

rejected. A proposal which was in fact the very recognition of the fact that the United States government has always considered that act of the Mexican government as an abandonment of the independence of her, and an admission that Texas was her territory.

But, sir, there are other things which we have to consider. We have to consider the fact that the United States government has always considered that act of the Mexican government as an abandonment of the independence of her, and an admission that Texas was her territory.

Great Railroad Meeting.
In the presence of a great number of the Board of Directors, a large and highly respectable meeting was held last evening, in the Rooms of the Board of Directors, for the purpose of a mutual exchange of sentiments and views between our citizens and a Delegation of the Board of Directors of the Western Railroad Company, and the subject of a projected Railroad between this city and Massillon, and from there westward, in the direction of St. Louis.

The following resolution, offered by James B. Craig, Esq., was unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That any law which shall have the effect of preventing or hindering the construction of a Railroad between this city and Massillon, and from there westward, in the direction of St. Louis, be and the same be repealed.

City Washington.
