TOWN AND COUNTRY.

The special law relative to the public printing in this county has been repealed by the Legislature, and the repealing act signed by the Governor.

RECORDER BUNN held a court on Monday afternoon, Judge Junkin acting as Clerk.

THE STATE EDITORIAL ASSOCIATES discontinue the use of the 'patent outside.'

IT IS UNLAWFUL to catch pike now. It will be lawful to catch them after the 1st of next June.

'MIXTURES' are gotten up for the Altoona Tribune by a lady who styles herself 'Katie B. H.' The mixtures are full of spice and are pleasant to take.

SOME of the Newspapers now along the Juniata style the patent outside newspapers—or, in other words, the papers that have half their columns printed in New York or Philadelphia—the papers with the 'barrowed bowels.'

THE Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the Licking Creek Lutheran Church, on next Sabbath. Preparatory services on Saturday morning previous. Also, preaching on Friday and Saturday evenings.

ATTENTION, GRAYBILL ZOUAVES!—You are hereby ordered to meet at your armory on February 22nd, at ten o'clock A. M., in full uniform for drill. A full attendance is required for special business. By order of the Captain.

A. H. FASICK, O. S.

THE Altoona Tribune says that there is a new party in that town. It is called the 'lip tickler party.' It is hoped that the Tribune will stand corrected when it is announced that said party is not a new one. The name is all that is new. The party was organized and has had a lively existence ever since Adam and Eve met in the garden.

SINCE mercury has been observed in thermometers in Millin it has not been known to go so near the lower end of that little weather indicator as during the past week. On last Thursday morning it was down to 26 degrees below zero. At 9 o'clock in the morning with the sun shining on it, it indicated 8 degrees below zero. No wonder Brother Allison rolled and groaned in his bed and said 'I'll have none of the—snow Oh! the beautiful snow.'

COUNTERFEITS.—There are now in circulation two sets of counterfeit five dollar United States notes. The first of these bogus greenbacks is poorly engraved on tolerably good paper, and purports to be No. 9,812. The statue of 'America,' on the left hand side of the note, is faintly and badly executed, as is also the medallion portrait in the lower right hand corner. The line engraving on the back is indistinct, and the curved line weak and wavering. The second counterfeit is badly printed on wretched paper, is numbered 31,720, and the engraving is exceedingly coarse and very scratchy.—E.C.

REGULAR MEETING OF THE JUNIATA SCOUTS.—In response to a call of the Captain the Scouts met at Will's hotel, on Saturday, January 25, 1873. The roll being called forty-five men responded to their names, and were paid for their past attendance on the meetings of the company. Some time was spent in inspecting arms and equipments and in sabre drill on foot. January 25th, February 22nd, March 15th, May 24th, October 4th, November 6th were decided upon as the regular drill days for 1873. Hereafter any member missing a regular drill day and not giving a satisfactory excuse within twenty days, in addition to losing his pay, will be fined one dollar. The next meeting will be in Perryville.

J. K. ROBINSON, Capt. MATTHEW ROGERS, O. S.

THE popularity of the Local Option law appears to be gaining ground, all over the State, with wonderful rapidity, and the result of the elections will be almost unanimously in its favor. Temperance men are not standing alone in the ranks of its forces, but men of intemperate habits, who know and feel, and see the evils wrought by the whiskey traffic, are anxious to have the temper removed from their reach. We hope to see the day, and that very soon, when a drunken man will be as great a curiosity in Pennsylvania as a leper. It is not necessary to urge the ladies to use their mighty influence, in favor of Local Option, as that influence with a wonderful unanimity, is at work. Of course we speak of ladies, and not of females who live by their crimes; for prostitution and drunkenness are twin crimes.—Levensburg Chronicle.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A meeting of the citizens of Tuscarora and adjoining townships was held in the U. P. Church, at McCoyville, Jan. 28, 1873, to discuss the Local Option Law. The meeting was organized by calling Hon. Joseph Pomeroy to the chair. R. A. Patterson, Wm. Creighton, Wilson Palm, J. L. Barton, John Randolph, Stephen Harlan, M. Kunkle and Wm. Milliken were selected as Vice Presidents, and James J. Patterson and J. C. Crawford, Secretaries.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Shindle. The Chair then formally addressed the meeting, and was followed by Revs. Shindle, Wallen, Shryock, Magill and others.

On motion the Chair appointed the following committee on resolution: George McCulloch, Elias Gruver, John Ranolph, A. J. Howell, James Irwin, Prof. James J. Patterson. The committee, through their chairman, reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, In the providence of God, the people of Pennsylvania are called upon by an act of the Legislature to decide by ballot for or against the license of the traffic in intoxicating liquors as a beverage, on the third Friday of March, 1873.

AND WHEREAS, The people of Pennsylvania having elected a convention to amend the State Constitution, this seems, therefore, the proper time to incorporate in said instrument the total prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage.

AND WHEREAS, We have learned that efforts are being made to repeal the Local Option Law, so as to prevent its coming before the people, therefore,

Resolved, That we petition the Constitutional Convention to amend the Constitution so as to restrict the Legislature from passing laws for the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and submit it to a vote of the people with the other amendments.

Resolved, That this meeting, thankful for the opportunity afforded of discussing the question of license or no license, will improve it to the best of our ability by endeavoring to afford light upon the subject, and by stirring up and arousing our fellow citizens to the duty of voting against the liquor license system.

Resolved, That we do most earnestly protest against the repeal of the Local Option Law, and urge that it be submitted to a vote of the people.

Resolved, That we will remonstrate against any action of legislation repeal that law.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the county papers.

JAS. J. PATTERSON, J. C. CRAWFORD, Secretaries.

A meeting will be held at Academia, February 10th, 1873, at 6 1/2 P. M.

'Twas for the enterprising men in the dry goods trade, That the SENTINEL local was written, It is sad, and repeated, over and over, That they who buy there, are with poor goods never bitten.

But our slogan friend In his office at an ally's end, Did not comprehend The truth of the story, Quoth he, the thermometer shall be applied. In a thimble, to tell of the cold, Oh! the horrible cold.

He grasped his pen and a line quilled, To relieve his mind that was dreadfully rilled, At the words that were spoken Of 'the snow, oh! the beautiful snow.'

SHOT AT AND MISSED.—A correspondent writing from the Aqueduct, Perry county, under date of yesterday, says: About three o'clock this morning the night operator, Mr. W. S. Sheridan, employed by the Pennsylvania railroad company, at this point, was attacked by several ruffians while crossing the aqueduct. Several shots were fired at him, which fortunately did not hit him, although the robbers were but a few yards from him. He succeeded in escaping from them and reported the fact to the day operator, who, armed to the teeth and accompanied by him and the night watchman, made a thorough search for the parties, but did not succeed in finding them, they, no doubt, making for unknown parts after falling in their undertaking.

It seems they mistook the night operator for the agent here, who fortunately had crossed the bridge in the early part of the evening. The bridge is a very dangerous crossing place after night. A gang of workmen, in charge of the gentlemanly foreman, Mr. Smith, are repairing it and consequently lumber and piles of heavy logs, &c. are laying about promiscuously affording a good hiding place for blunderers.—Harrisburg Telegraph of the 20th ult.
