THREE DARK DAYS.

A Prophecy Tel to the Fulfilled—The Whole Earth to be Eveloped in Terrible Bark-ness and Death to Reve Among the Peo-

The Roman Catholics, especially such as are inclined to be superstitious, here, as well as elsewhere throughout the world, are somewhat excited over a prophccy left by an aged and plous nun, Anna Maria Taigi, who died some years ago, which has found universal publication in religious as well as secular papers, the time for the fulfillment which being now near at fiand. The remarkable prophecy recites that the present Pope shall live to complete the 27th year of his pontificate, and that be shall be encircled in the vatican by iron as a prisoner, before his death. Previous to his departure for the new life there shall be made manifest sudden and terrible signs of God's wrath in the licavens, preceded by plagues, epidemics and wars and a general disturbance of society. For three days and three nights cimmerism darkness will rest over the earth hilling every object in the world from view. from which no relief can be obtained, as nothing but things that are blessed candles blessed by the church we suppose, will burn to give the faintest ray of light. The people are exhorted by the prophetess not to endeavor to scan the heavens curiously during this darkness, for whom soever shall go and look dut a window or leave his house, for the purpose of describing what is passing in the firmament, will be immediately struck down dead. The whole time that this judgment shall last, says the prophecy, ought to be employed in prayer, and, above all in reciting the holy Rosary, hoping that once her disappointment that the new arrival had proved a stranger. Soon the sought to keeps their heads above it. Lord may show mercy to us. The director of this holy woman said, in 1864; "It is most true that the venerable servant of God announced the scourge of three days' darkness extending over the whole earth. While it lasts the windows must be kept closed, all persons must avoid appearing at them, and ought to recite the holy Rosary and pray." Now, we submit that it is rather hard on the people who do not know how to rerecite the Rosary to await the coming of Tom and Henry were loud in their this plague of darkness.
