

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 14, 1873.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—ON AND AFTER SUNDAY, DEC. 22, 1872, Passenger Trains will leave Millin Station as follows:

Table with columns for destination (EASTWARD, WESTWARD) and train names (Philadelphia Express, Fast Line, etc.) with corresponding times.

NOTICE.

The following scale of prices for announcements of candidates, in the SENATE, for office at the approaching election—to be published weekly until the Primary Election—will be rigidly adhered to: Senate, $15; Legislature, $10; Sheriff, Register and Recorder, Commissioner and Treasurer, $5 each. Communications recommending candidates for office, 25 cents per line.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

The maples about the square are displaying their shade.

OATS sowing has not yet been entirely completed in this country.

MR. DAVID BESHOAR, of Fernagh township, has read the Bible through thirty times.

The hardest thing to live up to, and the only thing worth coveting in this life is faithfulness.

ALCOHOLIC liquors should be sold as drugs, with restrictions such as hedge the sale of poisons.

MR. DAVID RENO is building a barn on the farm north of the mansion farm, in Fernagh township.

CHERRY street will be shorn of its chief feature this summer—the cherries. The blossoms on the trees are few.

WHAT has become of the new railroad? is a common question. Patience, patience, with the strength that Job had, it is all that is wanting.

THE frame-work of Squire Huzzard's new house was put up on Saturday, and blown down by the heavy storm of wind yesterday afternoon. Quite a loss.

THE P. R. R. Co. issue tickets in parcels of fifty, to business men and families, at greatly reduced rates, at the station. For particulars inquire of Mr. North.

THE Wandering Jew is said to have made his appearance in Connecticut. He has never been to Millin, to the knowledge of the oldest inhabitant. Many would like to see the antiquated gentleman.

A PRETTY chestnut colored eunil of lady's hair lay on the crossing at the intersection of West Washington and Third streets, on Sunday morning. Many were the compliments that were passed on it, by those who passed by who noticed it.

OF the 45,781 weighing machines turned out by the Fairbanks Scale Company in 1872, 5,248 were of foreign standards, and a large proportion of these were of the prime sizes, railroad track, miners', transportation, and other large patterns.

DAVID FINK and others, on Saturday, were on a hand car, on their way to work. A short distance below Black Log Station, a small stone on a rail so disturbed the balance of the car that Mr. Fink fell off and broke an arm.

ATTENTION, JUNIATA SCOUTS.—You are hereby ordered to parade in Johnstown, on Saturday, May 31, 1873. Sabre exercise at 10 o'clock prompt. By order of J. K. ROBINSON, Capt. Commanding. MATHEW ROGERS, O. S.

ATTENTION is called to the advertisement of C. G. Winey, Administrator of Reuben Landis, dec'd., offering at public sale, on Saturday, June 21st, a tract of 18 acres of land in Delaware township, with good house, bank barn, shoemaker shop, and other outbuildings thereon erected.

THE murderer of Lizzie Cline at Saltzburgh—an account of which we published last week—are yet at large. Two men, against whom the suspicion was so strong at first that there was danger of the enforcement of lynch law, after a most searching examination, were, satisfactorily, to the people, released. It is hoped the guilty parties may yet be found.

NOTICE TO DELEGATES TO S. S. CONVENTION.—The Committee of Arrangements of the Juniata Sunday School Association will provide entertainment for all delegates who send their names to the chairman on or before the 24th inst., but will not agree to entertain any others. Therefore, as soon as they are appointed, they will at once notify him of their intention to be present. When the delegates arrive in town they will please report themselves, without delay, to the Committee at the Presbyterian church. All ministers and Sunday School superintendents in the county are members, ex officio. Each school is requested to send four delegates. By order of the Committee LUCIEN W. DOTY, Chairman Com. Arrangements, J. S. S. A. Millintown, Pa.

THE various committees that on Sunday usually visit the pig-styes in hog-fattening time, do this spring, between showers, visit the different new-houses in the course of construction.

THE United States postal cards are being issued by the Post Master General. They are between five and six inches long, and three inches wide. There are ruled lines on the stamped side for the address. The word "To" is on the back of the cards. The communication is intended to follow that word. They will be sold for one cent. The object is cheap letter or postal communication.

PUBLIC SALE.—David Beno will offer at public sale, at his residence in Fernagh township, on Monday, June 2, 1873, Two mares, (one being with foal), 1 good driving mare, 1 yearling colt, 2 milch cows, 5 head young cattle, three four horse wagons, 1 Kirby reaper and mower combined, horse rake, threshing machine, fodder cutter, apple grinder, corn planter, hay pitcher, cook stove, table, chairs, &c. Sale at 10 o'clock.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Johnson Williams, a young man from near Carlisle, Cumberland county, who had recently got a situation as brakeman on a freight train, was caught between two cars while in the act of coupling a train at the upper crossing at Patterson, on Saturday, about half past ten o'clock A. M., and so seriously injured that he died about fifteen minutes past ten o'clock A. M. on Sunday. His remains were taken home for burial.

A GREAT EXCITEMENT ON THE P. R. R. AT PATTERSON.—While the cars are passing daily since April 25, 1873, the passengers and conductors are greatly annoyed by the rush on Bridge street, they having been fooled down the street several times to hunt up the trouble, and every time found the people rushing into Straver's Clothing Bazaar and coming out in a New Suit, shouting as though they had been to the Happy Land. Gents, youths and boys, call around and be made happy.

SOME people say there is both a dog and hog law needed in Millin. The former they allege is needed to extirpate the hordes of worthless dogs, and the latter is needed to house the troops of rooting hogs. It is suggested that some of these gentlemen read the dog story published on the first page of this paper, to the city fathers. Perhaps the mere possibility of such a judicious dog taking place in the village might induce them to pass a law or ordinance relative to dogs.

ARE COMING.—The Alleghenians Vocalists and Swiss Bell Ringers, first or ganized twenty-six years ago, and whose name has become the household word of the music loving people of all nations and whose continuous travels have extended to all parts of the civilized globe, will appear at Graybill's Hall, on Tuesday evening, May 27, 1873, and every one who enjoys good home music—music that will take you back to the "good days of yore," and make you forget dull care, should attend their concert. Their repertoire embraces a large collection of Vocal Quartettes, arranged in their own peculiar style; also a variety of the sweetest English, Irish, Scotch, German, and Spanish Ballads extant; Humorous Songs, Duets, etc., Arias, Cavattas, and Scenes, from works of the most popular Italian and French masters. In addition to their usual choice selections of Vocal Music, they will play several pieces on their new Swiss Bells.

THE Alleghenians present free to every lady and gentleman on entering the hall with a "Musical Programme," which is fully worth the price of admission and is a new feature in their concert.

"AN OLD ESTABLISHED FIRM.—The firm of S. M. Pettengill & Co. commenced their Advertising Agency in the old Journal building, No. 10 State Street, Boston, nearly a quarter of a century ago (February 1849), where their Agency is still located, carrying on a large and successful business. They established a branch in New York City, May 1852, which has grown to be larger than the parent house,—increasing steadily, year by year, until now it has the agency of nearly every newspaper in the United States and British Provinces, and does a yearly business of hundreds of thousands of dollars. S. M. Pettengill & Co. have recently opened another branch office at 701 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, where they are doing a successful increasing business. They have done advertising exceeding ten millions of dollars since commencing business. This firm is favorably known not only throughout this country, but in all parts of the world. They have established a reputation for honorable and fair dealing which any firm might envy, and but few have attained to. We congratulate them upon their success. We would recommend all who want advertising done in any part of the country to call upon them. They can point to hundreds of business men who have followed their advice, and trusted to their sagacity, and availed themselves of their facilities, who have made fortunes for themselves, and they are daily assisting others in the same path."—Boston Journal May 26.

ATTENTION, GUARDS!—SPECIAL MEETING.—The members of the Fayette Union Guards are requested to meet at their armory in McAlisterville, on Saturday, May 17th, at one o'clock P. M. Business of vital interest to the Company is to be transacted, and the presence of every member on the roll is desired. By order of the Captain. W. M. SHANK, O. S.

THE County Commissioners were in town on Monday looking to the repairing of the Court House.

THE greatest medicine to abate pain and rheumatism is "Kunkel's Pain Slayer." For sale at Banks & Hamlin's Drug Store, Millintown.

THERE are but few systems that do not at some time or other require a tonic. KUNKEL'S BITTER WINE OF IRON is noted for its reinvigorating powers.

NEW GOODS.—Just received at J. W. Kirk's Store, Main street, Millintown, Pa., a full line of Goods, consisting of Dry Goods, Groceries, Notions, Boots, Shoes, Fish, Salt, Meat, Confectioneries, Fruit, Nuts, Tobacco, Segars, &c., which will be sold cheap for Cash or Country Produce. Give me a call, examine goods, and hear prices.

The Lewistown Gazette says: Emma, the only child of James Collanah, residing at the station across the river, was instantly killed on Friday evening at the short curve on the Millin & Centre Railroad in the rear of the old station house, now occupied as an eating house, by being struck by some cars which the shifter was backing towards the junction. The mother had left the house but a few moments before to obtain milk for supper, leaving the little girl at home. She however got out towards the track, and probably became bewildered by the cries of several persons who saw her danger, was struck by the cars, and the upper part of her head almost taken off. She was an interesting and intelligent child, a little over four years old, and the sad bereavement of the parents created unusual sympathy.

Local Option, despite the sneers of the hypocrites who, while pretending to favor it take every occasion to decry its workings, is gaining favor by its marked contrast with the old whiskey days. Drunkenness on the streets is of rare occurrence; the loafers who used to frequent drinking places are scattering to other and better pursuits; and numbers from the country who used to take the bull by the horns on Saturdays and pay days as a rule, go home sober to happy wives and smiling sweethearts "Thank God, for local option," said a poor woman the other day; "my husband to day brought me home a dress—the first present in nine long and dreary years!"

Eleven deer in one troop, probably aware of the game law in their favor at this time of year, came down Beauty's knob into the open fields some ten days or so ago, performing all kinds of antics, such as running, jumping fences, &c.

DECORATION DAY.—The following general order has been issued from the headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Pennsylvania, under date of April 23, 1873: In accordance with our rules and regulations, Friday, May 30th, will be observed as a memorial day for the purpose of strewing with flowers, or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion, or who have since passed away. Citizens generally, military and civic associations, churches and Sunday schools should be invited to participate, and in places where there are no Poets of the Grand Army, it is hoped that the citizens will join together for this purpose, that fitting services may be held in every church yard or cemetery where our dead heroes sleep.

The manner of conducting these services is optional with Posts, but those desiring it, can obtain copies of the form of ceremonies, as furnished last year by making immediate application to the A. A. G.

Attention is especially invited at this time to the recommendation of National headquarters last year "that flowers and shrubs be planted at each grave, in order that when we are gone, the seasons in their ceaseless round, may in our stead adorn the sleeping places of our comrades." By order of R. B. BEATH, Commanding Department. C. S. GREENE, A. A. G.
