CORN SHRELLERS and Fodder Cutters for sale at Paiste's Hardware Store.

Francisus' are closing out their stock of Stoves at cost.

B. F. KEMPER & SON have changed the appearance of their store room.

JOEL SHIER of Fayette township killed two hogs that weighed 1072 pounds last week.

New York Club Skates for sale very cheap at Francisus'.

WANTED—100 Bushels Walnuts at Shelley & Stambaugh's, in exchange for goods.

The greatest medicine to abate pain and rheumatism is "Kunkel's Pain Slayer" For sale at Banks & Hamlin's Drug Store, Millintown.

SENBURY has a daily paper. J. E. Eichholz, who spent a portion of his boyhood days in this town, is the editor and proprietor. We wish the enterprise success.

Meat Cutters and Sausage Stuffers for sale at Paiste's Wholesale and Retail Hardware Store, Crystal Palace Building.

If you want a beautiful Parlor Lamp, complete for $75, call at Francisus'.

READ the advertisement of Cornelius Bentley in to-day's paper. He now occupies the Bedford store room, where he is prepared to supply all who need anything in his line of trade, at the lowest prices.

JAMES MARRIOTT fell from the hay loft of his father's stable, in Walker township, on last Wednesday, and broke his left arm just above the wrist. Dr. Smith rendered the attention the case required.

The callidumpians held a highly indecent carnival in Water street, on Saturday night. The community is tired and disgusted with such conduct. On the next gathering of such a character let the officers of the law discharge their duty.

Rogers' genuine Silver plated Spoons and Forks for sale very low at Francisus'.

N. E. LITTLEFIELD sold the Hoffman lot on the corner of Bide and Water streets on Saturday to Tiltan and Espenschade, and on Monday the firm sold it to Mr. John Hoffman, the gentleman from whom Mr. Littlefield had purchased the property.

A. J. GESS, a former Editor of this paper, but for the five or six years past Principal of the Cassville Soldiers Orphan School has bought the Huntingdon Globe of Mr. Lewis. Both the incoming and outgoing administration have our best wishes for the success of their respective enterprises.

THERE are but few systems that do not at some time or other require a tonic. KUNKEL'S BITTER WINE OF IRON is noted for its invigorating powers.

Francisus' are closing out their large stock of Meat Cutters and Stuffers at cost.

On last Friday evening Mrs. HERSHEY, wife of James L. Hershey, residing a short distance above Patterson, while descending a ladder in the stable missed her hold and fell backward when about five feet from the ground. She was severely injured about the head and right shoulder, which in the fall struck the end of a trough.

Very short wedding trips are in fashion just now, and very short engagements, and brides in good society avoid most trivially the traditional gray and brown traveling suits formerly in vogue, and dress as unbecomingly as possible so that "all creation needn't know we've just been married."—Exchange.

We have been informed that a corps of railroad engineers are surveying a route from Port Treveron, on the Susquehanna, to the Juniata. They have reached a point two miles west of Richfield, and will come as near to Millin as McAlisterville by Christmas. From the latter place to Millin they will find no trouble to locate a route susceptible of easy grade, with few obstacles to overcome. Welcome engineers and the company who employ them.

WANTED—1,000 pounds of Dried Apples, for which the highest price will be allowed in exchange for goods by SHELLY & STAMBAUGH.

A fine assortment of Silver Plated Ware for Holiday Presents, at Francisus'.

It appears that the dispatch stating that Col. J. J. Patterson was imprisoned for bribery was not true. A later dispatch explains by saying that the report that J. J. Patterson, Senator elect, was imprisoned, was a mistake. He was arrested by Justice Kirk, on an affidavit of Assemblyman Miller, and immediately released on bail, since which Justice Kirk has been removed, by a unanimous vote of the Legislature, and Assemblyman Miller has disappeared, in consequence of a warrant being out against him for perjury.

Stoves will be sold at greatly reduced prices at Paiste's Wholesale and Retail Hardware Store, in order to make room for other goods. If you want a cheap stove, now is your time.

Country merchants, you can buy goods just as low, if not lower, at Francisus' than from city jobbers.

The Beaver killed on the 13th inst. says: The court House was discovered to be on fire Wednesday about 1 o'clock. The alarm was given, the bell rung, and soon the citizens came running from all directions, some with ladders, others with buckets of water, and ropes, by the use of which the fire was quickly extinguished. The fire caught from a defective flue in the County Superintendent's room and had got under considerable headway beneath the roof before it was discovered; the damage was slight—a rafter or two destroyed, and a patch of the roof torn and burnt off.

Francisus' have just received a large assortment of Skates, which they are selling very low.

Who is R. SPANGLER?—A sad accident occurred on Thanksgiving day from the cause of the levee system. Stephen Bigger, who has been hauling iron ore from the Springhill mines to Martinsburg, Blair county, becomes very much intoxicated in one of the rum holes in Martinsburg. He was found a few hours afterward upon the road, dead! This wagon had evidently passed over his body. He leaves a wife and nine children in destitute circumstances. Who is responsible?

We answer, two parties. First The wretch who sold him whiskey for gain. Second, The Christian people of Martinsburg who permit it to be licensed.—EDITOR.—Temperance Advocate, Dec. 13th Lanterns and Lamps for sale at Paiste's Wholesale and Retail Hardware Store, Crystal Palace Building.

We are pleased to have received a volume of "Songs of Early and Later Years," by Mrs. M. J. E. Crawford, formerly Miss Knox, and at one time a resident of this county. The book is neat in appearance, unusually happy in choice of subjects, and edifying as well as pleasing in quality of selections. To admirers of poetry the work is well worth perusal, containing many rich and pious thoughts, clothed in a garb simple and beautiful. The talent of the authoress has been previously and prominently recognized, and no doubt many copies of the present book will be secured by friends and appreciative acquaintances. This interesting volume can be had by addressing Nathan Zimmerman, Oakland Mills, this county.

Don't fail to read the advertisement of The Francisus' Hardware Company for prices, which will be found lower than city prices.

A good many people seem to think that it is a part of the duty of newspaper men to ventilate through their columns all the trifling matters of scandal that are afloat in private circles. We have found out by experience that those scandal mongers who are most ready to furnish for publication matters affecting the good name of their neighbors is always anxious to escape responsibility for their utterances by writing anonymously, or if they do happen to sign their names to their communications they are sure to request the publisher to keep them profoundly secret. It may be well enough once in a while to let these busy-bodies know that the public press has nothing to do with the private life of either man or woman. As a contemporary says: "It is only when the public acts of men, who are in public life, are not in accordance with public duty, that the journalist has a right to call the acts or principles in question, articles of news and that which takes place in courts and before justices, are fair subjects for reporting and comment. Any other style of journalism is out of the pale of legitimacy, and to it a penalty attaches, which, sooner or later, falls upon those who pursue it."—Exchange.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF AN OLD SWINDLER.—A gentleman from Allentown called at the Mayor's office soon after the arrival of the Pacific express east on the Pennsylvania railroad, yesterday, and stated that he had been swindled out of $350. He said that between Chicago and Pittsburg he made the acquaintance of a "gentle dressed" man, who made himself very agreeable and sociable; that when within about seven miles of Pittsburg the acquaintance newly made was approached by a man who asked "if he could fix that matter now?" He replied to the interrogatory that he had not the amount about him, and inquired of the Allentown gentleman if he had any ready money about him, and upon being informed that he had $350, the nice young man pulled a check from his pocket for $270 on the "Fourth National Bank of New York," and asked him to advance the amount required, and to hold the check as security until his arrival here where the sharper claimed to be in the grocery business on East State street.—The check was made payable to the order of G. B. Myer. After the transaction the Allentown party lost sight of his friend at Pittsburg, and will probably never set his eyes on him again. He had about enough money left to take him home, and will no doubt, when he travels again, be careful how he makes the acquaintance of strangers and advance money on check offered by parties with whom he has recently met.—Harrisburg Telegraph, December 13th

Special Notices. THE GREAT DISCOVERY. Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. For the cure of weak stomach, general debility, indigestion, disease of the nervous system, constipation, acidity of the stomach, and all cases requiring a tonic. The wine includes the most agreeable and efficient Salt of Iron we possess: Citrate of Magnetic Oxide, combined with the most energetic of vegetable tonics—Yellow Peruvian Bark.

The effect in many cases of debility, loss of appetite, and general prostration, of an efficient salt of Iron, combined with our valuable Nerve, is most happy. It augments the appetite, raises the pulse, takes off morbid humors, removes the pallor of debility, and gives a bound vigor to the countenance. Do you want something to strengthen you? Do you want a good appetite? Do you want to build up your constitution? Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of nervousness? Do you want energy? Do you want to sleep well? Do you want break and vigorous feelings? If you do, try Kunkel's Wine of Iron. This truly valuable Tonic has been so thoroughly tested by all classes of the community that it is now deemed indispensable as a tonic medicine. It cures but little, purifies the blood and gives tone to the stomach, renews the system and prolongs life. I now only ask a trial of this valuable Tonic. Price $1 per bottle. E. F. Kunkel, Sole proprietor, 259 North Ninth street, below Vine, Philadelphia.

Ask for Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron and take no other. If your Druggist has it not, send $1 to my address, and the medicine, with advice free, will come by next express train. [Feb 28, '72-6m]
