

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD—ON AND AFTER Sunday, May 14, 1871, Passenger Trains will leave Millin Station as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Direction (Eastward, Westward) and Train Name/Time (Philadelphia Express, Harrisburg Accommodations, etc.).

JUNIATA ENCAMPMENT, No. 19, I. O. O. F. meets on the first and third Tuesdays of each month, in the Odd Fellows' Hall, Thompsonstown, Juniata Co., Pa.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A good ticket—The one that we nail to our must-hold to day. We shall speak of it hereafter, when we have more space.

Ought to be drawn—The coat of every Republican in the county, and a vigorous work begun for the election of the ticket nominated on Saturday and announced on Monday.

The Joseph Tyson property, about a mile and a half south of Millin, will be sold at public sale on the 7th of October.

EDWARD BAYER, Esq., Kings Co., N. Y., writes that an astonishing cure has been effected on his daughter by the use of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

GRAPE—The grape season is here, and any person wishing any of these delicious fruit should not fail to call on J. Oberholzer, proprietor of the Juniata Valley Vineyard.

THE LATEST TRICK—One of our exchanges says that the latest in door amusement is called the Printer's Delight, and is performed in the following manner: Take a sheet of note paper, fold it carefully, and enclose a bank note sufficiently large to pay all arrears for subscription, advertising and job work.

THE YONKERS HORROR—We briefly noticed in last issue the flogging of Mrs. Meinhart, hanging by the neck in a smoke-house on the rear end of the lot occupied by her husband, John Meinhart, on Tuesday last week.

SIGN OF THE ZEPHYRUS—A philosopher in the West, grown into admiration of the Cherry Pectoral, writes Dr. Ayer for instructions under which sign he shall be bled, which bled, and which vomited, and under which he shall take Ayer's Pills for an affection of the liver; also under which sign his wife should commence to take the Sarsaparilla for her ailment.

On last Sunday the Cedar Grove Sabbath School, in Walker township, held a celebration in Mr. John Gingrich's woods, near the Cedar Grove school house.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!—A Grand Reunion of the surviving comrades of Co. A, 69th Pa. Vols., (formerly Co. I and H, same Regt.) will be held in Millroy, Juniata county, Pa., on the 19th day of September, 1871.

Trains leave Westtown station for Millroy immediately after the arrival of trains from the east and west over the Penna. Railroad.

In fashion—Panniers. Out of fashion—Hoops. Getting clear—The river. Coming into use—Turnips. Stairs about Millin—Walnuts. Yields well—The potato stalks. Warm—The middle of the days. Cool—The evenings and mornings. Expected before long—Jack Frost.

Always merry—The boys when on the street. Said to be plenty—Deer up at the thicket.

Showing signs of decline—The foliage of the trees. Slow in coming—City fortunes to the country.

Near at hand—The time to top and cut up corn. Not lawful—To put fish baskets into the river.

Will be in the river and creeks before many weeks—wild ducks. Passed through town—A large drove of cattle last Saturday evening.

Beautiful but not appreciated—The scenery from the hills about Millin. Largely attended—The Camp-meeting in Greenwood township, near Dinn's mill, on last Sabbath.

Didn't come to an end—The world, on last Sunday, as predicted by the Millers. Knocked out—The trucks from under a coal car in the Narrows, last Saturday morning.

Being laid—The tin roof on the Odd Fellows' Hall, by Henry McClellan, of McVeytown, formerly of Millin.

Enjoyed by those who participated in it—The Presbyterian Sabbath school celebration, last Thursday.

An interesting election was held by the Locust Grove Sabbath School, in a grove not far from the school house. An address was delivered by Rev. H. C. Pardee, of this place.

The question has often been asked by those interested, 'Can I have my gray hair restored to its natural color, without coloring the skin?' and can my 'thin locks be thickened up?' We answer, 'I can,' and would advise you to read a treatise on the hair, which is published by R. P. Hall & Co., Nashua, N. H., who sends it free, upon application.

THE YONKERS HORROR—We briefly noticed in last issue the flogging of Mrs. Meinhart, hanging by the neck in a smoke-house on the rear end of the lot occupied by her husband, John Meinhart, on Tuesday last week.

When found she was hanging by a leather strap, fastened to a broom handle, which was laid across two small joists, which supported the rafters of the building, her feet reaching some twelve inches or more below the top of a stove, upon which (if she committed the deed herself) she no doubt stood while adjusting the strap on her neck.

The jury having adjourned, and friends having conveyed the corpse to the Catholic cemetery the excitement seemed to increase, people complained of the officers for not arresting the parties upon whom suspicion seemed to fasten, until Thursday afternoon, when a large number of the citizens, determining that the matter should not rest thus, informed Squire Jones of their intention to make oath as to their convictions and require a warrant. Meinhart, the husband of the deceased, on hearing this, delivered himself to the authorities, and was conveyed to the county jail to await the decision of the court.

This being affected some twelve or more of the citizens repaired to the Squire's office, made oath, and demanded the arrest of Amanda Gister, a woman living in part of Meinhart's dwelling. A warrant was issued, and she, too, was taken to our county prison, to await future developments. Thus the matter rests.—A True Witness of 22nd week.

CUT THIS OUT.—A German forester, eighty-two years old, not wishing to carry to the grave an important secret, publishes in the Leipzig Journal a receipt he has used for fifty years, and which, he says, has saved several men and a great number of animals from a horrible death by hydrophobia. The bite must be treated as soon as possible, with warm vinegar and water, and when this has dried, a few drops of muriatic acid poured upon the wound will destroy the poison of the saliva, and relieve the patient from all present and future danger.—Ex.

SERIOUS RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—This Beale is a citizen of Millin township, and lately has been working at his trade—the carpenter trade—in Patterson. On last Saturday morning he left home, taking with him a son, about 12 years old in a one-horse spring wagon. The lower crossing at Patterson was reached about six o'clock, the time at which the Fast Line east is due at that place. Two freight trains lay at the crossing, but were "cut," as the law requires, so as not to obstruct travel. The engine of these trains was "blowing off steam" which always makes considerable noise. The noise thus made prevented Mr. Beale from hearing the approach of the Fast Line, which does not stop at this place, but passes by at full speed. The wagon was on the track before the coming train was seen, and before it was driven off the engine struck it, and broke it into hundreds of pieces, and threw it off to the left of the track. Mr. Beale was hurled into the air about ten feet, and fell to the ground some twenty feet to the left of the place where the wagon was when struck. He was seriously hurt. He lay in an unconscious state for some time, when consciousness returned. His left ear was entirely torn off, his body bruised, and his arms and legs benumbed, and his spinal column severely injured. He was taken to a house near by. Dr. Crawford was called and rendered—with the assistance of Drs. Fisher and McAllister—all the surgical and medical aid that it was possible to give the case at the time. He is still lying in a critical condition.

The boy was also thrown off to the left of the track, but excepting a terrible fright and some bruises, he was not hurt. The horse was uninjured, and ran away.

Constitutional Convention

THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS WILL TAKE NOTICE OF THE KNOWING ACT OF ASSEMBLY, APPROVED THE 2ND DAY OF JUNE, 1871: AN ACT TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, that it is hereby enacted, that the authority of the same, that the question of calling a Convention to amend the Constitution of this Commonwealth be submitted to a vote of the people at the next general election, to be held on the second Tuesday of October next, the said question to be voted on in the following manner, to wit: In counties and cities, in which slip tickets are authorized by law, the voters for and against a Convention may be expressed and given upon the ticket, headed or enclosed with the word 'State,' and not otherwise; and the words used shall be 'Constitutional Convention,' and 'Against a Convention,' and all votes cast as aforesaid shall be received, counted and returned by the proper election officers, and return judges as votes for Governor are received, counted and returned under existing laws.

Section 2. That the election aforesaid shall be held on the second Tuesday of October next, and shall be subject to all the provisions of law which apply to general elections; the sheriffs of the several counties shall give notice of this Act in their election proclamation the present year, and the county commissioners of all the several counties of the Commonwealth; and the county commissioners of each county shall, as soon as may be necessary after receipt of the proclamation of the several counties, procure and furnish all the election officers of the election districts of their respective counties copies of such blanks, in such quantities as may be required necessary for the discharge of their duties under this act.

Section 3. That citizens of this State temporarily in the service of the State or of the United States government, on clerical or other duty, and who do not vote where they are domiciled, shall be entitled to vote in the election districts if otherwise duly qualified.

Section 4. That the right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or by any State, on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude.

Section 5. That Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Section 6. That the Congress of the United States, on the 31st day of March, 1870, passed an act entitled 'An Act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union, and for other purposes,' the provisions of which are hereby adopted, and shall have the same force and effect as if they were a part of the Constitution of the United States.

Section 7. That the Congress of the United States, on the 31st day of March, 1870, passed an act entitled 'An Act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union, and for other purposes,' the provisions of which are hereby adopted, and shall have the same force and effect as if they were a part of the Constitution of the United States.

Section 8. That the Congress of the United States, on the 31st day of March, 1870, passed an act entitled 'An Act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union, and for other purposes,' the provisions of which are hereby adopted, and shall have the same force and effect as if they were a part of the Constitution of the United States.

Section 9. That the Congress of the United States, on the 31st day of March, 1870, passed an act entitled 'An Act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union, and for other purposes,' the provisions of which are hereby adopted, and shall have the same force and effect as if they were a part of the Constitution of the United States.

AMERICAN WASHER.

PRICE $5.50.

The American Washer Saves Money, Time and Drudgery. The Fatigue of Washing Day no longer dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency, and Clean Clothing, Sure.

In calling public attention to this little machine, a few of its valuable qualities (not possessed by any other washing machine yet invented), are here enumerated: It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child, ten or twelve years of age, can thoroughly comprehend and efficiently use it. There is no adjusting, no screws to unscrew, no delay in adjusting. It is always ready for use. It is a perfect little wonder. It washes more clean, doing more work and of a better quality, than the most elaborate and costly. One-half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will last one-half longer than by the old plan of the hand.

No matter how deep rooted a prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its utility, and all objections are banished, and the doubter and detractor at once become the fast friends of the machine.

We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all other machines, and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unwieldy, useless machines, which have signally failed to accomplish the object proposed in prominent and loud sounding advertisements.

It is as perfect for washing as a wringer is for wringing. The price, another paramount inducement to purchasers, has been placed so low, that it is the result of every man's economy, and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon.
