Letter From New York.

BELLEVUE HOSPITAL MEDICAL COLLEGE, }
NEW YORK, Dec. 26, 1871. }

EDITOR SENTINEL:—Dear Sir, Yesterday was "merry Christmas." And, being a holiday with us, we cast about how we might spend it most pleasantly and profitably. "Five Points" was suggested. And there we wended our way—along Third avenue to the Bowery, and down Bowery to Worth st., through throngs of idle loungers and those, who like ourselves, were seeking where best they might be entertained, passed show windows, filled with gay and beautiful holiday goods, and peripatetic notion-dealers, vending their wares by the way, and beer-gardens, filled with the flowers of Bacchus who were bent on having a feast of spirits, if not a "flow of soul." Arriving at Worth St, (lately opened through to the Bowery), we stopped to take breath preparatory to descending it. Fortunately we had to go down it but a short distance. For it is without pavements, muddy, and covered by all manner of filth,—foul odors emanating from every quarter. We presented ourselves at the office of the Five Points mission school under the auspices of the M. E., church, and were kindly shown into the school room where kind-hearted elegantly dressed ladies, (the wife of Ex-Governor Wright, and Mrs Skidemore, a sister of Judge Pond, if I have been rightly informed), and benevolent gentlemen were making ready their Christmas Festival for the "little ones" who form their flock. This was about ten o'clock and they had been working since six. They had two large Christmas trees, one for the boys, and one for the girls, covered with gayly dressed dolls, jumping-jackets, and toys of all kinds, and festooned with strings of pop corn. They looked very pretty indeed. The stage behind was covered with presents of various kind, provided by kind and benificient friends. Long before the appointed hour the children commenced to gather around the door; and, to gratify their curiosity some would clamber up to the windows to get a peep of what was going on within.

At length all things are ready, the bell rings and the boys take their position at one door, the girls at the other,—the piano begins to play (and by the way they use the piano in all their Sunday schools here), and they begin to march in—but they are too full, they cannot keep step, but they go to their seats, and oh! how their eyes sparkle!

And, now they are quieted, some familiar tune is played and they unite in singing the sweet praises of Jesus. How sweetly, with how much earnestness, and how well they sing. They are led in prayer, and at the close their voices go up as one in, "Our Father" etc.

The distribution of the presents begins. Those who have been particularly well behaved and studious receive five rewards—but a present and sweet-meats are provided for all. As some fine present, for instance a large and handsomely dressed doll, is brought in view their feelings get the better of them and they burst out in a round of applause—they are quieted—but ever and anon the same thing occurs.

There were about five hundred of them. They had no doubt been looking forward to the time with great expectations. One poor woman told me her children did not sleep any the night before. And while the distribution went on the same woman burst into tears—she had lost her only daughter during the year—she the "sweet singer" of the school. But I cannot tell you all. I must hasten across the Park to the Five Points House of Industry. This is an undenominational institution where children are clothed, fed, lodged, and educated.—We passed into the chapel a fine large room neatly furnished, with a slightly raised platform and one end, on which were arranged seats for the children, in amphitheatre style. The room was decorated with evergreen, and a large beautiful Christmas tree graced one corner.—We had been seated but a little time when we heard the well known sound, outside, produced by a number of persons marking time. The piano struck up a kind of double step and they came marching in single file, close order, keeping the most perfect time, and moving so smoothly that we scarce perceived they moved at all. They marched to their places, at a given signal they front face, at another they sat down; again, and every hand was up raised and clasped and every head bowed and they united in the Lord's Prayer. But it were too long to tell you all in detail, suffice it to say their exercises consisted of recitations, singing glees, anthems, hymns, etc., and calisthenics. They sang elegantly, their recitations were in perfect unison, and their calisthenics were admirable. With their mouths, feet, and hands they gave a very fair imitation of a thunderstorm. After these exercises they marched to the supper story where was prepared for them and ample and good dinner. At a given signal they face the table, another hands raised, heads bowed, and in unison they asked a blessing, at another signal heads were up and hands down, and at the next all hands went to work on the good things deposited on their plates It would have done you good to have seen them, some were so small their heads barely came above the table.

My letter is growing long, and I have not told you half. I may tell you in a future letter some more of the interesting history of these institutions, and of the quarter of the city in which they are located.

What I have imperfectly described above is but a counterpart of what was enacted, or will be, during the week, in all the mission, and many of the home, Sunday schools in the city. It costs an immense amount of money. One mission school that I know of requires at least five thousand dollars to meet its expenses

One word more. If any of your readers would like to help on the good work, which is cramped for want of means, I can assure them that any money or clothing sent to the Five Points House of Industry will be judiciously and economically expended.

Very respectfully yours,
THOMAS A. ELDER.

The Indispensable Hand Book

How to Write—How to Talk—How to Behave, and How to do Business.

COMPLETE IN ONE LARGE VOLUME.

This work—in four parts—embraces just that practical matter-of-fact information which every one—old and young—ought to have. It will aid in attaining if it does not insure, "success." It contains some 600 pages, elegantly bound, and is divided into four parts, as follows:

HOW TO WRITE.

As a Manual of Letter-Writing and Composition, it is far superior to the common "Letter-Writers." It teaches the inexperienced how to write all kinds of Letters, Notes and Cards, and Newspaper Articles, and how to Correct Proof for the Press.

HOW TO TALK.

No other Book contains so much useful instruction on the subject as this. It teaches how to speak correctly, clearly, fluently, forcibly, eloquently and effectively in the shop and in the drawing room. A Chairman's guide. The chapter on "Errors Corrected" is worth the price of the volume to every young man.

HOW TO BEHAVE.

This is a Manual of Etiquette, and it is believed to be the best "Manners Book" ever written. It is a standard work on Good Behavior.

HOW TO DO BUSINESS.

Indispensable in the Counting room, in the Store, in the Shop, on the Farm, for the Clerk, the Apprentice, the Book Agent, and for Business Men. It teaches how to choose a pursuit, and how to follow it with success. "It teaches how to get rich honestly," and how to use your riches wisely.

THE AMERICAN WASHER.

PRICE $5.50.

The American Washer Saves Money, Time and Drudgery.

The Fatigue of Washing Day no longer dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency, and Clean Clothing, Sure.

In calling public attention to this little machine, a few of the invaluable qualities, (not possessed by any other washing machine yet invented,) are here enumerated:

It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child, ten years old, with a few hours' practice, can thoroughly comprehend and effectually use it. There is no adjusting, no screws to annow, no delay in adapting! It is always ready for use! It is a perfect little wonder! It is a miniature giant, doing more work and of a better quality, than the most elaborate and costly. One-half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will last one-half longer than by the old plan of the rub board. It will wash the largest blanket. Three shirts at a time, washed thoroughly! In a word, the ablution of any fabric, from a Quilt to a Lace Curtain or Cambric Handkerchief, are equally within the capacity of this LITTLE GEM! It can be fastened to any tub and taken off at will.

No matter how deep rooted a prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its cleansing efficacy and utility are banished, and the doubter and detractor at once become the fast friends of the machine.

We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all others, and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unwieldy, useless machines, which have signally failed to accomplish the object promised in prominent and loud sounding advertisements.

It is as perfect for washing as a wringer is for wringing.

The price, another paramount inducement to purchasers, has been placed so low, that it is within the reach of every housekeeper, and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon.

All that is asked for this GREAT LABOR SAVER, is a fair trial. We guarantee each machine to do its work perfectly.

HAIR RENEWER

Nine years before the public, and no preparation for the hair has ever been produced equal to Hall's "Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer," and every honest dealer will say it gives the best satisfaction. It restores GRAY HAIR to its original color, eradicating and preventing dandruff, curing BALDNESS and promoting the growth of the hair. The gray and brashy hair by a few applications is changed to black and silky locks, and wayward hair will assume any shape the wearer desires. It is the cheapest HAIR DRESSING in the world, and its effects last longer, as it excites the glands to furnish the nutritive principle so necessary to the life of the hair. It gives the hair that splendid appearance so much admired by all. By its tonic and stimulating properties it prevents the hair from falling out, and none need be without Nature's ornament, a good head of hair. It is the first real perfected remedy ever discovered for curing diseases of the hair, and it has never been equalled, and we assure the thousands who have used it, it is kept up to its original high standard. Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

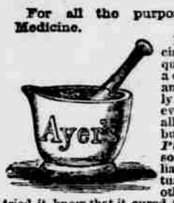
For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.



Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
