table, and of a most excellent character. The white people were treated with the utmost politeness throughout the entire day.
