TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Bergey and Wilson carried a lot of horses from here eastward, on Monday.

Judge S. S. Woods, of Lewistown, died at his residence on Wednesday last. He was buried on Saturday.

A CLOSE OBSERVER SAYS.—The three things most difficult are, to keep a secret, to forget an injury and to make good use of leisure.

The Temperance Column in this issue has been unavoidably reduced to half a column. We, however, promise a full column next week.

SOME ten or twelve years ago the people of Catharine township, Blair county banished the sale of intoxicating liquors from their midst, since which time they have not had a Commonwealth case in Court, or required the services of a constable.—Ez.

WANTED.—The undersigned, having bark timberland lying two to five miles from their tanery, in Lack township, about one mile from East Waterford, are desirous of contracting for the peeling of Fifteen Hundred Cords of Bark on said timberland, and the delivery of the same at their tanery. From $4 to $6 per cord will be paid on delivery.

D. B. SPANGLER & Co.

AN exchange says: Wanted, a little money, on subscription, at this office. We will take two dollars a piece from about one thousand subscribers between this and the first of April, provided they bring it, and we hope they will! In the event that they fail to do so, the proprietor of this "shebang" will be in a bad way financially. Seriously, "brethren and sistern," we mean what we say.

ON Monday night a week, Austin Kepner, who had been east, got off a train at Patterson and proceeded to walk to his father's residence in Milford township, about a mile and a quarter from the station. It was not past the hour of 10 o'clock. He had reached a point within a third of a mile of his father's residence when two men in the road caught him, threw him down, and robbed him of a watch worth $10 and his pocket book containing about $15. It was a successful robbery.

THE Northumberland county Democrat says: The bear that was reported to be lurking on Blue Hill, opposite this place, has not been seen for a few days. His hearship stole seven pigs from the farm of Mrs. Mary Gaugler, at Shamokin Dam. He will no doubt be captured before long, unless he has retreated further back to the woods.

If the Blue Hill people will send for John Tyson, of this place, his hearship will soon be placed in close confinement. They don't know how to catch bears over there.

PARRICIDE AT CARLISLE.—On Wednesday evening Dr. Charles Zitzer, of Carlisle, was killed by his son. It seems that the murdered man was of very intemperate habits and his family had notified the liquor dealers of the place not to give him anything to drink under penalty of prosecution. On the day named he became intoxicated and upon going home he quarreled with his wife and son for the action they had taken in his case. During the controversy the young man struck his father in the forehead with an iron pestle, causing such injuries as to result in his death several hours afterwards.

Young Zitzer was arrested and committed to jail to await a further hearing. We were informed this morning that the coroner's inquest had rendered a verdict: "That the deceased came to his death by being struck by the son with an iron pestle, in defence of his mother."—Harrisburg Telegraph Feb. 7.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Court convened on Monday a week, at half-past 10 o'clock A. M. Seven cases were continued until next term.

The first four cases in the Court of Common Pleas are as follows, and comprehended in money value in the aggregate the enormous sum of $385.30, as per statement, in figures, of the respective verdicts:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for use of Levi Hecht, vs. John Dietrick. Judgment by consent in favor of plaintiff for $79.75.

Samuel Murphy vs. Daniel Coffman. Replevin. All about the purchase and disposal of a mare. Jury found for the plaintiff $30.55.

John Patterson vs. J. P. Ueffelinger. Replevin. The trouble arose through the rebuilding of a buggy and the building of a wagon by the defendant for plaintiff and account between the parties Verdict in favor of plaintiff for $150.

William P. Walters vs. Daniel R. Warner. Action in assumpsit on a promissory note for $125. The note was given for a patent right for a fence. The jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $125.

Late on Wednesday afternoon the case of "Wright and Gallaher"—as it is commonly known, but more correctly speaking, the case of Joseph Rothrock, Executor of R. C. Gallaher, deceased, vs. Mrs. Jane Gallaher, John Wright and Mary Jane Runner, to recover the value of $23,000 worth of 520 U. S. Bonds alleged to belong to the estate of R. C. Gallaher, deceased—was reached. The remaining portion of Wednesday was consumed in hearing testimony relative to the case, also Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday up to 20 minutes to 11 o'clock A. M., when Mr. Lyons delivered the first address to the jury. The lawyers in the case were Lyons and Doty for plaintiff, Graham and Parker for defendant. The jury left the box at half past 6 o'clock, and when they returned into court at half past 7 o'clock, to render a verdict, "the plaintiff took a non-suit, whereupon the Court directed the plaintiff to take the verdict, which was done, and the jury thereupon found a verdict in favor of defendant."

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A meeting of the citizens of Tuscarora and Lack townships was held in the M. E. Church at Red's Gap, Tuscarora township, Feb. 7, 1873. The meeting was organized by calling J. S. AN EXCELLENT PEN.—We have been favored with a sample card of the celebrated Spencerian Steel Pens, and after trying them quite thoroughly are convinced of their superior merit. These pens are comprised in fifteen numbers, each differing in flexibility and fineness of point, so that the most fastidious penman cannot fail to find among the fifteen just such a pen as suits him. The Spencerian Pens are famous for their elasticity of movement, smoothness of point and great durability, and are a nearer approximation to the real Swam Quill Pen than any thing hitherto made. They are manufactured in England under the supervision of the original inventor of Steel Pens, the venerable Josiah Mason, and Joseph Gillott—the latter making a few of the numbers after the models of the late P. R. Spencer, the famous penman. They are used very largely in the common schools of the United States, in all the principal commercial colleges, in the government offices at Washington, and in the banks and commercial offices throughout the country, the sale reaching an enormous quantity annually. For the convenience of those who may wish to try them, a sample card of the Spencerian Pens may be had by mail by enclosing 25 cents to Messrs Ivison, Blakeman, Taylor & Co., 138 and 140 Grand Street, N. Y. or the pens may be bought at almost any store where pens are sold.

News from Neighboring Counties.

MIFFLIN COUNTY.

The Lewistown papers say: We know a jolly young man in town who will soon have somebody to stick his feet against. He is going to marry; but we shan't tell his name. Rev. T. McKee, of McVeytown, we are informed, lately received a call from the Presbyterian congregation at Renova, Clinton county, but he declined to accept it. We learn that a man by the name of Wm. Search, recently a hostler at the Union House, on Saturday week borrowed a horse, sleigh and buffalo robe from J. L. Himes to visit Snyder county, but next going to Redeville, then towards Centre county, induced the owner to follow the fellow and he was caught this side of Lock Haven, having sold the horse to one man for $20, the sleigh to another and the whip and robe to a third. He was committed to Bellefonte jail, and will be brought here for trial.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY.

The Huntingdon papers say: James Hollingshead, son of Charles Hollingshead, near Cassville, while walking with his brother, on the side walk, in front of the new depot, in this place, on last Saturday evening, slipped on the ice, tripping his brother and both fell, James falling under and their combined weight broke his leg. He was on a visit to some friends. An employee at the Kemble Furnaces, named Henry Miller, from Morrison's Cove, met with an untimely death, week before last in a singular manner. Owing to the ice upon the railway track, a number of coal dumps ran away from the brakemen near the furnace and were thrown from the track. Miller and others went the morning following the accident to clear up the wreck; one of the cars was hanging on a balance and in some unaccountable manner it was thrown over and caught Miller, crushing his skull and instantly killing him. Isaac Miller, who committed suicide, near Napoleon, on Saturday the 26th inst., was buried on Sunday following. The facts in the case, as sent us by a friend, are about as follows:

He was about 18 or 19 years of age and quite stout built. He had been rather indisposed for some time and was taking medicine from Dr. I. J. Meals, of Mill Creek. On Saturday his mother gave him a powder to take that the Doctor had left or sent him, after taking it he said that was all the powder he would need and went up stairs to his room and in a very few minutes the report of a pistol was heard. On his sister going up stairs she found him lying across the bed with his head to the wall, covered with blood, and a large Army Revolver lying under the front side of the bed. The ball had entered the centre of his forehead and lodged in the back part of the head. This occurred about 10 o'clock A. M., and he lived in an entirely insensible condition, till about 3 o'clock, P. M., when he died. No cause has been assigned for the rash act except the presumption of temporary insanity. It is said that on several occasions, a short time before, he spoke of leaving and doing things for the last time, &c.

The Brotherhood of the Union of Mapleton, of which he was a member, were at the funeral in full regalia and buried him with appropriate ceremonies.
