

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 5, 1872.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—ON AND after Sunday, Nov. 12, 1871, Passenger trains will leave Mifflin Station as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Train Name and Time. Includes Philadelphia Express, Erie Express, etc.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

In order—Snake stories. MEASLES and whooping cough are prevailing in Carlisle. A complete line of P. K. Trimmings at Shelby & Stambaugh's.

APPEARANCES indicate an abundance of fruit. Hope the appearance is not a false one. FOR RENT.—A two-story frame dwelling house on Main street, Patterson—Inquire at this office.

We are told by farmers that cut worms are doing an unusual amount of damage in the cornfields this season. A woman lectured on woman suffrage in Huntingdon, on Thursday evening, the 23rd ult.

Presidential Campaign—Caps, Capes and Torches. Read Card of Cunningham & Hill, in this issue. An exchange says, "if time is money, we know a number of individuals in town who are in mighty easy circumstances."

For your Cassimers, Kentucky Jeans, Cottonades, and Linen Pant Stuffs, go to Shelby & Stambaugh's. They can suit you. JEREMIAH LYONS, Administrator of Mathias Jones, deceased, sold real estate in Delaware township to Eli Miller, June 1st, 1872, for $244.

Two drunken Irishmen were committed to jail on Monday evening. They were completely sobered up the next morning, when they were released. Johnson's Relief Linctus is said to give more relief in cases of Chronic Rheumatism, no matter how severe, than any other article known to medical men.

A citizen of Huntingdon has two apples that are as firm and smooth as when taken off the tree eleven years ago. So says the Globe. LATHES' Fancy Baskets, in all varieties prices and sizes, Market Baskets, Clothes Baskets, all kinds of Baskets for sale at Shelby & Stambaugh's, at low prices.

JEREMIAH LYONS, Executor of J. M. Sharon, deceased, sold house and lot in McMillerville, at private sale, on Friday last, to D. C. Rothrock, for $800. There were fifty five ladies, in their Dolly Vardens, and over two hundred men present at a barn raising in Barree township, Huntingdon county, some days ago.

An exchange says that the burning of Somerset was predicted 18 years ago by a man who was arrested and imprisoned in that town for stealing a horse, but who was not found guilty of the charge. On Friday a week Samuel B. and Jacob H. Zook trapped and caged for a pet a large bear, which when fat it is supposed will weigh 400 pounds. He was caught on Mrs. Steeley's farm, Stone Mountain.—Lewistown Gazette.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will issue excursion tickets to Pittsburg on the occasion of the meeting of the State Sabbath School Convention, to convene in that city on the 11th inst.—Tickets will be sold on the 7th, good for return till the 18th.

On Wednesday, the 22d ult., a Mrs. Bloom, of Emmaville, Bedford county, attempted to kindle the fire in the cook stove with coal oil, when the can, containing half a gallon, exploded, throwing the burning fluid over the unfortunate woman. She was burned to such an extent that she died the next morning in terrible agony. When will people learn to be wise?

PUBLIC SALE.—Mrs Susan Koch will sell at public sale, on the premises, in the borough of Thompston, on Saturday, June 23d, 1872, a lot of ground with a large frame house, frame stable and carriage house thereon erected. A number of fruit trees on the lot. Also a lot of ground, without improvements, adjoining the above. Also at the same time and place will be sold a lot of household furniture. Sale at 1 o'clock P. M.

Last Monday the annual meeting of the Dunkers or German Baptists commenced at Goodville Church, Fayette township during the afternoon three persons were immersed. In the evening the Lord's Supper was celebrated. The membership of this church in this county is large. The following preachers from other counties were in attendance: Rev. Peter Meyers, Mifflin county; Rev. Graybill Meyers, Huntingdon county; Rev. Daniel Good, Franklin county; Rev. John Garver, Huntingdon county; Rev. M. Harsh, Perry county.

It is often remarked by strangers visiting our State, that we show a larger proportion of good horses than any other State in the Union. This, we tell them, is owing to two principal reasons: in the first place, we breed from the very best stock; and in the second place, our people use Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders, which are of incalculable advantage.

A large lot of Hardware just received at Graybill's. ACCIDENT.—On Saturday, the 1st inst., as Mr. Samuel McManama and daughter, of Mifflin county, were riding in a one-horse spring wagon, the horse became frightened when in the vicinity of Mount Rock Mills, and ran away. The wagon and its occupants were thrown down an embankment of twenty feet. Mr. McManama had his skull fractured and one leg broken at the thigh. His daughter escaped with slight injury. The wagon was demolished.

Canary Birds and Cages for sale at Graybill's Hardware Store. ENTERTAINMENT.—All who desire to spend a pleasant evening, and also aid a good cause, are respectfully invited to attend a Grand Entertainment to be given in the Centreville Church, by the young ladies and gentlemen of the vicinity, on Tuesday evening June 18, 1872. The programme consists of Music, Dramas, Charades, Tableaux, Recitations, &c.—The proceeds to be applied to the use of the Centre Union Sunday School. Admission, adults 20 cts.; children 10 cts. Exercises to commence at 7 1/2 P. M.

MATTIE HAMILTON, ADA C. PATTON, JOHN H. FOX, JEROME T. AILMAN, Consult. Go to Shelby & Stambaugh's for all your Goods, and you will save money—One trial will convince you. The ceremonies attending the decoration of the soldiers' graves last Thursday were not of a grand and imposing character. They were plain and unostentatious. The morning rain interfered somewhat with the programme arranged for the decoration. At 11:28 A. M. the Graybill Cornet Band of this place went to Perryville and participated in the ceremonies at Church Hill Cemetery. In the afternoon mail train they returned, accompanied by the Perryville Band and a number of citizens, who in turn assisted and witnessed the decoration of the Soldiers' Monument in the Court House Yard. A large wreath of flowers was hung over the top of the monument, and garlands of flowers of varied hues graced and beautified the enclosure about the monument.

Cherry-Seeders will soon be in demand. Everybody can be supplied by calling at Graybill's Hardware Store. PERRYVILLE, May 25, 1872. Juniata Scouts met according to previous announcement, and in company with the Graybill Zouaves of Mifflin were reviewed by Lieut. Burchfield who had been detailed to perform that duty. The following promotions and appointments were made: James McCauley promoted Sergeant; Edward Kauffman appointed Color Sergeant; Winfield S. Wilson appointed Quartermaster Sergeant; John Shover appointed Sergeant; Ephraim Cunningham appointed Corporal; Lucian Doty appointed Corporal; Joseph Smith appointed Corporal; Henry H. Hartman appointed Corporal.

Three cheers were given for the Graybill Zouaves. A vote of thanks was tendered the gentleman who gave the field for drilling. On motion it was agreed to meet at Mifflin on the Fourth of July. J. K. ROBINSON, Captain. MATTHEW ROYD, O. S. CARPENTERS and Cabinet Makers will find it to their advantage to buy their tools at Graybill's hardware store.

REV. I. W. WILEY, of the Methodist Church, has recently been elected a Bishop. Bishop Wiley was born in Mifflin county, and is well known to many persons in this town and county. The following brief outline of his life we reproduce from an exchange: The Rev. Isaac W. Wiley, D. D., is a Pennsylvanian by birth, and in the 47th year of his age. At the age of thirteen he was converted and became a member of the M. E. Church. In the year 1846 he graduated at Medicine, but instead of continuing in that profession, joined the Philadelphia Conference in 1849, and in the next year sailed for China as a missionary, returning to this country in 1854. His knowledge of medicine was of signal value in the mission work. Immediately after his return he entered upon pastoral work, and four years afterward was elected President of Pennington Seminary, in New Jersey, and held that position five years. The General Conference, held in Philadelphia in May, 1864, elected him the editor of The Ladies' Repository, published at Cincinnati, and he has filled that position up to the present time. It is a singular fact that four of the editors of this periodical have been elevated to the Episcopacy within a quarter of a century, namely Bishop Hameline in 1844, Bishops Thompson and Clark in 1864, and now Bishop Wiley. He is regarded as an excellent preacher and platform speaker. In person he is of medium height, slender build, and compact form, and is pleasing in address.

GARDEN TOOLS of all kinds for sale at Graybill's Hardware Store.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The Juniata County Sabbath School Association met in Perryville on the 29th ult., and continued its sessions through that, and the day following. The number of delegates present was something over a hundred, representing some thirty odd schools—a larger number than had ever been present before. A few schools that were represented last year were not represented this year, and a large number were represented this year that had never before sent delegates. Another accession was the large representation of ministers present. The discussion of the various subjects presented to the consideration of the Convention was entered into with considerable zeal—at times was quite animated, and was always interesting and instructive. A deeper interest was manifested ever before. Evidently our meetings to gether have not been in vain. A greater earnestness and zeal in the Sabbath School work seems everywhere throughout the county to be manifested and great encouragement to labor in this glorious cause is derived from these great council meetings. All who attended, the meetings, whether as delegates or spectators, seemed to be highly edified. Various improvements have been suggested. And another year we anticipate even better things than we enjoyed this year.

"Reports" were received from some thirty-nine schools, but, as others have promised to send their reports to the Secretary, the statistics will not be given at the present time. The hospitality of the citizens of Perryville cannot be too highly spoken of—they are well worthy of imitation. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted, as expressing the sense of the convention upon the important matters therein contained: Resolved, That the success of our Sabbath Schools during the past year is encouraging, and calls for thanksgiving to God.

Resolved, That the success of our Sabbath Schools during the past year is encouraging, and calls for thanksgiving to God. 2. That the importance of Sunday Schools cannot be over estimated, and that Sunday school workers cannot be too earnest and devoted. 3. That the Convention recommends meetings for the preparation of lessons; great care in the selection of library books; the use of the blackboard; infant classes, and a regular order of exercises in the schools; also, doubts the expediency of offering prizes. 4. That the thanks of this convention are due, and are tendered to the citizens of Perryville and vicinity for their kindness and hospitality; to the officers of the Presbyterian congregation for the use of their church; to the committee on entertainment; to the choir for their music; and to the editors of our county papers for advertising meetings of convention.

THOMAS A. ELDER, Secy. Mifflintown, June 1, 1872. [COMMUNICATED.] DECORATION DAY—Once more the time for this patriotic and interesting ceremony has come and gone. Yes, the 30th of May (thanks to the soldiers yet living) is observed as a holiday almost throughout the entire country. On this day, at least, we forsake the busy haunts of trade and forget the cares of daily life, to assemble in the last resting-place of men who loved the Republic unto death. To stand in the midst of such a scene is impressive. By going a few years into the past, and recalling the many privations of the Union soldier not only on the battle-field and in the hospital, but in the cruel prison pens of the South, the mere looker-on can appreciate the strewing of soldiers' graves with the living flowers of spring, considering the act as emblematic of the grand truth that the dead heroes, gathered from the field of battle, and the cause for which they fought, will live in perennial freshness in the public mind. All who took part in the war for liberty and union should recognize the importance of this anniversary. Orphans visit the graves of their fathers and learn more intelligently the noble lesson of love to country.—Widows will visit the graves of their husbands, and mothers the graves of their sons, thankful that they had not dishonored the names they bore; and the surviving comrades will gather near, eagerly and earnestly, while on their hearts will be written once more the sublime doctrine, that he who fights for deserves well of his country.

But the war is over, and there are some who think that nothing should be done that in any way will tend to keep alive the bitter passions which the war necessarily produced. This is eminently true; but we are not to be told that those of us who honor the graves of the soldiers who fell for their country, are keeping alive civil strife, or maintaining divisions. (Perhaps the government should cease granting pensions to widows and orphans, and maimed and crippled comrades, for the same reason.) A certain division must almost be maintained between those who love their country and defend it, and those who attack and would despoil it. Our soldiers fell fighting for the Union, its flag, its government, and their own and our country. Whatever the valor which the rebels may have shown, treason had to go down; and whoever seeks to keep alive their name, and call it fame, seeks to keep alive the name and the credit of the rebellion. Let us therefore not weary in this our solemn duty, but with each returning spring bedeck the graves of the ones gone before with nature's choicest flowers, for by honoring the patriot dead we honor ourselves.

"Dear to each heart are the names of the brave, resting in glory how sweetly they sleep; Dew-drops at evening fall soft on each grave, Kindred bend fondly, and drooping eyes weep Tears of affection o'er every green grave; Fresh are the laurels, and peaceful their sleep. Love still shall cherish the noble and brave." X. Y. Z. PERRYVILLE, May 31, 1872.

LAST Thursday about noon a pleasant family re-union took place at the residence of Captain C. McCallan, on the occasion of the 51st birthday of the Captain's father, Mr. James McCallan. Father McCallan and his aged wife were not informed of the preparation for the ingathering of their children, grand children, and great grand children, until they had all quietly assembled at the house of the Captain, where the parents reside. Four sons—the only children—with their wives and children and children's children were present, making a company, including the aged couple, of twenty eight.

Married: NIPPLE—DUNN—On the 23rd ult., by Rev. D. M. Blackweider, Mr. William H. Nipple and Miss Maggie N. Dunn, both of Mifflin township. JUNK—VAN SWERINGEN—On the 29th ult., by Rev. J. A. McGill, at the residence of the bride's father, William Van Swearingen, Esq., Mr. James H. Junk and Miss Tillie Van Swearingen, both of Tuscarora township, Juniata county.

Mr. and Mrs. Junk have the thanks and congratulations of this office for their kind remembrance of the printer. May their journey through life be one of uninterrupted prosperity and happiness. For the cure of weak stomach, general debility, indigestion, disease of the nervous system, constipation, acidity of the stomach, and all cases requiring a tonic. The wine includes the most agreeable and efficient salt of Iron we possess; Citrate of Magnesia Oxide, combined with the most energetic of vegetable tonics—Yellow Peruvian Bark.

The effect in many cases of debility loss of appetite, and general prostration, of an efficient salt of Iron, combined with our valuable Nerve, is most happy. It augments the appetite, raises the pulse, takes off muscular flabbiness, removes the pallor of debility, and gives a florid vigor to the countenance. Do you want something to strengthen you? Do you want a good appetite? Do you want to build up your constitution? Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of nervousness? Do you want energy? Do you want to sleep well? Do you want brisk and vigorous feelings? Do you want, try Kunkel's Wine of Iron.

This truly valuable Tonic has been so thoroughly tested by all classes of the community that it is now deemed indispensable as a Tonic medicine. It costs but little, purifies the blood and gives tone to the stomach, renews the system and prolongs life. I now only ask a trial of this valuable Tonic. Price $1 per bottle. E. F. Kunkel, Sole Proprietor, 259 North Ninth street, below Vine, Philadelphia. Ask for Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron and take no other. If your Druggist has it not, send $1 to my address, and the medicine, with advice free, will come by next express train. [Feb. 28, 72-6m] Agents Wanted for Life and Times of JAS.
