DOG-DEAD MAN. A Paris correspondent of the New York Times writes : One of the vacant lots upon an outer boulevard is given up to a sort of fair. There are several small shows and jog glers' booths. Upon the outside of a small shanty one sees a large painted canvas representing a number of wild animated crowd was gathered before this show, several persons accusing the show- asser ment of paid five sous to see the animals, and had ING OF seen but one suake and that was dead. The showman protested-the bele was only sleecing. A countryman, armed with a heavy stick, and followed by a frisky little dog, proposed to settle the matter, and declared if he found any de ception he would enter a complaint against the showman. The public acclaimed their brawny champion, and pay- FANCY GOODS, ing again, out of curiosity or a sense of public duty, they entered the show. The snake was as quiet as ever. The countryman walked about him, tapped on the glass, and finally decided that the snake was not alive. "It you come when he takes his food you will see whether he is alive or not," said the showman. The countryman declared that this was more Having just returned from the city with the ly to put off the public " No man can deceive me with such shows as this," he decline in Gold, we feel warranted in saying said moje-tically; and the crowd ap that we can offer Goods at greatly reduced fig ures for CASH OR COUNTRY PRODUCE. planded "You buy a rabbit for himthen, 'said the showman, sulkily. The compleyman was so sure that no man could deceive him that he offered to throw in his dog At first the showman ac cepted but seeing that his antagonist was PENNELL'S CHEAP STORE in carnest he began to protest. The crowd became menacing. They threat ened to tear down his shanty, and to murch him off to the police. Holding the dog in one hand and his stick in the liberal patronage heretofore received from other, the countryman allowed one minute only for opening the cage. The for his pains. The time had nearly expired when he raised his lid, and with a glance of triumph around, the countryman threw in his dog. The showman was killed on the spot Before the Commissaire the countryman expressed many regrets for his vivacioumovements, and so did the weeping wife and children of the showman. " M . the times President," he said, "I am very sorry indeed that I killed the saltimbanque, but that dog of mine was worth three hundred francs." The man will be tried for "homicide by imprudence," and will get from three to five years.

Curious Inventions.

Among the inventions for which pat ents have recently been obtained in the United States are the following. A device for attaching buttons to clothing with a screw-driver; an attachment to pianos, so that the strings may be touch ed mid length by a pedal movement, and sounds similar to a violin or guitar ob tained; a child's carriage, so arranged that when the handles are dropped a pawi stops the wheels and arrests motion at once, and when grasped the pawl is released; a pencil-sharper that also oper ates as a handle for stumps of lead pen cils; breastpins and earrings, with tubes to hold artificial flowers; an apparatus for drawing on boots, consisting of a strap passing around the body below the waist, having at each end a book to en gage the boot tugs; a medical compound for the smallpox, composed of saltpetre. gum camphor, and charcoal; a bouquetholder of soft metal, that, after filling with flowers and water, may be closed at the top; a lady's comb, passed into the back hair in the usual manner and the leaves allowed to overlap and press upon the chignon, a spring serving not only to retain the ornament in place, but the chignon also; a headlight for locomotives, with an adjustable number placed in front of the light, and also with a movable colored screen to be operated by the engineer; a toy bank, in which an automaton banker stands to receive money, and, when a spring is disengaged, he turns round, the door is shut, and the money is deposited in the back part of

One of the most profitable as well as interesting kinds of business for a woman is the care of bees. In a recent agricultural report it is stated that one lady bought four hives for ten dollars, and in five years she was offered one thousand five hundred dollars for her stock, and refused it as not enough. In addition to this increase of her capital, in one of these five years she sold twenty-two hives and four bundred and twenty pounds of honey.

A wedding was to take place lately, and bride, parson, and guests were ready when it was aunounced that the unhappy groom was on a jury which was unable to agree and had been locked up for the evening.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baidness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy

Nine years before the public, and no preparation for the hair has ever been produced equal to Hall's "Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer," and every honest dealer will say it gives the best satisfaction. It restores GRAY HAIR to its original color, eradicating and preventing dandruff, curing BALDNESS and promoting the growth of the bair. The gray and brashy bair by a few applications is changed to black and silky locks, and wayward bair will assume any shape the wearer desires. It is the chapest HAIR DRESS-ING in the world, and its effects last longer, as it excites the glands to famish the nutritive principle to necessary to the life of the bair. It gives the hair that apleudid appearance so much admired by all. By its tonic and stimulating properties it prevents the hair from falling out, and none need be without Nature's ornament, a good head of hair. It is the first real perfected remedy ever discovered for curing diseases of the hair, and it has never been equalled, and we assure the thousands who have used it, it is kept up to its original high standard. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful thousantide proclaim Visuous Britans the most wonderful lavigurant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, inking to the system of so many thousands, are electrally destroyed and removed. Says a dismigurable phrasingist: There is waterly an individual upon the face of the sarth whose body is exemnt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but mon the diseased homory and allow deposits that break there bring measures of disease, No system of Medicine, no veroninges, no anthelemitics, will free the system from worms like these Binters.
