

The Morning Post.

L. HARPER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. PUBLISHED DAILY, TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 15, 1847.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION. FOR GOVERNOR. FRANCIS R. SHUNK.

FOR GOVERNOR. FRANCIS R. SHUNK. OF ALLEGANY COUNTY. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. H. O. BROWN.

PENNSYLVANIA CANAL. COLLECTOR'S OFFICE. PITTSBURGH, APRIL 10, 1847.

DEBATED SAYINGS. We have no doubt of the immortality of the reply of Old Rough and Ready, as delivered by the gallant Commodore to the late Admiral Sir George Cockburn.

FROM THE FIRST PENNSYLVANIA REGIMENT. We publish below an extract of a letter to the Washington Union, written from the 1st Regt. of the 1st Pennsylvania Regiment.

PAROLE. A man who had been taken prisoner by the British, and who had been held in a prison for some time, was allowed to go on parole.

STREET TREES. We wish to say a few words more about planting street trees. They should not be crowded too closely together.

DEBATE. The Editor of the Gazette, and also a correspondent of that paper, suggest that Mr. Mowatt should be induced to give his views on the subject of giving an entertainment of readings from the most distinguished dramatic poets.

The Allegany Bridge.

In accordance with a rule we have adopted, to let all sides be heard in questions that concern the public, we freely give place to the following communication.

For the Morning Post. The Editor has published a long article complaining of the Managers of the Old Allegany Bridge, for declining their custom as a party passenger.
