

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD.

BARN CISTERS.

One of the most important appendages to the barn or stable is a well built, capacious cistern.

The water that falls upon an ordinary sized barn in the course of a year is sufficient for all the stock that will probably find shelter in and around the barn;

The most proper form, and the one which gives the greatest strength to a cistern, is that of an ordinary jug—say ten or twelve feet deep and six or eight feet in diameter at the bottom, increasing in the middle to nine or ten feet and from the middle upwards the size should be contracted to the base of the arch to six feet or less.

The Chicago Evening Post says: Twelve millions of the national debt paid off this month!

There is a family residing on Euclid street that own a cat of the Thomas variety who is nearly twenty years old.

A witness in court, who had been cautioned to give a precise answer to every question, and not talk about what he thought the question meant, was interrogated as follows:

"You drive a wagon?" "No, sir, I do not."

"Why, sir, did you not tell my learned friend so this moment?" "No, sir, I did not."

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth.

This hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed.

But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with greasy sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and from becoming thin and brittle. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy tinge and a grateful perfume.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. PRICE 25 CENTS.
