VALUABLE REAL ESTATE. VALUABLE THEAL ESTATE. THE undersigned offer a portion of 70 acres of ground in, above, and below Birthingfram, ex-tending to near the Bridge, laid out into about 600 Lors of 24 by 100 feet to an acre. The situations comprise some of the handsomest around the city for RESIDENCES, and having an extensive front on the river so convenient to the city steam boat land-ing, the most advantageous to MANUACTORES. Those contemplating engaging in manufacturing will find it to their perminent interest follocate their works here. Bedfer the other advantages of its po-sition, we have, and ever will have, Coal of the best quality at a much lower prior than any other place that can now be obtained some fit to city, and a rail-road is now being erected near us, connecting with rond is now being erected near us, conne extensive mines. There are also several extensive mines. Increate also several stratt the der this property, making an aggregate of 35 feet of coal so far as explored; which has been proven valu-able by the working of similar mines in this vicinity. Those purchasing for investment have every garaanty of lucrativeness. Although its position and re sources render it intrinsically and incomparably more valuable than almost any other property around more valuable than almost any other property around the city, yet from the fact of circumstances having until lately prevented its being opened out for sales and improvement, the present price is 60 to 100 per ct. lower; there is therefore large scope for future advance in value, which is rapidly and permanently secured, not only by the improvement and extension of the city, but the immediate neighborhood where some fundred houses have been built the patt year, and we have such information as to warrant us in stating that the number will be greatly increased this year. The great increase also of business of the country generally must require a proportionate im-crease in the number of manufactories of every des-cription. These, together with the different public ription. These, together with the different publ nprovements now being urged forward must insure this property a large and rapid advance in value. If application is made previous to breaking of the plans by sale of single lots, we would prefer to sel-ling, that capitalists would take an interest of oneourth or one-balf in one of the tracts, and erect manats, for which purpose any ulactories and im

Birmingham, April 14th, 1847. GT We can offer great inducements to those pur-chasing for improvement, as we can furnish such persons, Brick and the principal materials for build-ing much lower than any other place around the city. an14.3td&w1t.
