W. M. USH, W. M. VAN SWERINGEN, DAVID G. BIRM, County Commissioners.

Miscellany. For the Sentinel. Then and Now. BY A CITIZEN OF FAYETTE TOWNSHIP.

In course of time schools were established. They were long distances apart, children traveled one to three miles to the school house...

Boys and girls would go bare footed all summer, and each get one pair coarse leather shoes each year and no more.

Roads were bad generally, people were engaged in clearing, and they moved the road as often as they pleased.

When I think back fifty to sixty years and see the much hard work that men and women used to do, and compare them and their work with this generation...

Telegraphing Without Wires. There is something peculiarly fascinating in the idea of girding the earth with a vocal electric current...

I love to think of old times, for men and women were more sociable then than now. There was no aristocracy then, but all were equal...

The history of the introduction of tobacco into common use affords a striking illustration of the impotency of human laws to control the inclinations of mankind.

Mr. Loomis professes such a degree of faith in the success that awaits him, that he has magnetized Congress and the President. The bill for the incorporation of his Company, shrewdly drawn so as to require no appropriation...

Some were inclined to make a jest of the whole business but Mr. Anthony and a majority with him decided that Mr. Loomis was entitled to fair treatment...

Tobacco—Its Effects on the Human Constitution, Physical, Intellectual and Moral.

BY JAMES COULTER LAYARD, M. D. Tobacco is an Indian weed, which from the devilish root proceed, it picks your pockets, burns your clothes, and makes a chimney of your nose.

There is a plant which is instinctively avoided by every member of the brute creation. The horse will not pasture on it, the ox will not gaze on it, the ass will not feed upon it...

A lady who asserts that her opinion is based upon a close observation for years of the female, says that men, as a rule, regard their wives as angels for just two months, namely, a month before marrying her, and a month after marrying her.

Temperance Column. D. W. WICKERSHAM, BAYARD NIELDS, Editors.

Prohibition Successful. A few weeks since we published the testimony of the Governor, Council, Senators and Congressmen of Maine, proving Prohibition successful in that State.

The First Glass. Every one knows the danger of the first glass to other people, but strangely fancying himself stronger than they, the victim takes it unthinkingly.

GET OTHERS TO HELP. We believe scores and hundreds of good men could be interested in the Prohibition movement both as workers and contributors if our friends would call on them, calmly reason the matter over with them and solicit their co-operation in an earnest but judicious manner.
