Port Royal, Aug. 17, 1872.

News from Neighboring Counties.

PERRY COUNTY.—The new Presbyterian church at Bloomfield is nearly finished. The Ladies of the Lutheran church of Bloomfield held a festival in the Court House Yard on Monday and Tuesday evenings of last week. B. P. McIntire, District Attorney, resigned. The Court appointed Jacob Bailey in his stead. Wm. S. Mitchell, residing near Newport, was thrown in front of a reaper while in motion. The leaders in his wrist were cut, thereby rendering the wrist joint powerless. The engineer at Reckel's Tannery, at Newport, had a finger taken off by the machinery of his engine.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY.—The practice of paying the minister's salary in advance in monthly instalments is favorably looked on by Presbyterians. Frank Drake had a leg broken and was otherwise seriously hurt by the breaking of a derrick at Natilla Furnace. Stoneware clay is found near the town of Huntingdon. The editor of the Journal intimates that a lady wanted to get up a handkerchief flirtation with him. Be a little plainer and tell what a handkerchief flirtation is. A. L. Guss, of Cassville, has been nominated by the Republicans for Congress. Huntingdon boasts of her pretty women.

BLAIR COUNTY.—Altoona enjoyed a military parade on Friday evening. Altoona rifle men picniced on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Young people of the mountain city participate in moonlight croquet parties. The Tribune publishes the local news from Hollidaysburg and Tyrone under the head of Suburban Intelligence. Cowl enough that What say you, Over and Brainerd? The Molton iron fell on to the roof from the cupola of the Gayport building, setting it on fire. It was extinguished, however, before much damage was done. A boy named William Christy was run over by the cars at Cresson a few days ago. Both his legs were taken off. He died the next day. Showmen are fleeing citizens who can be allured to take a hand at three card monte.

MIFFLIN COUNTY.—Railroad men connected with the Sunbury and Lewistown railroad, presented a one hundred and fifty dollar set of drafting instruments to the late Superior of that road, W. H. Brown, and a one hundred dollar watch chain to C. L. Bretz, late train master of the same road. The presentation took place at the National Hotel, in Lewistown, on the evening of the 10th inst. Mrs. Samuel Hoover, of Berry township, died of hemorrhage on the night of the 12th inst. She arose to attend to the babe she remarked as she did so, "I feel very sick, as though I were going to throw up," and a moment afterward blood spouted from her mouth and nose. Death ensued before any one could be called. The Gazette thinks hogs are the best of town scavengers, and advocates their running at large. The Baptists are to hold a festival on the 22nd above town. A mad dog was shot in an alley in Lewistown, some days ago. George Bates is the name of the Democratic candidate for Assembly. The house and barn of William Liddell, a short distance above Newton Hamilton, were destroyed by fire on the 13th inst. The new Bank at McVeystown has been opened for business. J. R. Wirt, formerly of Juniata county, is Cashier. E. S. Parker, Cashier of the Bank of Doty, Parker & Co., of Millintown, opened the books for the institution. The largest picnic that ever left Lewistown was held at Saradville, on Thursday, the 8th inst.

THE CENTRAL PARK MENAGERIE AND CIRCUS.—The Buffalo Courier speaks in terms of unqualified praise of this establishment, which exhibited here on Friday June 14th. It says "the show is one of the most attractive we have ever seen here. Some of its zoological features are almost fascinating by virtue of their novelty; and the scenic exhibition has exciting entertainment for the most base of circus goers. The procession, yesterday, was a fine one, although the rain robbed it of its fair proportions and rendered the display of plumes, elegant houndings and multifarious trappings, impracticable. The pageant, nevertheless was a brilliant one, everything was new and in all its constituent parts indicated good taste, enterprise and managerial genius. The menagerie is an excellent one; it is organized with reference to the pleasure of the public, and the many rarities it boasts of makes it especially attractive to the student of natural history. We may not enumerate its long list of animals and birds, but we cannot resist the temptation to speak of some of the specialties as particularly worthy of study—such as the potogaine, a sable antelope, the black tiger, the African eland a singularly graceful animal; the curious harte-beste, the cazembian bless bock, the Rocky Mountain moose, and the great Australian bird show. The young lion cubs and baby kangaroos are sensational in a high degree, and those of mature years take to them as kindly as the children. They are infantile curiosities which one does not see very often in a life time and everybody should make their acquaintance. The other features of the menagerie commend the exhibition unqualifiedly to the public and it is doubtful if anything approaching it will be exhibited this season. The grand street procession will form at between 8 and 9 o'clock in the morning.

THE Republicans of Juniata County recognize no clique rule.

John T. Morgan, while working at Cuyahoga coal shaft near Providence, in Luzerne county, last Saturday, made a most remarkable escape from a horrible death. Having occasion to walk across the mouth of the shaft, one of the planks covering it broke, and he was precipitated to the bottom, a distance of 183 feet. Some men working near the foot of the shaft heard a cry and proceeding to the spot found him in about two and a half feet of water, and to their amazement Morgan related to them how the plank had broken 183 feet above and he had fallen down. Not a bone was broken, and, except a lightly sprained ankle and a little bruise on the chest, he was uninjured. He wore a pair of wide oil cloth pants, tight around the waist, and two oil cloth coats, buttoned close at the neck. The theory advanced is that the air inflated his wide clothes, and his descent was comparatively easy.—Baver Radical.

Diets:

DELANCY.—On the 6th ult., in Spruce Hill township, George Henry, son of Joshua and Isabella F. Delancy, aged 2 years, 10 mos and 21 days.

BURCHFIELD.—On Thursday night last, Mrs. Jane Burchfield, wife of Hon. Lewis Burchfield, of Milford township, in the 6th year of her age.

McCoy.—On the 17th inst., in Fernanagh township, Edwin, son of John M. and Jane McCoy, aged 9 months.

ROBINSON.—On Sabbath morning, Aug 18th, 1872, in Fayette township, Mr. John Robinson, aged 65 years, 3 months and 6 days.

Mr. Robinson was born in Milford township, in this (then Milford) county, on the 12th of May, 1807 and was of Scotch-Irish parentage. Early in life he embraced the communion of the Presbyterian church, and he continued an exemplary member until the close of his life. About forty years ago he removed to the home at which he died, in Lost Creek Valley. Here he reared a family of four daughters and one son, who survive him. In 1856 he was elected an elder of the Presbyterian Church of Lost Creek Valley to supply the vacancy left by the death of the Hon. William Sharon, which position he filled with fidelity and success, and of retiring manners, he exemplified throughout his life the injunction laid upon men—"This is the way, walk ye in it." He did not learn his gentleness in the world, for he withdrew himself from its culture, and yet this land contained no truer gentleness than he.

"Can that man be dead whose spiritual influence is upon his kind? He sleeps in blessing, and his sleeping dust hath more of life than half its breathing mortal's." M.

I know of no one in our county who is better qualified for these requirements than our young friend, Jeremiah Lyons, of our town, and I ask that his name be announced as a candidate for Delegate to the Constitutional Convention.
