JAMES NORTH, Agt.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

ALTOONA has a big scandal?

HOUSES are scarce and rents are high.

NORTHUMBRIA has had a masquerade ball.

At a heavy discount in Millintown—The Credit Mobilier transaction.

THERE is a considerable quantity of corn unhusked in the fields in this county.

THE Wilsons, Bergs and Thompsons are dealing quite extensively in horses this spring.

THE new railroad platform at Patterson is quite a big structure. To realize it walk around and over it.

SQUIRE HUIZZARD is preparing to build a house at the corner of North street and Patterson Avenue.

THE P. C. R. R. Co. expect to work quite extensively during the coming summer at the laying of their third track.

THE public sale of Messrs. Clerk and Beider, at Van Wert will be on the 10th inst. instead of the 8th, as stated last week.

A PROMINENT citizen of Tuscarora township informs us that the people of that township will vote ten to one against license.

THE Lutheran congregation of this place are about adopting the envelope system and abandoning the system of renting the pews.

The first day of March was a bright cold winter day. There was nothing about it to indicate it as the first day of spring, excepting the sunshine.

CONGRESS was in session all last Sunday transacting business. Corrupt intelligence is more dangerous to the welfare of the nation than honest ignorance.

So many marriageable people in Millintown have been married during the past winter, that the few remaining single ones, when they waken in the morning ask themselves, is it possible that I have escaped the epidemic?

NOTICE—All persons indebted to the undersigned for professional services are requested to make immediate payment. Unsettled accounts will, in a very short time, be placed in the hands of a legal officer for collection.

J. L. McKEHAN, M. D.

JUNIATA COUNTY has never been thoroughly examined by a Geologist. Practical miners declare it, in iron ore, to be one of the richest counties in the State, and if their developments continue, it will not require many years to demonstrate the truth of their declaration.

THE railroad business is driven extensively in Juniata and adjoining counties touching the railroad. Ten years at this business at its present magnitude, will cut out all the timber of a suitable size for ties. What then? What shall become the substitute?

It seems almost unaccountable what becomes of all the balances and scales annually made. The Fairbanks Scale Company last year used up 13,000 tons of raw material in the manufacture of the famous weighing machines. This house, however, literally has the world for a market.

THERE will be a Temperance Meeting in the Court House on Friday evening next. Rev. O. O. McLean, of Lewis town, General Geo. F. McFarland, of Harrisburg, Rev. D. M. Blackwelder and Rev. T. J. Sheppard, of this place, are expected to be present to address the meeting.

An exchange says: The man lives in Columbia Co. who has discovered that, to make a balky horse travel tie a string tightly around his ear, near the end, let him stand until he begins to shake his head when he will forget about balking and go without further trouble. It never fails. The "animal" walks right off on his ear.

ALMOST A FIRE.—Mr. James North, of Patterson, on Monday last placed a stove in one of the back rooms of his new house in Patterson for the purpose of hastening the drying of that part of the house. A fire was kindled in the stove. Between 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening one of the carpenters engaged at the house concluded to go to the building to see if the stove was in a proper condition to be left for the night. On reaching the stove room, he found the floor about the stove on fire. He seized the coal bucket, ran for water and gave the alarm. His bucket of water extinguished the fire, and thus the presence of mind of one man saved a handsome dwelling house, an ornament to the town and a credit to the enterprise of its owner.

Chapter of Accidents.

On Friday, February 21st, at about 5 a. m., after having lit a lamp, Mrs. Gideon D. Calderwood was seized with a fainting fit to which she is subjected, and falling upon the lamp displaced the top of the same, whereupon the fluid exploded, the flames communicated with Mrs. C.'s clothing just below the hips, and extended to her feet. Mr. C., then in bed, hearing her screams rushed forth, and with blankets subdued the flames, but not until the unfortunate woman had been very severely burned.

On Monday morning, Mr. Timothy Barnack, conductor of third Tyrone Coal train, was seriously injured on the South siding at Tyrone depot while making up his train. He was caught between the dead block of first car and draft iron of tank, crushing his hip bone considerably, and otherwise injuring him.

George Parks, brakeman on freight train, had his left hand caught between dead block of first car and draft iron of tank, crushing it severely, but he will likely recover without any serious results to the injured member. This also happened on Monday morning, at the Warehouse siding, this place.

On Tuesday morning of this week while going up the mountain in the neighborhood of Mount Pleasant, Mr. J. Weaver, fireman on coal train No. 2—1 Bell, conductor, Levi Kellets, engineer—was severely injured. Three engines were attached to the train, two in front and one in the rear. Mr. W. was standing on the apron of the tank attached to the second engine, when the draft iron broke, disconnecting the engines from the train. Weaver losing his balance fell, at the same time, grasping the chain that holds the fire door open, which broke. It is supposed he did not get hold of anything else, but dropped down on the snow upon which he was pushed by the cross bar of the tank for about one hundred and seventy five yards, breaking his ankle severing two fingers from his right hand and otherwise severely injuring him.

A young man named Bowen, brakeman on freight train, had his thumb cut off while in the act of coupling cars at Phillipsburg, on Tuesday.—Tyrone Herald.

SAD ACCIDENT—Boy Drowned.

On Tuesday last week Mr. Christian Grammer, started to go to Mann's Choice in a sled, taking his little son John, aged 5½ years, with him. Whilst crossing the Juniata at Multin's fording the sled ran upon a large rock and tilted over throwing them both out into the water and into the current of the stream. Mr. C. at once tried to rescue his child, wading after it, but could not keep up with the floating body. When it reached the deep water, what is known as "horse hole," he not being able to swim, gave up the chase, and struck for the shore, ran down along the stream for a distance of nearly a quarter of a mile to another fording, when he again went into the stream and rescued the now lifeless corpse of his boy as it floated to him. Several persons arrested by the father's cries came to his assistance but too late to save the life that had fled. This is a very sad affliction for the deeply afflicted father, and it is the second time he has been obliged to mourn the death of a child by drowning.—Berford Gazette.

THE Lewistown papers say Joseph Brannon, formerly watchman at Bixler's Gap, and lately employed on the road as a gang hand, fell down dead on Monday evening while carrying a bucket of slop down his garden. It is supposed he ruptured a blood vessel. Mr. B. was about 50 years of age, and had not been in good health for some years.

W. I. Shaw's meat shop, under Col. John Hamilton & Son's insurance office, has been two or three times burglariously entered at night during the present winter, and robbed. As we remarked once before, somebody in town is itching for a room in the penitentiary, and he or they will doubtless before long be accommodated.

The first reports of an accident on the Allegheny Valley railroad, had it that a boy named Scott was among the killed, but it turns out to have been James Cordell, son of the late Isaac T. Cordell, of this place. He was about 16 years of age.
