

WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 13, 1873.

Table with 2 columns: Train Name, Time. Includes Philadelphia Express, Fast Line, Southern Express, etc.

NOTICE. The following scale of prices for announcements of candidates in the SENATE, for office at the approaching election...

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Vox was amusing. Near—Seeding time. Longer and cooler—The nights. Poor—The prospects for cloverseed.

Jeremiah Lyons represents this Legislative District in the State Convention.

Almost every family in town has had a member or two sick with cholera morbus.

Of the two clouds, Cloud the "oarsman," and Cloud the "barber," the barber is the most meritorious.

Republican primary election on Saturday, 23rd inst. Meeting of return judges the following Monday.

Mrs. Jane Orr, of Ferrysville, this county, is a sister of John M. Briede who was murdered near Williamsport some weeks ago.

The Juniata County Agricultural Society will hold their Annual Fair on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 7th, 8th and 9th, 1873.

Hunters must get permission to hunt, or go to the mountains, as many of the land owners in the valleys have notified against hunting or trespassing on their lands.

A valuable mare, belonging to J. C. Beale, of Beale township, died yesterday morning, of lockjaw, resulting from a wound which was inflicted some time ago by a kick from a horse.

According to report a number of witnesses summoned in the suits for the maintenance of the Local Option law are more exercised over the prosecution than the liquor venders themselves.

There was an auction sale of building lots at Long Branch the other day. The average price paid was between $6,000 and $7,000 per lot.

Jacob Will and Simon Albright, hotel keepers here in Mifflin, and Dr. P. C. Rudio, druggist, in Patterson, and Francis Heid, of Mexico, have all been sued for selling liquor in violation of the Local Option law.

The papers say that Col. George F. McFarland of McAlisterville this county, one of the delegates from the United States to the Good Templars' League of England, spoke at several very large meetings in London, Manchester, and Liverpool, at each of which he was received with great enthusiasm.

"Woe be unto those who give short measure and weight," says the Alcoran. Curiously enough, the Fairbanks scale is now considerably used in various Mohammedan countries, to help the people keep the injunction of the Prophet.

PUBLIC SALE.—Susanah Clock, Administratrix of the estate of Jacob M. Clock, dec'd., will sell at the late residence of said deceased, in Walker township, one mile north of Vanwert, on Saturday, August 23rd, one cow, 1 calf, 3 hogs, 1 sheep, lot of lumber, carpenter tools, bureau, tables, bedsteads, stoves, cupboard, carpet, rifle and other articles. Sale to commence at 1 o'clock P. M.

DR. ELDER'S Mexican Mustang last Monday frightened at some six or eight men in their shirt sleeves with picks and shovels on their shoulders, at a turn in the road on the Patterson Hill. Having doubtless had some experience with Texan Jayhawkers and the Ku Klux, he mistook Juniata county citizens for a party of that character, and "deeming discretion the better part of valor," suddenly wheeled around in the road, there by upsetting the buggy, throwing out its occupants, Dr. Elder and his sister Miss Annie Elder. The buggy immediately righted itself, and the mustang dashed toward Patterson at a furious rate. Meeting Col. Robison in a wagon, the runaway got too much of the road, and ran the buggy on a bank, which upset it the second time. This time it did not right itself, and consequently was much broken up by the time the runaway brought it up in town. The doctor and his sister were not hurt.

FUN IN THE WAY.—Valentino Vox, the people's popular Ventriloquist, having closed his engagement here in Gray-bill's Hall will visit the following places in this county:

Pleasant View, Monday, Aug. 18th. Mexico, Tuesday, Aug. 19th. Oakland Mills, Wednesday, Aug. 20th. McAlisterville, Thursday, Aug. 21st. East Salem, Friday, Aug. 22nd. Admission, for Adults, 15cts. Children under ten years 10cts. Young people and children, and grown people, too, who have never witnessed tricks of jugglery and heard a ventriloquist in his acts, should by all means go to see and hear Prof. Vox. His entertainments are amusing and instructive.

LAST Thursday a man whose appearance indicated him to be between the years of 25 and 30, fell off a freight train, on which he was stealing his way, at a point about half a mile west of Patterson, and killed instantly by the train passing over his body. Letters on his person gave his name as Michael O'Donoghue, from Limerick, Ireland. Letters on his person also lead to the belief that he has friends in Jersey City. Train master D. W. Cramer informed the Commissioners of the Poor of the accident. They assumed charge of the body of the unfortunate man. Joseph Middlegh summoned a jury and held an inquest in accordance with the facts of the case, and just as the sun was going down the stranger's body was buried in the Presbyterian graveyard.

CHAIRS, Latest Styles. CHAIRS, Lowest Prices. CHAIRS, Strongest Make. CHAIRS, Best Materials. CHAIRS, Best Finish. CHAIRS, Warranted to Give Satisfaction.

LOUNGES, Of the Finest Quality. CAMP STOOLS, Latest Improved. MATTRESSES, Cheap for Cash.

All the above can be had by calling at the Mifflintown Chair Works.

Wm. F. SNYDER, Proprietor.

As per advertisement, contractors presented bids for the "erection and enlargement of Court House" at the Commissioners' office, on Monday, Aug. 11th, at 1 o'clock P. M. The following were offered:

Table with 2 columns: Contractor Name, Bid Amount. Includes D. P. Sulouff, A. P. Bernheisel, Jr., G. W. Tate, J. A. Criswell & Co., etc.

It will be noticed that the bid of Jas. Copeland is the lowest on the list. He, however, not being present himself, or by proxy, to comply with the requirements of the Commissioners, as advertised, of course his bid could not be entertained.

The next lowest bid is that of F. & J. Waidlich. Their bid did not include the brick, which none of the others did expect, which the one of Hetrick & Fleisher. Their bid being $48,000, which, with the reduction of the price of brick already contracted for by the Commissioners, puts it considerably below the bid of the Waidlichs. Hence the contract was awarded to them.

The contractors have to the first day of January, 1875, to complete the job. The old court house will be taken down by the Commissioners, and the material sold to the highest bidder.

The Huntington Globe, and Journal of the same place, have for some time past been engaged in a furious warfare against each other, or rather against their respective friends. Most people seem to believe it purely a personal matter, and as such deem it of not much importance, and his old lady thought about the bear and her husband; she did not care which "whipped."

There is, however, in it more than personal concern. There is in it that which seriously concerns the people of Huntington county particularly, and all people outside of Huntington county generally. The controversy reveals the astounding fact that a regular system of jury packing has been in practice in Huntington county for years past, how many, is not learned from the articles of the Globe and Journal. The courts in that county, instead of being courts of justice, have been courts of injustice by the miserable practice of unscrupulous lawyers and their clients packing juries with their ardent and in many cases—if these papers are worthy of belief, and in the main we believe them—with their promised friends, for the sole purpose of carrying their cases. With these startling declarations in view, the two papers should be encouraged to keep up the fight until all of the unfair, unjust and unlawful work that should send the perpetrators to prison is exposed. The people should know of such jugglery so that they may guard against it and mete out the proper treatment to all who engage in it. The thought of a man going to court for justice, and there have a jury sit on his case who are set up in the interest of a certain client and his lawyer, is too outrageous to entertain for a moment, without ever attempting to put it into execution; and yet that is the kind of justice some men have been trying to get through the courts of Huntington county, according to said papers. Such work is not justice, it is the grossest of injustice.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

OAKLAND MILLS, Pa., August 11, 1873.

B. F. SCHWEIN, Editor Juniata Sentinel: Dear Sir, In looking over your last number, I see my name announced for Commissioner. As I have no desire for office, please say to your next number that I do not consent to be a candidate. By so doing you will oblige Yours, &c., J. BANKS WILSON.

SENATE. MR. EDITOR:—As the time is drawing near when the Republicans of this county must select a standard-bearer in the Senatorial contest, we would announce the name of Dr. J. P. STREETER, of Beale township. In a district where the party lines are so closely drawn, we must select our best man—one who, with an incorruptible character and personal popularity, will run the full party vote, and draw from the Democratic ranks.

DR. STREETER in his late canvass showed that he is the strongest candidate we can get in this county, and there are many circumstances that indicate that if sustained by the Republicans of this county, he will get the nomination in the district.

TUSCARORA. SHERIFF. MR. EDITOR: Permit me through your columns to present the name of JAMES W. DEAN, of Patterson, as a candidate for Sheriff of Juniata county, subject to Republican usages. Mr. DEAN has been a life-long Republican; is a sober, industrious man, served his country faithfully in the late war, and if elected will make an obliging officer.

PATTERSON. SHERIFF. JACOB LEMOS, of Millford township, is a suitable person to fill the office of Sheriff of Juniata county. He is abundantly qualified for the place, and if nominated by the Republican party, of which he has always been a member, he will become a strong candidate before the people, for the reason that the tax-paying community, irrespective of party, deem it for the best interests of all alike, that the county offices be so distributed that the proper restraints be put upon the financial management of the county during the repairing or rebuilding of Court House. I therefore ask that you announce Jacob Lemos as a candidate for Sheriff.

MIFFLINTOWN. Caution. ALL persons are hereby cautioned against hunting, or in any other way trespassing on the lands of the undersigned in Ferrisburgh township. All persons offending will be dealt with to the full extent of the law. SOLOMON SIEBER. Aug 6, 1873.

Notice to Settle Up. THE books and accounts of John C. Doyle, from the 20th of April, 1872, to April 20th, 1873, have been placed in my hands for collection. All persons interested are requested to come forward immediately and make settlement. GEORGE GOSHEN. July 26, 1873-3t
