SPECIMEN OF ALLITERATION. The following which we copy from an old pa per, has been out of print for many years. It is the most perfect specimen of alliteration extant: An Austrian army, awfully arrayed, Boldly, by battery, besieged Belgrade Cossack commanders cannonading come, Dealing destruction's devastating doom; Every endeavor, engineers essay, For lame, for fortune—fighting fusions fray; Generals gainst generals grapple—gracious How honors Heaven, heroic hardihood! indiscriminate in ill. Kinsmen kill kinsmen—kinsmen kindred kill! abor low levels loltiest longest lines-Men march 'mid mounds, mid moles, 'mid derous mines. Now noisy, noxious numbers notice nought Of outward obstacles, opposing ought;

Poor patriots, partly purchased, partly pressed,
Quite quaking, quickly quarter 'quest;
Reason returns, religious right resounds,— Suwarrow stop such sanguinary sounds, Truee to the Turkmen-triumph to thy train Injust, unwise, unmerciful Ukranel Vanish vain victory, vanish victory vain!
Why wish we warfare? wherefore welcome MONTEREY. "Pends toi brave Crillon! Nous avons combatu at tu a'y etais pas."-Lettre de Henri IV. a Crillon. We were not many—we who stood Before the iron sleet that day— Yet many a gallant spirit would Give half his years if he but could Have been with us at Monterey. Now here, now there, the shot, it hailed In deadly drifts of fiery spray, Yet not a single soldier qualled, When wounded comrades round them wailed Their dying shout at Monterey. And on-still on our columns kept Through walls of flame its withering way; Where fell the dead, the living slept, Still charging on the guns which swept The slippery streets of Monterey. The foe himself recoiled aghast, When, striking where the strongest lay, We swooped his flanking batteries past, And braving full their murderous blast. Stormed home the tower of Monterey Our banners on the turrets wave, And there our evening bugles play; Where orange boughs above their grave ory of the brave Keep green the Who fought and fell at Montercy. We are not many-we who press'd Beside the brave who fell that day;
But who of us has not confessed
He'd rather share their warrior rest,
Than not have been at Monterey?
