THE Lewistown Gazette says: The canal is a good soberer—at least we would think so from the fact that a douse at the end of the canal bridge one evening last week sobered a fellow who went in very quickly. He struck his forehead on a stone of the wall in falling and but for Tommy Cameron and another gentleman would have afforded material for an inquest.

ON Thanksgiving day, Alfred Smith, a freight train brakeman and a resident of Cove Station, Perry county, was looking over the side of his train east ward bound, at a burning box and did not notice the near approach to a bridge above Lewistown. FIRE IN BLACK LOG.—The house occupied by the families of Thomas Ramler and his son "Wm." in Black Log Valley, Juniata county, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday, 20th November, catching from the stove pipe or flue. A DOG GOES THROUGH A WINDOW.—Saturday afternoon week, Messrs. Jacob Hoyer and Scott Lee came to town in a buggy and a large mastiff, Mr. Lee's, followed in their wake. They alighted in front of an entered John O. Smith's confectionery. Mr. Hoyer went out, closing the door after him, got into the buggy and drove off, and the dog, determined not to be left behind, jumped through the glass front, scattering the glass in every direction. When last seen the dog was going down Pitt street at a break neck speed, with an old white hat tied to his tail.—Bedford Inquirer.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday last Mr. Cyrus Gearhart, of Manor Hill drove to Petersburg with a horse team for the purpose of purchasing a stove and other articles. While in town he indulged in too much liquor and when starting for home was noticed to be considerably under the influence of it. Tackling his seat in the wagon he started the team at a furious rate and while under full speed attempted to turn a corner, in doing which the wagon ran over a pile of stones, upset and threw him out against a paling fence. When picked up it was discovered that one of his legs was broken and he had received an ugly cut on the head. Since the accident he has laid in an unconscious state and his recovery is not expected. Will man never learn the fearful consequences of indulgence in strong drink?—Huntingdon Monitor.

A complete assortment of Table and Pocket Cutlery for sale by the Francis' Hardware Company, Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Iron, Nails, Steel, Horse Shoes, Paints, Oils, Glass, Putty, &c., &c. FOR SALE.

INCENDIARISM.—On Monday night week, about 7 o'clock, an attempt was made to burn down the stabling belonging to the Robinson Hotel, in this borough. The fire was started on the outside at the northwest corner of the stable where it joins the large frame building on the Hackett lot, now occupied by Mr. Hombach as a stone cutter shop. The fire was discovered by Sheriff Rine-smith as he was coming up the alley from the jail. The corner was then in a blaze and the Sheriff quickly seizing a bucket of water in the shop of Mr. Hombach, dashed it on the fire. A few buckets of water extinguished the flames before much damage was done. A few minutes more, and the probability is that no human power could have saved the stable, and the destruction of the whole corner of the adjacent buildings have been inevitable. This is the third attempt to set fire to this stable. No mercy will be shown the incendiary if caught in the act.—Bloomfield Advocate.

THE Gem Pan, a useful article, for sale at Paiste's Hardware Store. Call and see it.

HORSE THIEVES, according to our exchanges, are on the war path all over the country. Four weeks ago, two men riding horses stopped at Mr. John Fink's, in Hopewell township, and wanted to know if they could leave their horses in his charge for a week and they would settle the bill when they called for them. Mr. Fink told them that they could, and in less time than it takes to record this, the horses were freed from their saddles and bridles and turned loose into a field, and the two men started on their way rejoicing without giving their names. Three weeks rolled on, but the owners did not call to get their stock, and Mr. F. supposes that they were horse thieves, who, believing they were closely pursued, played this ruse to make good their escape from the hands of justice.—Bedford Inquirer.

COACHMAKERS will find a large lot of Boggy Springs at Paiste's Wholesale and Retail Hardware Store, Crystal Palace Building.

WHO PAYS THE COSTS.—At every term of court speculation is indulged as to who pays the costs in actions at law. The following will give the direct information.

In the following cases the county is not liable to costs:

1. If the grand jury return a bill "ignoramus" in a case other than felony and order the prosecutor to pay the costs, and the prosecutor having been sentenced by the court to pay them, is committed, and then discharge according to law without having paid them, the county is not liable to costs.

2. Nor is the county liable if a bill be found "a true bill," and the defendant having been tried and acquitted, and ordered by the petit jury to pay them, and is committed and discharged according to law, the costs not being paid.

3. Nor if the defendant is acquitted and the prosecutor ordered by the petit jury to pay the costs, who, after being sentenced by the court to pay them, is committed and discharged according to law, the costs being unpaid.

4. Where a defendant indicted for a misdemeanor is acquitted by the petit jury, and the jury does not determine whether the county, the prosecutor or the defendant shall pay the costs of prosecution, as they are required to do by the act of 8th of December, 1864, the costs are not to be paid by the county.

5. Where an indictment has been returned "a true bill," the prosecuting attorney cannot enter nolle prosequi without the consent of the court and charge the county with the costs of the prosecution.

In the following cases the county is liable to pay the costs:

1. Where a defendant is convicted by a jury and is legally discharged without having paid the costs.

2. When in cases of summary of the peace the court directs the county to pay the costs.

3. When the grand jury ignore a bill and direct the county to pay the costs, and when the petit jury acquit the defendant and direct the county to pay the costs.

4. In cases of felony, when the grand jury ignore the bill, and when the defendant is acquitted by the petit jury.

5. In all cases when the defendant is found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine and costs of prosecution or give security to pay the same within ten days or go to jail, and defendant goes to jail and comes out under the bond act the county is liable.—Lewistown Patriot.
