

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD—ON AND AFTER SUNDAY, DEC. 22, 1872, Passenger Trains will leave Mifflin Station as follows:

Table with columns for destination (Philadelphia, Harrisburg, etc.) and time.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Frost and ice on Monday morning. HAVE the alleys and streets been cleaned as per order of Council.

THERE has been any amount of land spoiled this spring by wet plowing.

CALL at John Eika's before buying elsewhere. See his stock.

SHOWERS & SCHOLL are excavating for their new building. Ditto, Henry Goshen.

SAMUEL BERG shipped a number of cows last Thursday to the eastern part of the State.

CONSTABLE WILSON is determined to enforce the orders of Council and maintain the dignity of that body.

THE newest, freshest and best of maple sugar for sale at John Eika's.

In connection with his Confectioneries and a general variety of articles and edibles used every day in the family, John Eika constantly keeps on hand a fresh lot of feed for horses, cows, hogs, and all other domestic animals. Give him a call.

TEMPERANCE MEN should organize and see to it that the local option law does not become a dead letter. Enforce the law, and in less than three years all will say it is "right." Even the liquor drinkers will be thankful. They will be the greatest gainers by the enforcement of CONFECTIONERIES of every description, at John Eika's.

A NUMBER of Mifflin people are about to stock the Juniata river at this place with black bass from the Potomac. A fund is being raised for that purpose.

THERE is yet a great deal of oats to be sown in this county. The oldest inhabitant scarcely remembers more than one season as late as this one.

CHIEFS of a superior quality at John Eika's.

A MINER of experience expresses the belief that he has discovered gold and silver bearing quartz in the ridge north of town. As a matter of course every body hereabouts heartily wishes that the miner's belief may become a reality, a truth, as correct as Holy Writ.

A NEW board walk connects the river and canal bridges. In raising the old walk, Samuel Wilson discovered a handful of pennies at the door of the toll house. Doubtless they had slipped from the fingers of those who paid toll, and passed through the cracks in the walk.

THERE are no better Oranges and all kinds of Fruit in the market, than what John Eika has to sell.

NEW GOODS—Just received at J. W. Kirk's Store, Main street, Mifflintown, Pa., a full line of Goods, consisting of Dry Goods, Groceries, Notions, Boots, Shoes, Fish, Salt, Meat, Confectioneries, Fruit, Nuts, Tobacco, Segars, &c., which will be sold cheap for Cash or Country Produce. Give me a call, examine goods, and hear prices. April 30 '73.

DR. J. J. APPLEBAUGH and Dr. McKeenan, both formerly of this county, have moved to Harrisburg, where they are engaged in the work of their profession. They have also opened a Drug Store at No. 119 South Second street. These gentlemen are experienced physicians, and doubtless soon will occupy a prominent place in the practice of their city home.

THE attendance at court this week is remarkably small. A prominent citizen of Tuscarora Valley said that he never knew so few people to attend court at a regular term. The town seemed so quiet that he felt like going to church. The criticism on the quietness of the town was honest, good and keen, but the feeling to attend church was better. A man can't feel too much that way.

SOME time ago James Leach, of Beale township, aged about 77 years, was engaged in hauling, with a horse wagon, the chip dirt that had accumulated about his woodpile onto his lot as fertilizer. He had no regular bed on his wagon, but, as is frequently the case, he had for a bed several loose unpaired boards. In making a short turn a front wheel struck the bed so hard as to pitch a board forward against the mare in the wagon. She frightened and ran. Mr. Leach held to the beast until he was run against an apple tree, where his left leg was broken just below the knee joint, and left collar bone broken, or rather re-broken, for it had been broken some years ago. He is getting along almost better than could be expected, considering his age and the extent of his injuries.

QUITE a number of Democratic politicians have been in town this week. They are as active and persevering as the bees, with this difference that the bees rest in winter. The Democrats work all the time.

THE Allentown Vocal Class will hold a Concert on the 9th of May, at the St. Paul's Church, for the benefit of the Sabbath School, to begin at 7 1/2 P. M. To be conducted by Harris J. Shellenberger, teacher. Admission 15 cents. All are invited.

ATTENTION, GUARDS!—SPECIAL MEETING—The members of the Fayette Union Guards are requested to meet at their armory in McAlisterville, on Saturday, May 17th, at one o'clock P. M. Business of vital interest to the Company is to be transacted, and the presence of every member on the roll is desired. By order of the Captain, WM. SHIRK, O. S.

THE next Anniversary Meeting of the Pennsylvania Reserve Association will be held at Gettysburg, on Tuesday, May 13, 1873, on which occasion all those formerly connected with the old Division are cordially invited to participate. It is expected that this will be one of the most interesting re-unions of the Association, on account of the glorious historical recollections connected with the place of meeting. Chaplain Beale, of the First Cavalry Regiment, will be the orator of the day. All who contemplate attending, will please notify the undersigned at an early day. JOHN H. TAGGART, Cor. Sec. Pa. Res. Association, "Sunday Times" Office, Phila., Pa.

"SINGER." EXTRAORDINARY SALE! The Singer Sewing Machine Company in 1872 sold 219,758 Machines—45,670 more than any other company, and over one quarter of all Machines sold during that year. Nine out of ten of said Singer Machines were for family use—proving the great popularity of the Singer in the household. Machines sold on easy monthly payments, and delivered to any part of Juniata county. Singer Machines cleaned gratuitously. Oil, Cotton and Linen Thread, Silk Twist, &c., always on hand, and to suit any machine. B. F. WALTERS, Agent for Juniata County, Mifflintown, Pa.

Postponement of the Public Library Gift Concert.

It will be seen by the announcement in our advertising columns that the third gift concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, which was to have taken place to day has been postponed until July 8. This postponement has not been occasioned, as we are advised by Gov. Bramlette, by the small sales of tickets; on the contrary, the sales have been unusually large—much larger than at either of the preceding concerts—so large, indeed, that the time given by this ninety day postponement will enable Gov. Bramlette to dispose of every ticket and insure a full drawing without any reduction or scaling of the gifts, as has heretofore been the case. Gov B sees his way so clearly that he announces in the most positive and unequivocal language that the drawing will take place July 8, and that it will be a full one. The owner of the ticket drawing the capital gift will get $100,000 in greenbacks without any discount and so of all the other gifts. The money sufficient to pay all the gifts—$509,000 in greenbacks—is already on deposit in the Farmers' and Drivers' Bank, set apart for the payment of the gifts and can be used for no other purpose, as will be seen by the cashier's certificate. With a knowledge of these facts—and we do not hesitate to guarantee their scrupulous fulfillment—there will be such a demand for the tickets now on hand that in all probability not a single one will be left for sale weeks before the time of drawing. There never was a fairer or more honorably-conducted enterprise before the public, and it has, as it deserves, the entire confidence of our people. It is one of those schemes in which the purchasers of tickets feel the most positive assurance that the drawing will be fair, for it will be controlled by the most prominent and distinguished citizens of the city and State, and those who draw gifts will be certain to get the money the moment their tickets are presented.

JUDGE DEAN'S CHARGE TO THE CONSTATABLES OF BLAIR COUNTY ON THEIR DUTY AS TO THE LOCAL OPTION LAW.—This is court week in Blair County. Last Monday the constables elected at the spring election presented their election returns to the Court sitting in Hollidaysburg, and were sworn in Judge Dean addressed the "new" constables. The marked feature of the address is the instruction it contained to the constables as to their duty in the enforcement of the local option law. The portion of the address relative to this point was published in the Altoona daily Tribune of the 29th inst., from which we here re-publish it: Any one, any private person can prosecute offenders, but the act of the 28th of March, 1872, imposes as a legal duty upon constables that which is only a moral duty on the part of a private citizen. This legal duty is one, which, under your oaths to perform the duties of your office with fidelity, you cannot without perjury avoid. How ought this duty to be performed? Many constables have supposed that they must with their own eyes actually see the liquor sold before they can return the parties. This is by no means the case. While unfoisted prosecutions should be avoided, yet wherever you have such knowledge as induces you to believe that a party has violated or is violating the law, then you have such knowledge as justifies you in the prosecution or returning of the party. A man going into a place sober and coming out drunk, doing this not once but frequently, warrants the inference that liquor is there sold, and so in many other ways the knowledge comes to you, which induces you as reasonable men to believe that the law has been violated. This is knowledge, even though you may not have seen the liquor sold, and it would justify you in proceeding against the party. Then there is a method pointed out by the act of Assembly, which provides "that the constables shall make return of warrants of liquor as now provided by law, and in addition thereto it shall be the duty of every such constable at each term of the Court or Quarter Sessions of the respective counties to make return on oath or affirmation whether within his knowledge there is any place within his bailiwick kept and maintained in violation of this act; and it shall be the special duty of the Judges of all such Courts to see that this return is faithfully made, and if any person shall make known in writing, with his or her name subscribed thereto, to such constable, the name or names of any one who shall have violated this act, with the names of witnesses who can prove the fact, it shall be his duty to make return thereof on oath or affirmation to the Court; and upon his willful failure to do so he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment and conviction shall pay a fine of $50, and be subject to imprisonment at the discretion of the Court of not less than ten days nor more than thirty days." This is the method pointed out by the act of Assembly, it is only one method, however, of prosecuting violation of the law. It is made your duty to make the return, and it is made our duty as Judges of the Court to see that these returns are in all cases faithfully made. We shall endeavor, so far as within us lies, to see that the law is enforced, and at the same time, we shall, so far as it is in our power, encourage and protect you in the honest discharge of our duty. We shall take care that even if the prosecution fails when it has been instituted with honest motives, you shall not have the cost imposed upon you. Then in the faithful and fearless discharge of your duties, you have to prompt and encourage you the decided and unmistakable sentiment of the people of the county, and, above all, you will have the approval of your consciences and the knowledge that you have honestly performed your sworn duty; while on the other hand, if through fear, or timidity, which shrinks from the performance of an unpleasant duty, or favor of which results from either collusion with or friendliness for the law-breaker, you neglect to carry out the law, you will commit perjury, bring upon your lives the condemnation of all law-abiding citizens, and render yourselves liable to the penalty of fine or imprisonment for the violation of official duty.

THE SACRAMENT of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the Presbyterian Church in this place, on next Sabbath Services on Friday evening and Saturday evening previous. Rev. Zanier, of Huntingdon, will assist the pastor.
