JOHN WALKER,

IMPORTER and dealer in Foreign and Domestic Hardware, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally, that he is now receiving his Spring supply of Hardware at the old stand of Walker & Woodwell, No. 83 Wood street, which he will dispose of on the most reasonable terms. He will be continually receiving fresh supplies direct from the manufacturers in Europe and this Country, which will enable him to compete with any establishment either East or West. Western Merchants are invited to call and examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere. mar5

EAGLE SALOON.

TO FRIENDS AND PATRONS.—I have disposed of my Bakery, in Diamond alley, and for the future will receive orders at the counter of the Eagle Saloon—for fancy cake, confection ary, calf feet jelly, ice cream, pyramids and every other article necessary for suppers, parties, balls, weddings, &c. The Saloon will be open for ice cream, on or before the 1st day of April. A large amount of money has been expended in order to make the Eagle the most attractive and pleasant place of resort in the west for the approaching season.

Proud of the patronage we have received we will endeavor to deserve a continuance of it.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT CURE.—Miss Marianna Beader, a highly respectable lady from Harrisburgh, called to-day at our office for the purpose, she said, to express in this public manner, her heartfelt gratitude to Dr. JAYNE, No. 8, South Third street, for the unparalleled benefits she had received from the use of his ALTERATIVE. She stated that she had suffered for several years with SCROFULA and had had the attendance of five physicians at different times, all of whom finally told her that they considered her disease incurable. She therefore determined to try the efficacy of DR. JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE, from which she found almost immediate relief, so that by the time she had taken thirteen bottles, she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys better health than she has for several years before.

☞ WHOOPING COUGH.—Messrs Editors, I observed some time ago a communication over the signature for "A Parent," stating that Dr. Jayne's Indian Expectorant had been the means of saving the lives of three of his children, who were suffering severely with whooping cough; and having, but a short time before, lost one of my children by that dreadful complaint, and having another, and my only child, suffering the greatest agony with the same disease, and in hourly expectation of its death, I was induced to purchase a bottle of it, and commenced using it according to the directions—and to the surprise of all it began to mend in fifteen minutes after we commenced using it, and the child has now completely recovered.

I have no acquaintance with Dr. Jayne, but I hereby return him a husband's and a father's grateful acknowledgments.

Jayne's Hair Tonic.—We commend to the attention of those desirous of restoring their hair or improving its beauty, to this elegant preparation We hear it every where highly spoken of, and especially by all who have made use of it, as greatly efficacious in stimulating the growth of the hair, and preventing and curing many affections of the skin. Its virtues are amply and sufficiently proved.—N. Y. Sun.

☞ "Important to those who are afflicted with diseased Lungs.

Dr. Rogers Liverwort and Tar. This specific seems to deserve all that the vender claims for its all healing virtues, we have seen a very emphatic certificate from Dr. Cox, late professor in the Cincinnati Eclectic College, who represents it to be a very different article from the prevailing nostrums of the day, and as very valuable in the treatment of that insidious class of diseases which are the bane of this variable climate."

Cincinnati Morning Signal.

If physicians of Dr. Cox's character in the profession give their testimony in favor of this celebrated medicine, it must be valuable.

N. B. Notice the certificate of Professor Cox in another column, also, one of a remarkable cure from Mr. Gabriel Whitehead, under the head of Liverwort and Tar.

GREAT ITALIAN REMEDY.

PHILADELPHIA, April 26, 1846.

Being afflicted for some 8 years with that most distressing disease, the asthma, and for the last 3 years much of the time confined to my room, and at several different times my life was despaired of; I concluded to obtain some of Mazoni's Sicilian Syrup, which was recommended to me by a friend from New York, who stated that it had cured some of the most inveterate cases known to the medical profession. Suffice it to say, that, after using the above medicine for about 4 weeks, I was entirely relieved, and I believe radically cured. Yours with respect,

Orphan's Court Sale.

BY virtue of an order of the Orphan's Court of Allegheny County, I will, on Wednesday the 3d day of March, A. D. 1847, at the hour of 3 o'clock, P. M., on the premises, expose to sale by public vendue or outcry, all those two certain Lots of ground, marked and numbered in the plan of the Reserve Tract opposite Pittsburgh, as Lots Nos 209 and 210, in such parts and in such proportions as will suit purchasers; or I will sell the whole of each Lot in a body. Lot No 219 contains 6 acres and 22 8-10 perches, upon which is erected a two story weatherboarded log House, with back buildings and other improvements. Lot No 210, containing 7 acres and 66 4-10 perches, is under good fence and perfectly level, and is particularly adapted for the purpose of a market-garden.

The above property is situated on the Beaver Road about 2 miles below the City of Allegheny, on the East side of Woods' run, and presents a rare chance for persons wishing to procure a location near the two cities.

The terms of sale are, one-third (1) of the purchase money in cash on delivery of the Deed, one-third (1) in two years, and one-third (1) in three years with interest to be secured by a mortgage.

IN the matter of the Estate of Ardle O'Hanlon, deceased.

And now, to wit, February 20th, 1847, the Inquisition having been held and returned, the parties having been first duly warned in pursuance of the writ, and the inquest having found that the lands and tenements in said writ mentioned, could not be parted to and among all the parties in said writ named without prejudice, &c., but that the same could be parted and divided so as to accommodate four of the said parties, and therefore parted and divided the same into four parts or portions and valued the same at the sum of Two Thousand Dollars, and on motion of John J. Mitchell, Esq., the Court ordered and directed that the heirs and legal representatives of Ardle O'Hanlon, deceased, come into Court on the 4th Monday of March next, and accept or refuse the said purparts or shares and comply with the act of Assembly in such case made and provided, and that notice of this order be given to Esther O'Hanlon, widow, William M'Clum and Martha his wife, Charles Cassily and Ellen his wife, Alfred W. Harrison and Margaret his wife, and Esther Jackson, personally or by writing left at their places of abode, and on Thomas O'Hanlon, by publication in the Daily Morning Post, a newspaper published in the city of Pittsburgh, by three insertions in the same for 3 successive weeks, before the said 4th Monday of March.

Recruiting for the Infantry.

UNITED STATES ARMY.—Wanted for the United States army, able bodied men, between the ages of 18 and 35 years, being above 5 feet 3 inches high, of good character, and of respectable standing among their fellow citizens. None need apply to enter the service, but those who are determined to serve the period of their enlistment, honestly and faithfully, viz: "during the war" with Mexico.

Table of established rates of pay agreeable to existing laws.

GRADE.	Pay of artillery and dragoons and of dragoons when serving on foot.	Pay of dragoons and riflemen when mounted.
	Pay per m.	Pay per m.
To the Serg't at Maj. Quartermaster Serg't, Chief Musician, & Chief Bugler, each	$17	$17
To the 1st Serg't of a Comp'y	16	16
Ordnance Sergeant	13	—
All other Sergeants, each	13	13
Corporals	9	10
Buglers	8	9
Musicians	8	—
Farriers and Blacksmiths	11	11
Artificers	11	—
Privates	7	8

A bounty of twelve dollars will be paid to each recruit enlisted for the artillery or infantry arm.

Besides the monthly pay, as above stated, one ration per day is allowed every soldier, which is amply sufficient for his subsistence; also, a large supply of comfortable and genteel clothing. Good quarters and fuel are at all times furnished; and every attention will be paid to raising those men who may enlist, and are determined to serve their country in good faith, comfortable and contented with their situation. The best medical attendance is always provided for the sick soldier; and no deduction of pay is made during the period he is unable to perform his duty. Should the soldier be disabled in the line of his duty, he laws provide a pension for him.

Also ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY ACRES of best land in any of the States in which the United States have land. Provided he obtains by his good conduct an honorable discharge, or $100 in treasury scrip, to bear interest, if he prefers it to land.

By the above it is seen that the pay and allowances are respectable, and that, with prudence and economy, the monthly pay of the soldier may be laid up—as everything requisite for his comfort and convenience is furnished by the government, including his sugar and coffee. The prudent soldier, therefore, may readily save from $420 to $1030 during his enlistment, and at the expiration of the term he can, if he chooses, settle in his farm in any of the western States, and there establish himself comfortably, on his own land, for the rest of his life.

The sum of two dollars will be paid to any citizen, non-commissioned officer or soldier, who shall bring to the rendezvous an able bodied recruit, who shall be regularly enlisted. The citizen should present his recruit to the Lieutenant or Captain, and not to the Recruiting Sergeants.
