(Concluded.) CHAPTER IV. without admirers, and even amongst the young friend. It was for the sake of the lady, that I established my head quarters at Naples. My people tablished my head quarters at Naples. My people labored there with very great profit. The plundering of the audience at the opera, was a combiwaldi, his fire-sparkling eyes, his manifest adoration dering of the audience at the opera, was a combilities spirit of liberality manifested by the citizens for the charms, had produced no slight impression woung duelist was another piece of the arrest of the state generally. upon her heart. Her conduct towards him had young duelist was another piece of the same kind. for some time justified him in thinking that he It was intended peculiarly, I might say exclusiveupon ner heart. Her conduct towards him had for some time justified him in thinking that he it was intended peculiarly, I might say exclusive-might, at least, hope; but now—all was changed. It was intended peculiarly, I might say exclusive-might, at least, hope; but now—all was changed. It was intended peculiarly, I might say exclusive-might, and diamond-enammeled watch; but as the young intering to her vanity. Now her heart was too officers threw themselves in our way, of course, whether they had to since the property of the property o ing from the world and its tumult; and in some partook of, was that afforded by the opera, where partook of, was that afforded by the opera, where was Signora Diamanti, who then enchanted the people of Naples by her voice. Lady Caroline felt an indescribable pleasure in listening to the tones of her heavenly voice. At home, she never could of her heavenly voice. At home, she never could be transported hither."

I was betrayed. I tell myselt into the snare I had laid for another. I was wounded by a pistol bullet—was seized by the police, and without any further trouble transported hither."

This is the last of Bulwer's novels, and is for sale at Cook's.

Our readers will recollect that the health of Present—Judges Patton.

Present—Judges Patton. be wearied in gazing upon the exquisitely painted portrait of the singer, which occupied a conspicution. Her eyes would rest for ours upon the beautiful, but still somewhat massical feelings for which she could not account.

Acircumstance, however, soon occured, which a conspicution of the work of soon occured, which and compelled the lovely solitary to turn her outside the second of the could not account.

Acircumstance, however, soon occured, which and compelled the lovely solitary to turn her outside the second of the count, and as soon as it ceased he added:

"My wife alone has not abandoned me. She, in my degradation, as in my good fortune, is as in my degradation, as in my good fortune, is as in my degradation, as in my good fortune, is as in my degradation, as in my good fortune, is as the deceased, during her the deceased, during her the deceased, during her was eloquently ascribed by him to the efficacy of the "Water Cure." He went to the Springs of Malvern with a worn out and wasted constitution, given up by the best physicians in England—

This case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

This case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

This case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the Court for this morning—

The case is fixed by the C A circumstance, however, soon occured, which quickly compelled the lovely solitary to turn her thoughts to other things beside her own griefs.—
A Court masquerade was announced which it was proclaimed would surpass every thing of the Russian Guard to perfection. Ha! ha! ha! He suffered continually from headache, a sense of weariness, dejection of spirits, and sleep with that had yet been seen in Italy. Lady Caroline that had yet been seen in Italy. Lady Caroline that had yet been seen in Italy. Lady Caroline that had yet been seen in Italy. Lady Caroline the walked forward; but then turned suddenty round and exclaimed—

"Apropos—did I not act the part of a Chevalier of the Russian Guard to perfection. Ha! ha! ha! He suffered continually from headache, a sense of weariness, dejection of spirits, and sleep without the said John Finley.

This case is fixed by the Court for this morning—being an appeal from the probate by the will of to some bad design. So we thought when informed yesterday that it was talked over town that the announcement in the Protestant Churches in relationship. Palace was at the very bottom of the bay of Naples, still she found her own wishes must be disregarded, and her own inclinations set at nought. and that the command of the sovereign must be attroit of Diamanti forsaken. It was, then, with a heavy, anxious heart, that she took her seat in her surpassed even in the gorgeous days, when the foreign to authorize suit to be brought upon the official bond over its pages, is intensely interesting.

Two Horses Drouned.—M. A. White's hearse theories so far into the ground as to oppose all that of the purpose of washing, when the horses became the purpose of surpassed even in the gorgeous days, when the hear the divine Diamanti. The ball commenced, Mr. Garrier is a democrat, but inrough some one of the first statesmen of our country once and Lady Caroline stared upon the moving multi-strange mistake he has got himself into the federal remark, that "the young should read histories, we deserve for our course in regard to the Theatre. We are in favor of dramatic exhibitions; we believe and Lady Caroline stared upon the moving mutistrange mistake he has got himself into the federal rude before ber, as one looks in a dream upon the ranks, and cannot disentangle himself from their snares. There are many things in the Tribune up. Suddenly a gentle voice whispered in her ear, which we deserve for our course in regard to the Theatre.
We deserve for our course in regard to the Theatre.
We deserve for our course in regard to the Theatre.
We deserve for our course in regard to the Theatre.
We are in favor of dramatic exhibitions; we believe their tendency is good, and that civilization is honor, in addition to the usual variety of vagrancy cases. up. Suddenly agentle voice whispered in her ear, which we do not, and never can indorse; but heart. Half fainting, and quite unable to speak, she turned round, and saw standing before her the she turned round, and saw standing before her the country,—an ardent literature to be the young and the beautiful.—

There is great room for reform in the Theatre.

time from a journey in Germany. The features town of the Neapolitan kingdom. As the repairs would require some time; the Count proceeded to take a walk on the ramparts. The features of one of the convicts who was laboring there, seemed to be known to laim. He stopped to look at the wretched being, but the man instead of casting his eyes to the earth, burst into a loud laugh.

"I believe, Count," said he, "you had little notion of finding an old friend here. I am the Chevaller Grandinsky, at your service."

"What! is it possible?" he exclaimed, struck allight of the Count of the Struck allight of the Count of the Struck allight of the Count, and the stonishment and horror.

CANAL COMMISSIONERS OFFICE, (

unanimously passed the following resolution at their meeting on the 3d inst.

Resolved, That the patriotic volunteers now organizing in the city and county of Philadelphia, under the requisition of the Secretary of War, for the carth, burst into a loud laugh.

"I believe, Count," said he, "you had little nonities way to Pittsburgh.

In connection with the above we find the following resolution at their meeting on the 3d inst.

Resolved, That the patriotic volunteers now organizing in the city and county of Philadelphia, under the requisition of the Secretary of War, for the crib d and pressed to serve local and partial interests, against the mind and press will so much work the lever as to overturn finally all opposition. This great attention, extending itself over so much of the earth's colocked during the winter. We wish it was practic darks the writer and an approach to the crib d and pressed to serve local and partial interests, against the mind and press will so much work the lever as to overturn finally all opposition. This great attention, extending itself over so much of the earth's colocked during the city and county of Philadelphia, under the requisition of the Secretary of War, for the crib d and pressed to serve local and partial interests, against the mind and the spirit of the Constitution. Fortuna What! is it possible?" he exclaimed, struck almost dumb with astonishment and horror.

"Nothing is more possible, and certainly nothing and or entire," answered the man. "But if you want to know more, you must first order me a cigar and a flask of good rich wine; for here, to tell you the truth, the luxuries of a man of quality are but indifferently attended to."

The Count instantly desired the things that he saked for to be brought to him, and Gradinsky thus continued!—

The Count instantly desired the month of December, 18436, for the purpose of entering the service of the United struct.

The Constitution as the Democratic party contends for, this week we presume.

The Constitution as the Democratic party contends for, this week we presume.

The Constitution as the Democratic party contends for, this week we presume.

The What! is it possible?" he exclaimed, struck all lished as an advertisement:

In in the Harrisburg Union of the 22d inst., published as an advertisement:

I tified with the welfare and defence of all other interests, whon rightly understood. Dismissing there terests, whon rightly understood. Dismissing there delivery at my warehouse on Third street.

Harrisburg Union of the 22d inst., published as an advertisement:

CARAL CONMISSIONER'S OPFICE, Harrisburg, Nov. 28, 1846.

On motion, it was unanimously

at the expense of other States, Pennsylvania should at the expense of other S

THE CHEVALIER GRADINSKY. When I was in Naples, Leertainly did my ut- States in pursuance of the call of the President | she should spurn the base idea of trafficing away In her native land, Lady Caroline had not been have no secrets to one whom I regard as an old

sincerely engaged. She believed that she could whatever they had to give, was not to be rejected. happiness upon this earth, by withdraw. Fortune, you know, is the brave man's deity, the world and its turnult, and in some "But what has at last brought you here?" ing from the world and its turnult; and in some lonely valley of the Alps or the Appenines, betake herself as a very hermit, and pass away her life alone—quite alone with her beloved Crudino.

The only amusement, or rather, the only distraction for Lady Caroline. I fell in the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the country with the deepest interest. tion from ever gnawing care, which Lady Caroline enough to trust another woman with my secret, partook of, was that afforded by the opera, where I was betrayed. I fell myself into the snare I had

He turned away his head for a moment, then burst into a wild shrick of laughter, and as soon Bulwer of late years, owing to his great literary Carey vs. Anderson's Experimental Carey vs. Anderson's Experimental Carey vs. Anderson's Experimental Carey vs.

L. HARPER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. PITTSBURGH

ie, for one moment."

Lady Caroline stood up, and followed him in is in favor of an aristocracy, and that is the aris

When I was in Naples, I certainly did my utmost to get Lady Caroline into my power, and if my plan had succeeded, you positively never should again have beheld her living. At that time I had been for some years carrying on the profession of Extract from the Journal.

States in pursuance of the call of the President—be, and they are hereby respectively authorized to the principles on which the Constitution reposes. For States as for individuals, the safe way is the path of duty. Let not therefore either private or path of duty. Let not therefore either private or public virtue be sacrificed for any consideration whatever. Rate if we are disposed to sacrifice pa-Extract from the Journal.

D. MITCHELL, Jr.,

Secretary. Acts like these speak volumes in favor of the managers of our public works. We hope to see a tional that had yet been seen in Italy. Lady Caroline learned that her presence was indispensable, for she had received the royal command to attend it.

Out renesament. Thus work out, he sought and found in the "Water Cure" a Bethesda which restored him to the health, strength, and enjoy mason objecting to the Hospital proposed to be found in the "Water Cure a necessary which restored him to the health, strength, and enjoy mason objecting to the Hospital proposed to be being made to the "Brotherhood of St. Joseph." ments of youth. The peasent of Gransenberg erected by the "Brotherhood of St. Joseph," on the We believe that those engaged in the new Hospital done for him what all the disciples of Esculaground that it is a secret society. It is not a secret enterprise, are sincere and earnest, and that the TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 8, 1846.

TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 8, 1846.

TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 8, 1846.

TOTAL STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE in being a tec-totaler, and he writes heavenly less, deserve the encouragement of our citizens, in things about that crystal element of which Un- an effort such as they are making for the protec- pitals in this city by next spring. We have not, until recently, been a reader of dine is the type.—Restored to health, and the world tion of the friendless sick who may be found in Theatre.—Addams has been drawing excellent we have not, until recently, been a reader of the New York Tribune, but we have occasionally as bright to him as it was in the days of his perused some of its leading articles when copied into other papers. We must candidly say that we look upon it as decidedly the best whig paper in the New York Tribune, but we have occasionally as bright to him as it was in the days of his same was determined, established, and directed to be friendless sick who may be found in the friendless sick The ball was one of the most magnificent that perused some of its leading articles when copied youth, he has presented that world with a new ity for the weakness of those who become alarmed appears as Othello to-night.

count Crudino, in an Hungarian uniform.

"You then are here," said the Count. Follow less to elevate his fellow-beings, and break as sunder the fetters which bind the masses. Greeley lady Caroline stood up, and followed him intuitively. They reached a garden attached to the is in favor of an aristocracy, and that is the arising the fellow and merits their custom.

An Ordinance on this subject than our neighbor over the river.

We feason more deeply desire to elevate his fellow-beings, and break as sunder the fetters which bind the masses. Greeley in this sindeed true; and while we are for destroy-old Court House on Saturday last, to make suitable than our neighbor over the river.

The subject than our neighbor over the river.

The is great room for reform in the Theatre; enthusiastic meeting of citizens and on a country,—an ardent with the cut of the cut of design from the proposal modes of the contract of the proposal contract

An event and the second of the whatever. But if we are disposed to sacrifice partriotism to cupidity, why should we signalize our folly by letting go our claim upon the Constitutional provisions for the pretection of our coal and it in and J. Caldwell; Second Ward—H. S. Magraw clova.

dry case to those who free at courts for matter Nov. 7, 1846.

RELIEF TO/IRELAND. The following are the names of the gentleme ppointed to make collections for the relief of the Delta of the 28th ult. suffering poor of Ireland, W.M. LARIMEN, jr., is Gen. Wool had taken possession of Mo

Congress met yesterday. It is probable that the President's Message will be read in both House this day at 12 o'clock, if not received and read yesterday. The Message will be read in both House the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the expected demand we shall issue a large edition, which will be kept for sale at the counter.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

ATTERS.

ATTERS.

DISTRICT COURT Monday, No. 7.
Athurs & Nicholson, No. 5, January Term, Seet this day at 12 o'clock, if not received and read yesterday. The Message will be looked for by the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the expected demand we shall issue a large edition, which will be kept for sale at the counter.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

ATTERS.

DISTRICT COURT Monday, No. 7.
Athurs & Nicholson, No. 5, January Term, Seet this day at 12 o'clock, if not received and read yesterday. The Message will be looked for by the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the expected demand we shall issue a large edition, which will be kept for sale at the counter.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

ATTERS.

DISTRICT COURT Monday, No. 7.
Athurs & Nicholson, No. 5, January Term, Seet this day at 12 o'clock, if not received and read yes the country with the deepest interest, and to meet the expected demand we shall issue a large edition, which will be kept for sale at the counter.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

ATTERS.

DISTRICT COURT Monday, No. 7.
Athurs & Nicholson, No. 5, January Term, Seet the Ward—Dr. R. Wray and J. C. Cummins; Seventh Ward—Dr. R. Wray and J. C. Cummins; Seventh Ward—Dr. R. Wray and J. C. Cummins; Seventh Ward—Uran, Esq., and Cust, Esq.; Eighth Ward—J. Law as a sum will despatches from Washington. There was much sickness in the camp.

This to Ward—J. R. Wray and J. C. Cummins; Seventh Ward—W. As an an undescribable charact was a undescribed to which he protect the most curve of the most circums was waiting despatches from Washington. There was a was waiting despatches from Washington. There was a was a stand anna is collecting his work of the country of a country

Birmingham—C. Ihmsen, Esquire Ensell. Sligo—Mr. Warnet, J. Blackmore. emperanceville-Dr. Mecaskey, J. Danlavy. Tarentum-H. M. Brackenridge, J. Fulton. East Liberty-D. Negley, Dr. M'Clintock. Wikinsburgh-W. Hawkins, Dr. Carothers. Turtle Creek-J. M'Masters, Rev. Joseph

Noblestown-J. E. M'Cabe, Rev. Jefferies. Clinton-Dr. Pollock, M. Annon. Sewickly-D. Shields, Dr. Woods.

tion to the Hospital, was to prevent subscriptions.

two or three assault and battery cases before his

WAR MEETING.

4th day of December, A. D. 1846.
MORGAN ROBERTSON,
President of C. C.

E. J. Roberts, Clerk C. C.
THOMAS BAKEWELL,
President of S. C. Alex. Millar, Clerk S. C. President of S. C. dec8-3t

LATE FROM MEXICO. We gather the following from the New Orl

Treasurer, to whom reports should be made immediately.

Gen. Lopez welcomed Gen. Wool to Coabuils and produced a work which, for artistic beauty and dratin and J. Caldwell, Second Ward—H. S. Magraw and W. J. Howard; Third Ward—J. Wileyit and
the American flag over the citade—
Gen. Lopez welcomed Gen. Wool to Coabuils and produced a work which, for artistic beauty and dratin and J. Caldwell, Second Ward—H. S. Magraw
and W. J. Howard; Third Ward—J. Wileyit and
the American flag over the citade—
for the author of "Rienzi," &c., filter having been long in abeyance, has at length produced a work which, for artistic beauty and dratin and J. Caldwell, Second Ward—I. S. Magraw and W. J. Howard; Third Ward—J. Mileyit and the American flag over the citade—
for having been long in abeyance, has at length
produced a work which, for artistic beauty and dratin and J. Caldwell, Second Ward—II. S. Magraw and W. J. Howard; Third Ward—II. Mileyit and
the American flag over the citade—
for having been long in abeyance, has at length
produced a work which, for artistic beauty and dratin and J. Caldwell, Second Ward—II. S. Magraw
and W. J. Howard; Third Ward—II. Mileyit and
the American flag over the citade—
for having been long in abeyance, has at length
produced a work which, for artistic beauty and dratin and J. Caldwell, Second Ward—II. S. Magraw and The Company in the citade—
for having been long in abeyance, has at length
produced a work which, for artistic beauty and dratill and the company in the citade—
for having been long in abeyance, has at length produced a work which, for artistic beauty and dratill and the company in the company in the citade—
for having been long in abeyance, has at length
produced a work which, for artistic beauty and dratill and the company in the citade—
for having been long in abeyance, has at length produced a work which, for artistic beauty and the company in the citade—
for having the company in the citade—
for having the company in the citade—
for having the company in th

First Tier, 50 cents. Second Tier, 50 cents. Third 20 ... Pit, 25 ... second night of Mr. A. A. ADDAMS, who is en gaged for five nights only. TUESDAY EVENING, DEC. 8th, 1846. Will be acted Shakspeare's Tragedy of

ausical Academy, corner Third and Wood

ausical Academy, corner Third and Wood

accident and the second and for sale at manufacturers and such as a second and second

E. J. Roberts, Clerk C. C. THOS. BAKEWELL, Prest S. C. Alex. Miller, Clerk S. C. decs.

An Ordinance

one of the most fashionable stores in Philadelphin dec3

JOHN D. DAVIS, Auct.

An Ardinance

FIXING the place of holding elections in the Seventh Ward.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the citizens of Pittsburgh, in Select and Common Councils assembled. That from and after the passage of this Ordinance, the place of holding elections in the Seventh Ward of the City of Pittsburgh, shall be at the Arthursville Inn.

Ordained and enacted into a law in Councils, this 4th day of December, A. D. 1846.

40 BBLS pure Rye Monongabela Whiskey.

For sale by MILLER & RICKETSON,

Balwer's New Boyes.

UCRETIA, or the Children of the Night; by Sir

E. Lytton Bulwer, Bart., author of "Pelham," "Pompeii," "Zanoni," "Reinzi," &c. Price twenty-

Popular Lectures on the Reform Practice of Medicine.

D. R. W. BEACH, from New York, at the request of many citizens of Pittibutgh, proposes to deliver a course of lectures, exclusively ta Ladies, on Physiology, the cause, symptoms and treatment of discusse, generally on Reform Principles, illustrated by a splendid Anatomical Female Figure, imported from Europe, expressly for the nursons, which will be discussed.

a spiencial Anatomical Famale Figure, imported from Europe, expressly for the purpose, which will be dissected during the course. The Invalid, and all who feel interested in the cause of Medical Reform, will find it their interest to attend. First Lecture Free, To commence on Monday, 7th inst., at 3 o'clock, P. M., at the Musical Academy, corner Third and Wood sts., enterance on Third st. dec?

BULLION'S English Grammar; do do Reader; do Greek do;

Andrews' and Stoddard's Latis Grammar; Andrews' and Stoddard's Lans Standard, Andrews' Latin Reader;
do do Exercises;
do Casar;
Also, Anthon's Classical Books, and a good sup-Alto, Anthon's Classical Books, and a good sup-ply of all the Books used in the Colleges and Schools in and around Pittsburgh, to which we invite the at-tention of Teachers and Students. We will sell at very low prices. ELLIGIT'S ENGLISH,

dec7

Ordained and snacted into a law in Gouncils, this 4th day of December, A. D. 1846.

ATTEST, MORGAN ROBERTSON, President of Common Council.

E. J. Roberts, Clerk, C. C.

THOMAS BAKEWELL, Pres. S. C.

Alex. Miller, Clerk S. C.

Alex. Miller, Clerk S. C.

BBLS pure Rye Monongahela Whiskey.

OLD BBLS pure Rye Monongahela Whiskey.

OLD BBLS pure Rye Monongahela Whiskey.

WEWSPAPERS, &c.—All the daily and almost all the weekly Pittsburgh newspapers; a variety of Almanacs for 1847; Sibetty Counterfeit Detector; the Philadelphia Saturday Enquirer, and all the publications of the American Temperance Union, New York, kept constantly for saile. Also, a large variety of later papers; from many cities and fowns in the United States, to read or sell. Please call at dec5.3t

L. HARRIS, No. 12; St. Clair st. GOLD PENS—Bagley's celebrated ever pointed