Ox-Teams in New York.

CITY MERCHANTS SEARCHING FOR OXEN LINGLY PAID.

The Poughkeepsie correspondent of the New York Times writes as follows:

"New York men are arriving here by every train, in search of oxen to do their carting. A number of vokes have already been obtained. Mayor Eastman is receiving telegrams hourly, and has his hands full of business in the matter. R Hillyer & Sons, druggists, at No. 58 they have purchased from J. B. M. Todd, his FOR MEN AND Until APRIL, 1872. Cedar street, have secured a yoke from conduct the merchantile business at the Old Hon. R. Macey & Co, of William street, have telegraphed for rix yoke, and have probably got them by this time. Lang & Robinson, of No. 1 Front street, have a man here in search of oxen. D K. Ducker & Co., of No. 42 Fulton street, telegraph as follows: 'We want oxen by the week. Supply us by to night's boat."

J. Manroe Taylor, chemical works, telegraphs: "We want ten yoke of oxen for four weeks. If our horses recover our freight cannot be delivered under four weeks."

S. D. Palmer & Co., liquor importers, telegraph: "We want twelve yoke of oxen immediately; send them on right off."

Mr John Roosevelt will send his oxen to New York by boat to night.

A drove of fifty oxen passed into Putnam county yesterday, and are being followed up by energetic New Yorkers. They say they will have them at almost any price. Mayor Eastman sent a man into the county yesterday, and he returned last night. He reports that he PENNELL'S CHEAP STORE secured twenty three yoke, and some of them tave already arrived. More are ex sected to-day and all will be forwarded by propellers John L. Hasbrouck and to supply it. In a day or two, however. the way the news is now traveling, oxen will come pouring in from all quarters Embracing all the materials for men, women and the price per day for them may de eline. At present the price ranges from cline. At present the price ranges from of Muslins, Sheetings Drillings, Tickings, Oil $S to $12 per day for a yoke with driver Cloths, Mattings, &c. accompanying. The freight on a pair of oxen from here to New York is $3.

A Chinaman's Funeral.

LI CHOW CHIN BURIED IN STATE BY HIS LOVING COUNTRYMEN-CURIOUS CER- Collars and Cuffs, and a general assortment EMONIES IN THE BURIAL SERVICE.

The unique ceremonies of a Chinese funeral were performed on the grounds adjoining Captain Harvey's laundry, at Belleville, N J., yesterday. The dead man was one Li Chow Chin, a recently imported washerman, who fell a victinto the severity of our climate. His latter days were passed in profound com munion with an ugly wooden god, to which he remained desperately loyal in spite of the most zealous efforts of a Christian minister to redeem Li Chow Chin from heathenism. As he lived he died, and his funeral yesterday was attended by 220 Chinese, the total number of Captain Harvey's washermen. Dressed as usual, in wooden shoes, flabby pantaloons, loose shirts and far-extending pigtails, they assembled in the spacious Gents' Fine and Coarse Boots, ironing room of the laundry, and in their manner were silent and demure while awaiting the removal of their departed brother. When all was ready they moved gravely, and, like a religious order of Chinemen, down to their countryman's grave in the field below.

threw a piece of lighted paper upon the corpse when it was laid to rest. From the paper funeral pile a dense volume of smoke arose and the spirit of Lo Chow Chin was believed by his brethren to have ascended therein to the clouds. As the clay was being heaped upon the Chinese corpse little sticks and pieces of and money was distributed among the

and no preparation for the hair has ever been produced equal to Hall's "Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer," and every honest dealer will say it gives the best satisfaction. It restores GRAY HAIR to its original color, eradicating and preventing dandruff, curing BALDNESS and promoting the growth of the hair. The gray and brashy hair by a few applications is changed to black and silky locks, and wayward hair will assume any shape the wearer desires. It is the cheapest HAIR DRESS-ING in the world, and its effects last longer, as it excites the glands to furnish the nutritive principle so necessary to the life of the hair. It gives the hair that splendid appearance so much admired by all. By its tonic and stimulating properties it prevents the hair from falling out, and none need be without Nature's ornament, a good head of hair. It is the first real perfected remedy ever discovered for curing diseases of the hair, and it has never been equalled, and we assure the thousands who have used it, it is kept up to its original high standard.
