TOWN AND COUNTRY. A merry Christmas to all. The editor of the Altoona Sun is ill. Slippery—The sidewalks on Monday morning.

Ignorant—People who don't take a newspaper. Intelligent—People who read newspapers. Expected by the young folks—Santa Claus.

There is a man in Lebanon who has lived in the house in which he was born 75 years.

HATS, CAPS, BOOTS, SHOES, and in fact everything you need, will pay you to go to Shelley & Stambaugh to buy. Their prices will satisfy any person.

EMANUEL BORTLE's right arm received a severe wound at the wrist, from the tusk of an infuriated hog that he was helping to handle, at Col. J. K. Robinson's last week.

A LADY FRIEND sent the editor of the Lewisburg Chronicle a couple of chickens for Christmas. The editor, in his joy over the gift, says he don't care how often Christmas comes this year.

A YOUNG LADY, writing on the subject of kissing, says, "I should quite as lief have a good kiss as a new cashmere;" whereupon an exchange editor—we presume a single one—remarks, "and we would as lief, if not liefer, give it to her."

AN EXCHANGE says the people of St. Paul, Minnesota, are sensitive. Somebody was lecturing there on the "Sham Family," recently, when the whole audience, thinking his allusions personal, rose "as one man" and left the hall.

THE YOUNG MEN of Waterville, Me., organized a society that they call an anti-croquet society, where they pledge themselves to marry no girl whose waist is so tight that it will not yield a little when a strong arm is clasped around it.

A SMART fellow wonders if Judge Kent, who said that "the abominable practice of wearing hair on the upper lip is reprehensible," ever heard of the old Spanish proverb, "A kiss without a moustache is an egg without salt."

ONE night, about ten days ago, Hiram Kelly, the tax collector of Chapman township Snyder county, was stopped on the road by a man who demanded his money.

REY. A. L. GUSS, of Cassville, will deliver three lectures in St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, in Licking Creek Valley, for the benefit of the Sabbath School.

PUBLIC SALE.—I. D. Wallis, Executor of the last will and testament of Conrad P. Holman, late of Walker township, Juniata county, dec'd., will sell at Public Vendue, at the residence of Miss Jane McKinstry, in said township, on SATURDAY the 23d inst., one Bay Mare, one Buggy, one Buggy set of Harness, one Saddle and bridle, together with other articles of personal property not here enumerated. Sale to commence at 2 o'clock P. M.

TWO BAD.—The following little story is very neatly told by a Danbury paper: "Friday afternoon a young lady sitting at a front window, tossing in her hand what might be of a ball of white yarn, attracted the attention of a middle-aged chap on the street whose gallantry prompted him to hold up his hands to catch it. The interest she displayed in hurrying it down to him was no deeper than that he showed in catching it, although as several who saw the performance charitably remarked, no one could have known that the egg was a bad one."

WAR! WAR! WAR!—No sooner had peace returned to our land from the last great rebellion than the war cry is again heard from Cuba, and the people having entire confidence in the Post Master at Millifintown, despatched him as a committee of one to go to Washington and ascertain the facts. He returns with glad tidings and good news to make all happy on Christmas and New Years day. He brought the finest lot of Christmas Toys and the choicest and freshest Confectioneries ever brought to Juniata county. Everybody ought to go and see his stock at the Millifintown Post Office, before purchasing elsewhere. He is thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore extended to him, and feels confident that this year he can please one and all. He has also the finest lot of Jewelry, Gold and Silver Watches ever brought to this county. Go to the Post Office at Millifintown, one and all, old and young, big and little, and see for yourselves.

The Juniata Scouts paraded through the streets and drilled in Mr. Doty's field adjoining town, last Saturday.—Col. Robinson, the Captain of the Scouts, appears out and out a soldier when at the head of a command. The Scouts were fortunate when they secured his services.

This new bogus five cent nickel, of which there are a large number in circulation, can be detected by an inspection of the motto, "In God We Trust," which is much larger in the counterfeit than in the genuine. The yellow color of the counterfeit, caused by the presence of zinc, is also easily noticeable.

Notice.—A meeting of the Odd Fellows Association will be held at the Sheriff's Office, in Millifintown, on Thursday evening, December 21st, 1871, at 7 o'clock P. M. Business of importance will be transacted, and all stockholders are requested to be present. By order of T. VAN IRWIN, Pres. LOUIS E. ATKINSON, Secy.

On Saturday last two young men named Ginter and black, of Water street, Huntingdon county, were near the railroad, near Spruce Creek station, in a one horse wagon loaded with a sewing machine, the horse took fright at an approaching train, upsetting horse, and all over a precipice, down on the track, and the locomotive did the rest, cutting the horse to pieces, breaking the wagon to atoms and smashing the sewing machine to smithereens. The young men escaped by jumping from the conveyance.—Blair County Radical Tribute of Respect. When a truly good and useful man in the prime of life is summoned from the scenes of his earthly pilgrimage to the unseen world beyond the tomb, contemplation of his many virtues, and the evidence he gave of enjoying a lively hope of a blessed immortality, tempers the afflictions and lessens the poignancy of our grief as we gaze upon the lifeless remains, and into the open grave, of such an one, the deeds of uprightness, done in the body pass in review before us suggesting as appropriate to the occasion expressions of respect for the memory of the departed, and sympathy for the bereaved friends, as only a life like this and such a hope in the hour of death can inspire. These conditions were liberally fulfilled by Bro. Augustus Baum of Thompsonstown, who departed this life December 4th, 1871, aged 38 years.

In view of this Dispensation of Divine Providence be it Resolved, That in the death of Brother Augustus Baum, a long and useful life, and an irreparable loss, the community in which he labored an esteemed and useful citizen, the cause of education, one of its most active supporters, and his family an endearing friend, 2. That we hereby bow to the Will of the Creator, in this trying hour of affliction, believing that what is to us a loss is to our deceased brother, eternal gain. 3. That we tender to the family of the deceased our heartfelt sympathy and condolence in their bereavement. 4. That in token of respect for the memory of the deceased, the Hall of Sincerity Lodge and insignia of the order thereto belonging, be draped in mourning for three months and that the members of this Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days. 5. That an attested copy of these proceedings be sent to the family of the deceased and copies be furnished the county papers for publication. P. L. GREENLEAF, EMANUEL SMITH, SAMUEL H. KESSLER, } Com. December 9, 1871.
