

The Morning Post

THURSDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 19, 1846

Wm. W. Irving. We are indebted to a friend for the following extract of a letter from the Hon. WILLIAM W. IRVING, our Minister to Denmark.

My Dear Sir—Late papers have brought to the intelligence that the new Tariff passed by the Senate by which the duties on various articles of importation are to be raised.

The predictions and hopes of some of our opponents will, I think, be greatly disappointed. It is not unlikely that the estimates of the revenue likely to be derived from the bill will prove to be below the mark.

Matters are even worse in Portugal—Switzerland will have to import provisions, and among the usual exporting countries of Europe, there is nothing almost to spare.

Truly yours, W. W. IRVING.

Hon. JAMES M. CLAYTON, of Delaware, has written a letter in which he impudently demands that the Tariff of 1842 shall be re-enacted.

It is known to be an ambitious man, and at the present juncture, when the Government is so much embarrassed, it is not surprising that he should be so much favored.

It is not surprising that he should be so much favored, as he is a man of great talents, and has been distinguished in the career of a statesman.

The Loan—The Union of Friday night announced officially that the five millions loan has been taken, and added that most of the first five millions were secured by the Secretary.

Bank of Pittsburgh—In publishing a list of the names of the directors of the Bank of Pittsburgh, in our paper of Tuesday, the name of William McKnight, Esq., was inadvertently omitted.

Verano's—Elections were held on the 10th inst. in the 2d and 4th Congressional districts of Vermont, to fill the vacancies left at the election in September last.

Local Matters

Our report of the murder case is corrected, in consequence of our inability to attend. We are indebted to G. Foster for some proof sheets, and to Mr. Snowden for his minutes.

The Murder Case

Mr. WALKER, the projector of the Oregon Railroad, says the St. Louis Union of the 10th inst. is wrong in its statement that he had been successful in getting public opinion in favor of his project.

The case was opened by Edmund Snowden, Esq., in a brief address, which we have heard with much interest.
