

WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEB. 19, 1873.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD—ON AND AFTER Sunday, Dec. 22, 1872, Passenger Trains will leave Mifflin Station as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Train Name, Direction, and Time. Includes Philadelphia Express, East Line, Harrisburg Accommodation, etc.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

This has been a profitable winter for coal dealers.

SENATOR CRAWFORD has our thanks for a number of public documents.

An adjourned court will be held here next week, commencing on Monday.

A PROTRACTED meeting is in progress in the Lutheran Church at Perryville.

PEOPLE are wishing the winter to break. They have had nine weeks of sleighing.

TIOGA county, Pa., has voted against license for the next three years. The majority was about 1000.

LENT session begins on the 26th inst. Sell your beef before that date, or wait until it expires, forty days.

The Titens of the Bellefonte Republicans propose introducing female type-setters into their office.

BLOOMFIELD, Perry county, people are eagerly at work to raise funds to build a railroad to the river.

A NUMBER of the young people of Mifflin indulged in a hop, on Thursday evening, at Will's hotel.

LAST Friday Mr. Dehaven, stock dealer from Norristown, shipped a car load of cattle to his place from Perryville.

The North American says the Centennial appropriation has no bearing whatever on the question of the removal of the State House to Philadelphia.

The bonds and papers stolen from the Mechanics' Bank of Lancaster were found in a church in Reading. The President of the bank was decoyed to Illinois in search of the bonds.

OUR thanks are due to Mr Samuel H. Kinzer, of Fayette township, for a lot of choice apples left at this office. May his orchard the coming season yield abundantly.

On last Thursday, Mr. C. Flickinger, of Dunncannon, who had been somewhat indisposed for a week, asked to be assisted to his chair and having been seated he remarked—"I am going home," and almost immediately expired. He was aged about 75 years.

The Lutheran Sunday School of this place has thrown out of its library all such books as are commonly termed "Sunday School novels," and the managers of the school express their determination to buy no more books of that character for their library, believing the reading of such books by the young to be an injury to them rather than a benefit.

LAST Sunday evening Rev. H. C. Pardo, pastor of the M. E. Church of this place, preached a sermon on the subject of Local Option, to a large and attentive audience. His remarks were well received. The prevailing sentiment among the sensible portion of the community is strongly against the license system.

The following named gentlemen were elected by the Mifflintown and Patterson Loan Association, yesterday evening, at the Court House, as its officers for the ensuing year:

President—W. C. Laird. Vice President—Tobias Anker. Secretary—E. W. H. Kreider. Treasurer—T. Van Irwin.

Persons who are smoking their meat should be careful to have the fire in their smoke-houses put out every evening before retiring for the night, for it sometimes happens that during the night a piece of meat drops into the fire, and the result is, the smoke-house and adjoining buildings are soon in flames. Should this occur in a town on a stormy night, an immense destruction of property might be the result, and all for want of a little forethought.

An accident happened to the Pacific Express west, on the P. R. R., early on Monday morning, at "Morgan's Corner," this side of Philadelphia. At first rumor had it that about forty persons were killed and wounded. It appears however, that the number was exaggerated. One man was killed, and one had a leg crushed. The exact character of the accident is not yet definitely known here. Two stories are extant; one that it was caused by a broken rail; another that the coupling broke and left two sleeping cars.

The separation of the main train from the sleepers caused the engine bell to ring. The engineer thought it a signal to stop, and did it in the shortest possible time. There being nothing to break the velocity of the sleepers; they ran into the train from which they had been broken, with the above sad result.

TEMPERANCE MEETING AT ACADEMIA.

Pursuant to public announcement a meeting was held in the Presbyterian Church at Academia, on Monday, 11th inst., to discuss the Local Option Law.

The meeting was organized by calling Robert A. Patterson to the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. Wallen. The following officers were elected: Vice Presidents, Esq. Howell, John Harris, James Patterson and Esq. Reed; Secretaries, John T. Nourse and Chas. B. Brislin; Business Committee, Revs. McGill and Wallen, Dr. J. M. Breece, Jas. J. Patterson, D. D. Stone, Ph. D., Amantus Howell, and Thos. Ramsey.

Rev. L. B. W. Shryock stated the objects of the meeting, making some general remarks on the subject. Addresses were delivered by the following gentlemen: John T. Nourse, Esq., Rev. J. Harvey Beale, of Philadelphia, Revs. Halling and McGill and Esq. Howell. The Business Committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That it is neither right nor proper for the State to afford legal protection and sanction to any traffic or system that tends to increase crime to waste the national resources, to corrupt the social habits, and to destroy the health and lives of the people.

Resolved, That the traffic in intoxicating liquors as common beverages is inimical to the true interests of individuals, and destructive of the order and welfare of society, and ought therefore to be prohibited.

Resolved, That the history and results of all past legislation in regard to the liquor traffic abundantly prove that it is impossible satisfactorily to limit or regulate a system so essentially mischievous in its tendencies.

Resolved, That no considerations of private gain or public revenue can justify the upholding of a system so wrong in principle, so suicidal in policy and disastrous in results, as the traffic in intoxicating liquors.

Resolved, That the Legislative suppression of the liquor traffic would be highly conducive to the development of a progressive civilization.

Resolved, That, rising above class, sectarian or party considerations, all good citizens should now combine for the enforcement of "Local Option," an act prohibiting the sale of intoxicating beverages by a popular vote of the people, as affording the most efficient aid in removing the appalling evil of intemperance.

Resolutions were also adopted to secure an organization in each township with a view of perfecting arrangements to poll, at the election in March, the whole strength of the anti license party throughout the county.

The President, Vice Presidents and Secretaries were instructed to correspond with the responsible and influential men on the east side of the river, to ascertain what they were doing in regard to this subject, and if necessary to stir them up to action.

During the meeting the choir sang "The Temperance Call," "Unfold the Banner," and "What is Rum," for which they received a vote of thanks. It was ordered that these proceedings be sent to the county papers with the request to publish.

Adjoined with benediction by Rev. McGILL. ROBERT A. PATTERSON, President.

JOHN T. NOURSE, C. B. BRISLIN, Secretaries.

News from Neighboring Counties.

MIFFLIN COUNTY.

Lewistown papers say: Rev. H. C. Pardo, of Mifflintown, who has been officiating in the M. E. Church of this place since the death of Mr. Thrall, was last week presented with an elegant suit of clothing. On Sunday last Mrs. David R. Reynolds, of this place, in coming down stairs, when nearly down tripped, (upon her clothes, she supposes,) and fell to the floor, by which her right arm was broken, the shoulder badly bruised, a severe gash cut in her forehead, and several smaller bruises sustained. C. A. Ramsey, a young man formerly of Arnsburg township in this county, is now on a short visit to his parents. Mr. Ramsey left this county for Illinois 8 years ago a poor boy, and now returns a man of wealth and influence. The seddy business men of this place don't advertise. By Rev. Bishop Howe will visit Lewistown on Wednesday, March 26th.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY.

Huntingdon papers say: Huntingdon county marksmen carried off the "blue ribbon," at the shooting match, in Tyrone on Friday last. Some of our young men were on a bust on Saturday night. They will find their way to the lock up some of these times. About one mile and a half from the village of Hope well, in Broad Top township, Bedford county, resides a negro by the name of Samuel Hall, who owns a small farm and keeps several head of horses constantly about him. Hall, like quite a number of colored, and some that are not colored, individuals, has never provided half feed for his equine stock, consequently, they have been very poor—mere masses of skin and bones—and occasionally a horse would lie down and die for him. So frequently did this happen that Samuel came to the conclusion that his horses were bewitched. A week or two ago a poor, old, worn-out, half-starved creature became incapable of locomotion, and its superstitious owner conceived that he saw traces of witchery. He determined that he would forever rid himself and his property of their presence. He, with assistance, succeeded in getting the miserable pile of bones out into a field; he then took and poured coal oil over its legs and body, piled a large pile of brush around it, set it on fire and burned up the living horse! He alleged that this is the course pursued in the South under similar circumstances. Several white men were present and did not interfere. Of course they are on a par with the negro. It is said that the noise made by the poor brute was so horrible that the men fled from the field. The matter was promptly brought to the attention of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, and we passed Saxton on last Saturday, an agent of the Society had the fiend under arrest and was forwarding him to Bedford. John Quairy, of Hill Valley, had his feet badly frozen about four weeks since, while getting out railroad ties. He did not apply for medical treatment until last week; and then gangrene had set in, and it was necessary to amputate a portion of the left foot to save it. This was done on Thursday last. Mr. Miles Lewis and Mr. Jrs. Saxton, two respectable and well known citizens of this borough, took sick with pneumonia about the same time, and after lingering for a week or more, both died on Friday night last. Mr. Saxton died at eight o'clock and Mr. Lewis at twelve. Both were interred on Monday. A Phoenixville editor remembers escorting a young lady around a six mile road, in just four hours and forty-five minutes. This was before he was married, and the night was a beautiful moonlight one. Since getting joined in the bands of wed lock, he can travel over that road with his wife in less than one hour and thirty minutes.—The Commissioners of Huntingdon county, having reason to believe that frauds have been committed during the past year in the issuing of scalp orders consider it their duty as the guardian of the county funds, to urge, and insist, that no Justice of the Peace shall issue an order on the County Treasurer without the delivery of the head of the animal, or the entire skin from the top of the head with both ears attached. On Saturday morning last a week, the store of Gen. B. F. Bell's Mills, was entered by burglars and the safe broken open and $700 stolen. The money belonged to a lady school teacher who had deposited it money there for safe keeping. The law of Pennsylvania requires in the case of "every poor person not able to work," and who has children or grandchildren, parents or grandparents, of "sufficient ability," that such parents or grandparents, children, or grandchildren shall relieve and maintain such poor persons," at such rate as the Court of Quarter Sessions shall order.

On Thursday of last week, as Mr. George W. Smiley and wife were about starting for Concord, Franklin county, in a sleigh, the horse frightened at the car whistle, and ran off, throwing the occupants out of the sleigh. Mr. Smiley was cut about the head and face, and Mrs. Smiley had her left shoulder dislocated.

Mr. Atticks, of East Pennsboro', killed a hog on Monday, and on removing the intestines he discovered something hard, which, on examination, proved to be a watch, which was covered with a membrane in the lining of the stomach. Mr. A. lost the watch while feeding the hogs last fall. The timid piece was stopped, but after being worn common going as well as ever.—Caroline Herald.

Beef Cattle were in fair demand this week and prices were well maintained. About 2000 head arrived at the Avenue Drive-yard, including choice at $18.50; extra at $16.50; fair to good at $14.75; and common at $10.00 per pound.

Cows and calves are dull and nominal at $30x45. Receipts 250 head. Sheep were dull. Sales of choice at $14.50, and fair to good at $14.75. Receipts $3000.

Hogs were higher, and sold at $7.75 per 100 for the corned. Receipts 5000 head.

A Perry county paper says, on the 23d ult., Mr. Samuel Rice, of Saville township, was found dead in his bed in the morning. He had retired in his usual health and had been out shoveling snow the day before. He was aged 79 years, 7 months and 7 days. On last Wednesday morning, Mr. Jacob Gouger, an old citizen of Liverpool borough, died very suddenly. He had got up in the morning and made the fire and then went back to bed. Shortly after he was found dead. He was about 74 years of age.

The TELEGRAPH FODDER CUTTERS, the best in the market, are selling rapidly at PAISTE'S HARDWARE STORE. Every farmer should have one. The money paid for them is well invested. Buy one and be convinced.
