

The Morning Post.

FOR GOVERNOR. FRANCIS R. SHUNK. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. MORRIS A. JOHNSON.

Famine in the Old World.

We have from time to time published extracts from foreign journals giving details of the heart-rending distress which exists in the Emerald Isle. The extent of that famine and distress is indeed terrible. Hundreds and thousands are dying in districts where health and plenty were but a few days ago.

The citizens of Pittsburgh have not contributed one tenth as much as they are wont to do to the relief of the famine in the Emerald Isle. A few kind-hearted individuals have been very vigilant, but the great mass of our citizens have been lukewarm supporters of the relief fund.

Major Lawrence, Treasurer of the Relief Fund, publishes another list of contributions in this city, amounting to about $5,400. $1,000 of this sum was collected in St. Paul's (Catholic) Church, and paid over to Bishop O'Connor. This was in addition to $400 before collected in that church.

These are a great number of wealthy congregations in and about Pittsburgh, and if they exhibit the same degree of liberality as St. Paul's, the amount of money that can be raised in this city is altogether more than double what it is at present.

We are informed that Bishop O'Connor is sending a large sum of money to the relief of the famine in the Emerald Isle. It is believed that if the proper efforts are made, the country will do better than the city.

We have not heard of any public movement in Scotland in behalf of the poor of that country. It is a fact that many of the poor of that country are suffering from the same distress as that which prevails in the Emerald Isle.

It is a fact that many of the poor of that country are suffering from the same distress as that which prevails in the Emerald Isle. It is believed that if the proper efforts are made, the country will do better than the city.

Important from Santa Fe!

A ship from the office of the Independent Enterprise, which contains the following interesting intelligence from Santa Fe, is a confirmation of the news given by us in an extra, on Tuesday, and published in yesterday's Post.

Among the dead is L. L. Waldo, a citizen of our country, and brother of Capt. David Waldo, of Capt. Doniphan's regiment. Mr. Caldwell left El Paso on the 12th of January, and on the 24th of February he saw nothing of El Paso, and he had not seen anything of the Mexicans since he left the city.

The instructions consisted of about 2000 men, and started for Santa Fe. Col. Price sent out about 300 men to meet them, and on the 25th of February they met them at the mouth of the Rio Grande. The Mexicans drew up 2000 strong, but they were defeated, and the balance fled.

Major Lawrence, Treasurer of the Relief Fund, publishes another list of contributions in this city, amounting to about $5,400. $1,000 of this sum was collected in St. Paul's (Catholic) Church, and paid over to Bishop O'Connor.

These are a great number of wealthy congregations in and about Pittsburgh, and if they exhibit the same degree of liberality as St. Paul's, the amount of money that can be raised in this city is altogether more than double what it is at present.

We are informed that Bishop O'Connor is sending a large sum of money to the relief of the famine in the Emerald Isle. It is believed that if the proper efforts are made, the country will do better than the city.

We have not heard of any public movement in Scotland in behalf of the poor of that country. It is a fact that many of the poor of that country are suffering from the same distress as that which prevails in the Emerald Isle.

It is a fact that many of the poor of that country are suffering from the same distress as that which prevails in the Emerald Isle. It is believed that if the proper efforts are made, the country will do better than the city.

We have not heard of any public movement in Scotland in behalf of the poor of that country. It is a fact that many of the poor of that country are suffering from the same distress as that which prevails in the Emerald Isle.

HOPE FOR THE FUTURE.

Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future. Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future.

Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future. Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future.

Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future. Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future.

Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future. Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future.

Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future. Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future.

Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future. Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future.

Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future. Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future.

Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future. Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future.

Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future. Blind is the voice now heard afar. O'er the dark rolling sea. Sailors there's a hope for the future.

THE COMMERCIAL.

Alleged to have been committed at the June Term of 1845; at which time Joseph Scott and Thos. G. McGiffin, Police Officers of Allegheny County, were convicted upon the testimony of the Defendant, of abetting and abetting the burglary of the house of Jesse Carothers. The Defendant had been employed as a stool-pigeon to show himself in the company of thieves and burglars, and had generally acted as an underground pilot.

John Fulton was convicted, at the March Term of 1845, of this burglary. From revelation made by Fulton after his conviction, Stubb was arrested by the Pittsburgh Police, and taken to the jail. Upon his arrest he gave information which led to the arrest and conviction of Scott and McGiffin as accessories to the burglary aforesaid.

Scott and McGiffin were the principal witnesses for the Commonwealth, and Mayor Howard, of Pittsburgh—John Major, Clerk of Mayor Howard—E. W. Cook, High Constable of Allegheny County, and John Bissel were the principal witnesses for the Defense.

The whole affair is wrapped in mystery and gloom, and the most respectable and undoubted character conflicting in their testimony. The Prosecution was conducted by John D. Mahon and William B. DeLoach, and the Defense by Thomas M. Marshall.

The Jury, after a brief charge from the Court, retired at 2 o'clock, P. M. At the time we go to press they have not yet agreed.

A very interesting and beautiful phenomenon of this kind occurred last night. The first we observed of it was a few minutes after ten o'clock. It was a faint, short and imperfect rainbow, which was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect.

The rainbow was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect. It was a faint, short and imperfect rainbow, which was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect.

The rainbow was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect. It was a faint, short and imperfect rainbow, which was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect.

The rainbow was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect. It was a faint, short and imperfect rainbow, which was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect.

CONNECTICUT ELECTION.

The white Congressmen are all elected in Connecticut, also Governor and Legislature.

Philadelphia, 11th October, A. M., April 7. Private letters from Montgomery, Alabama, received at Washington and Philadelphia, state that General Scott had been killed in an attack on Vera Cruz.

General Worth had been wounded in the same attack. This is also believed in Washington and Philadelphia. We shall have later advice this evening as there was later news below New Orleans on the 15th.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

PHILADELPHIA THEATRE.

Private letters from Montgomery, Alabama, received at Washington and Philadelphia, state that General Scott had been killed in an attack on Vera Cruz.

General Worth had been wounded in the same attack. This is also believed in Washington and Philadelphia. We shall have later advice this evening as there was later news below New Orleans on the 15th.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

At the Boy House, Diamond Alley, on yesterday morning, Robert Stokes, aged 26 years, his funeral will start from the above house at 10 o'clock to-day afternoon.

WITNESS FOR THE POST.

Alleged to have been committed at the June Term of 1845; at which time Joseph Scott and Thos. G. McGiffin, Police Officers of Allegheny County, were convicted upon the testimony of the Defendant, of abetting and abetting the burglary of the house of Jesse Carothers.

John Fulton was convicted, at the March Term of 1845, of this burglary. From revelation made by Fulton after his conviction, Stubb was arrested by the Pittsburgh Police, and taken to the jail.

Scott and McGiffin were the principal witnesses for the Commonwealth, and Mayor Howard, of Pittsburgh—John Major, Clerk of Mayor Howard—E. W. Cook, High Constable of Allegheny County, and John Bissel were the principal witnesses for the Defense.

The whole affair is wrapped in mystery and gloom, and the most respectable and undoubted character conflicting in their testimony. The Prosecution was conducted by John D. Mahon and William B. DeLoach, and the Defense by Thomas M. Marshall.

The Jury, after a brief charge from the Court, retired at 2 o'clock, P. M. At the time we go to press they have not yet agreed.

A very interesting and beautiful phenomenon of this kind occurred last night. The first we observed of it was a few minutes after ten o'clock. It was a faint, short and imperfect rainbow, which was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect.

The rainbow was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect. It was a faint, short and imperfect rainbow, which was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect.

The rainbow was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect. It was a faint, short and imperfect rainbow, which was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect.

The rainbow was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect. It was a faint, short and imperfect rainbow, which was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect.

WITNESS FOR THE POST.

Alleged to have been committed at the June Term of 1845; at which time Joseph Scott and Thos. G. McGiffin, Police Officers of Allegheny County, were convicted upon the testimony of the Defendant, of abetting and abetting the burglary of the house of Jesse Carothers.

John Fulton was convicted, at the March Term of 1845, of this burglary. From revelation made by Fulton after his conviction, Stubb was arrested by the Pittsburgh Police, and taken to the jail.

Scott and McGiffin were the principal witnesses for the Commonwealth, and Mayor Howard, of Pittsburgh—John Major, Clerk of Mayor Howard—E. W. Cook, High Constable of Allegheny County, and John Bissel were the principal witnesses for the Defense.

The whole affair is wrapped in mystery and gloom, and the most respectable and undoubted character conflicting in their testimony. The Prosecution was conducted by John D. Mahon and William B. DeLoach, and the Defense by Thomas M. Marshall.

The Jury, after a brief charge from the Court, retired at 2 o'clock, P. M. At the time we go to press they have not yet agreed.

A very interesting and beautiful phenomenon of this kind occurred last night. The first we observed of it was a few minutes after ten o'clock. It was a faint, short and imperfect rainbow, which was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect.

The rainbow was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect. It was a faint, short and imperfect rainbow, which was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect.

The rainbow was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect. It was a faint, short and imperfect rainbow, which was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect.

The rainbow was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect. It was a faint, short and imperfect rainbow, which was seen in the sky, and which was very faint and imperfect.