We have to record this morning the details of a shocking story of consubial infelicity in Butler, and a deliberate attempt to poison a man and his children.

Last Friday morning, Mr. John Snyder and two of his children, living in Springdale, in the borough of Butler, were taken violently ill at the breakfast table, with all the symptoms of having been poisoned.

The condition of the three persons poisoned on Friday continued to improve until Saturday evening, when Mr. Snyder was suddenly taken ill again with the same symptoms as before.

The condition of the three persons poisoned on Friday continued to improve until Saturday evening, when Mr. Snyder was suddenly taken ill again with the same symptoms as before.

An investigation was then begun as to the sale arsenic in the different drug stores, and resulted in an important piece of information.

Foreman had recently bought a quantity of the poison for the ostensible purpose of killing a dog, and suspicion at once fastened on him.

Foreman was arrested on Sunday night, on an information made before Justice Keck, and lodged in jail yesterday Mrs. Snyder was also arrested and committed to the same safe keeping.

Mr. Snyder is about thirty five years of age, and a steady hard working man. He says that until Sunday last, he never had the remotest suspicion of the loss of his wife's true affection.
