

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 16, 1873.

Table with train schedules for Pennsylvania Railroad, including destinations like Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Cincinnati.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

HUNTINGDON county has a medical society.

WHEAT and grass are taking on a promising appearance.

MR. WM HAWK is having his house on Cherry street repainted.

SHERIFF LONDON has put up a new fence around his lots on Washington Street.

PAINT, in considerable quantities, is being dug on the Ober property, near McAlisterville.

MAJOR JOHN CUMMING, of Selma-grove, died on the afternoon of the 7th inst., aged 72 years.

JOSEPH MARTIN is preparing to build a dwelling house on a lot fronting on Washington street.

NEITHER the National or State taxes are burdensome. The local taxes are the ones that press hardest.

FISH taken from waters west of the mountains were offered, in the Millin market on last Friday, at 13 cents per pound.

ON Thursday Wm. R. Lewis of Horn-fington, while lying on the ground had occasion to turn over, and in the act dislocated his leg at the knee. Medical aid was called and the dislocation reduced.

ON Friday last Mr. William Banks, of Fernanagh township, shipped a car load of fat cattle to the eastern market, the average weight being 1215 lbs., which goes to show that Juniata county has some good stock raisers.

ON Friday evening a spark from a locomotive set fire to a row of brush that had been thrown along the river bank below Patterson. While burning it was the object of considerable attention. Fire out of place always is.

SPRING has opened in earnest, but not with more variety and beauty to the eye than the opening of the large and complete assortment of Goods at Tilton & Epeneschade's Store. These Goods are fresh and new from the East.

ON last Saturday the Council of the Millintown Lutheran Church declared the pews in the church free. The fund necessary to pay the minister's salary, &c., will be raised by the Envelope System, which has been adopted. Payments will be made monthly.

THE railroad engineers have again taken up their line of march this way, and may be expected here about the close of this week. The President of the road, in company with Directors Wilson and Long, were in town yesterday, looking up the interest of the company.

TO prevent our ex-royal journalistic brother, Allison, from blackguarding other people, we are occasionally compelled to announce in the columns of the SENTINEL, the editor of this paper is the author of the articles that Mr. Allison blackguards others for writing.

THE County Commissioners should receive proposals once every year from publishers to do the public printing, and award it to the lowest bidder. The public would heartily endorse such an equitable manner of having the public printing done. The Sheriff's proclamation also should be let in the same manner.

THE business of the enterprising firm of Showers & Scholl, carriage makers, has so increased that in order to have the proper amount of room, they are about to build a large three-story building on Washington street. The number of hands that they now employ will be considerably increased on the completion of their new buildings.

AN old gent felt highly elated because his wife came near calling him Honey; she called him Old Beeswax. At the Chair Works of Wm. F. Snyder, Millintown, Pa., you can just get the nicest Chairs ever offered in this county. Go there if you need Chairs of any kind. He has just what you want, neat, durable, and cheap for cash.

RUNAWAY—On last Monday while David Sulouv Jr. and Jacob Will, Jr. were out driving, their horse broke into a run and soon became unmanageable and upset the buggy. Throwing both Sulouv and Will out. Mr. Sulouv had an ankle dislocated by the fall, and Mr. Will had a wrist sprained. The horse after running some distance was caught and brought back to town.

LAST Friday 2734 freight cars passed Millin Station. During the month of March 62,820 freight cars passed the same station. The number of freight cars that passed this point during the month of March in the year 1867 was 22,096; this gives an increase of 40,724 in favor of the month of March, 1873. It is no wonder, then, with all that vast and increasing business that the P. C. R. Co. is about to lay another track—Local freight trains average one every three hours.

THE "No. 1 Railroad Track Scale," manufactured by the Fairbank's Company, has a platform nine rods long and a capacity to weigh 150 tons! Last year the company turned out 218 of this variety of weighing machines.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday last while James Sprout was cutting and removing some ice that had accumulated in Frank Maxwell's back yard, he received an ugly cut on the top of his head by the axe catching on a clothes line and throwing the stroke back.

BRICK POMEROY has no patience with "patent outside" newspapers. He says: "We have got so now that when we come to a paper with a patent outside we just get up, put on our hat and overcoat and go home. Before we get back the boy has used that patent outside to make the fire.—Pomero's Democrat."

NEW GOODS.—All the late styles of Men's Boots, Ladies', Miss and Children's Gaiters and Slippers now in stock at Bartley's Store. He respectfully asks the public to call and examine his goods, feeling assured that he has made selections that will please his customers both in quality and price.

ALTOONA DAILY TRIBUNE.—McCrum & Dem, proprietors of the Altoona Tribune, have issued a daily. The first number made its appearance on Monday morning. In size, typographical appearance and contents it would do credit to a much larger city than Altoona. We expect it to become one of the permanent things of the "Mountain City."

KUNKEL'S BITTER WINE OF IRON has reached an enviable position among medicines as a cure for Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and all diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach. It costs but little, purifies the blood and gives tone to the stomach, renovates the system and prolongs life. Try this valuable Tonic. For sale at Banks & Hamlin's Drug Store, Millintown, Pa.

Haidley, George Harner, Calvin Smith, John Hart, J. K. Oliver, W. T. Oliver, J. H. Oliver, Ida C. Shelby, Emma J. Shelby, Juniata J. Leach, Sarah B. Peiffer, Ella J. Gayer.

BRIDGE LETTING.—Sealed proposals will be received by the Commissioners of Juniata county, at their office in Millintown, on Thursday, May 1st, 1873, between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock p. m. for furnishing material and erecting a bridge over Lost Creek, where the turnpike crosses the creek. Also, the stone work of the Thompsonstown bridge. Plans and specifications of bridges can be seen at the Commissioner's office. By order of the Commissioners.

ON Friday afternoon Mr. George Parfet, at the foot of the Narrows, bought a piece of cheese. His wife and two children, a Miss Fox and Edmund Strayer's child ate pretty freely of it, and in about three hours after they were all, as well as Mrs. P.'s suckling child, which had eaten none of the cheese, taken sick—Free vomiting took place before much of the cheese had been digested, and they were thus relieved. The cheese was bought at the company store at Lewis-town.

ON Monday night the family of Jas. Parfet, at the foot of the Narrows, retired to bed, and the wife not being very well, did not rest well. Some time in the night she heard her husband moaning in his sleep, and awoke him. He got up, staggered across the floor and fell. His wife being alarmed, called her hired girl, Miss Fox, who with difficulty got up and ran to a neighbor's house for help. Mrs. P. in the meantime threw open a window, and in a short time Mr. P. revived. A headache and weakness for twenty-four hours and the difficulty was over. Coal-gas was the cause, one of the back griddles having been left off the cook-stove in the evening.

LOUIS E. MATHERS, Cashier of the Citizens' Bank of Sidney, Ohio, died of cerebro spinal meningitis yesterday afternoon, April 10th. He was first taken sick on Thursday of last week. Nothing serious was apprehended until Monday, when he began growing worse rapidly. His relatives and friends in Pennsylvania were notified of his dangerous illness. His mother arrived on Tuesday, and his brother, sister, affianced, and her brother, on Wednesday. Drs. Reeves and Conklin, of Dayton, were called, but all efforts to stay the terrible disease were unavailing.

Mr. Mathers was born at Millin, Juniata county, Pennsylvania, on the 17th day of February, 1842. He graduated at Princeton, New Jersey, in the class of 1864. In 1866 he came to Sidney, and commenced the study of law with his brother, John H. Mathers. His eyesight partially failing, he abandoned the study of law. He continued his residence in Sidney, and in 1865 was appointed Teller of the First National Bank of Sidney. In July, 1870, the Citizens' Bank was organized, and he was elected Cashier, in which capacity he has since acted.

The deceased was of a reserved and reticent disposition, but those who were most intimately acquainted with him found him possessed of a kind heart and a genial nature. He was a young man of exemplary conduct in his every day life, and was the very soul of truth, honor, and integrity. He was a very popular officer of the Bank, and much of its prosperity was due to his courteous and gentlemanly deportment and accommodating disposition. His death caused universal regret, and the loss is felt to be one the community can little afford to sustain. He was to have been married to a most estimable young lady of his native State next month, and had been making all the preparations necessary for the event. The body will be taken to Pennsylvania to-day for interment.—Sidney (O.) Journal, April 11th.

The mortal remains of Mr. Mathers arrived at Millin Station on Saturday at 10 o'clock A. M. and they were thence conveyed by a concourse of friends and relatives to the Presbyterian graveyard, where they were interred.

This is the season of the year for all kinds of Aches and Pains. There is nothing better known to remove such afflictions than KUNKEL'S PAIN SLAYER. For sale by Banks & Hamlin, Druggist, Millintown.

"MATRIMONIAL CLUB" is the title of the latest beneficial organization in Tyrone. Being a secret society and of very recent birth, we are unable to give its object in detail, but we are credibly informed that the by-laws require each member to pass the ordeal of single blessedness into life matrimonial within the space of one year after his initiation into the club. The new order starts out under very flattering prospects, having a "brother chip" for its President, and two prominent young merchants for its Secretary and Treasurer. Among the rank and file are lawyers, professors, mechanics, etc. It is a good move, gentlemen, especially to those of you who lack the courage to voluntarily divulge the intentions of the inner man to the "Sweetest of all the sweets on earth," you know. When you pass in the notices, cake, etc. gentlemen, please add "M. M. C."—Tyrone Herald.

An Iowa paper of March 29th ult. published the following, which it claims to have got from an exchange:

In Juniata county, Pa. between the borough of Thompsonstown, and Millintown, an agent of the Travelers' Insurance Company, of Hartford, entered the car, and having issued tickets to several of the passengers, approached an elderly lady who it afterward appeared was deaf. "Madam, would you like to insure against accident?" inquired the agent. "I'm going to Millintown to visit my darter, who is married up there and has got a baby."

News from Neighboring Counties.

PERRY COUNTY. Perry county papers say: On Wednesday last, Mrs. Paul Riler, of New port, accidentally fell and broke her right arm. The game of croquet has again made its appearance; but this is rather taking time by the forelock, and a general stampede some of these days for somebody's rheumatic syrup will not be surprising in the least. The measles are prevailing in Carroll township to an alarming extent, and many cases proving fatal. Rumor has it that efforts have been made to effect the passage of a law to force the County Commissioners to buy both the Newport and Millertown bridges across the Juniata river, and to make them free. We have not learned what success has been had in that direction at Harrisburg. Before measures of that kind be taken, the voice of the people should be consulted. Anything like a snap should be carefully avoided. A History of Perry county has been written by Prof. Wright. Fisherman of Dauphin county when they catch bass, return them to the stream.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY.

Huntingdon papers published the following: Is Huntingdon going to celebrate the Fourth of July or not? It is high time something was being done if she is. The New Presbyterian church is being frescoed. The Bedford prisoners all broke jail a few nights ago. The Bedford Inquirer says a gentleman in Saxton offers a reward of $25 to any one who will get him a wife that will "stick to him through thick and thin." The other day a farmer near Saxton sent his son to a store with twenty six dozen eggs, telling him to "sit on them" going down hill, so that the wagon would not jolt them out. The boy did as he was instructed, and when the boy arrived with his eggs at the store the clerk counted out four dozen broken ones. Mr. Caleb Wakefield, of Brady township, last week, while boring posts with a machine, run by horse power, reached over the augurs to regulate some part of the machinery, and in doing so was caught by the augurs, tearing all the flesh and sinews from his arm between the elbow and wrist, and scraping the bone. In his efforts to release himself he broke off both augurs. As the "Mixed" train was pulling out from M'Veytown Saturday night last a cry for help attracted the attention of the train men, who, on examination, discovered the prostrate body of one of their breakmen, named Wilson Dunsmeir. One of the unfortunate's feet was badly smashed and his head cut in several places. It is supposed he attempted to go forward over the tops of the cars, fell off and was run over by a portion of the train. We could not learn the extent of the injuries. Thursday evening last Chicago Express steamed into the depot with the average train, including a refrigerator car a hot box on the rear truck of which was tackled by the inspectors and after extinguishing the burning oil, it was discovered that the journal was broke off close to the wheel. The fire from the said hot box blazed up against the bottom of the car, and, when the train stopped was emerging from the roof. The car was detached from the train, was repaired and sent to its destination the same night. What the consequence of this broken axle might have been are too horrible to think about—a crash and many souls would have been ushered into eternity.

MIFFLIN COUNTY.

Millin county papers write: George White, one of the passengers in the ill-fated steamer Atlantic, who was reported among the lost, arrived here yesterday, and took up his quarters with his brother at Logan, where he will take a situation on the steelworks. During the storm on Saturday evening the lightning struck the stable of John Barr, at Lilleyville, killing a cow and calf. Some other cattle in the stable were uninjured. Beatty Henry, while returning from a sale and riding a colt over the creek bridge at Millroy, the animal slipped, falling on Mr. H. and breaking his thigh—Mrs. Harshbarger and Mitchell attended to his injuries. The tavern licenses expired yesterday, and we now go back to first principles, water. On last Saturday night a week, the stable of Joseph Parsons, in Black Log Valley was blown down. The horses and cattle were all in the stable at the time, and strange to say, nothing was injured but a calf, which was slightly injured. The wind got under the building and lifted it from its foundation. In the morning the horses and cattle were running around in the barn yard. The grain in the granaries was scattered over the yard. Loss about $1,000.
