Weekly Review of the Market.

OFFICE OF THE POST,
FRIDAY MORNING, May 7, 1847.

During the past week a very heavy business has been transacted in our city. Several of our oldest and most intelligent merchants inform us that they have never witnessed a more prosperous season for business men. There has been very little fluctuation in prices. Country merchants purchase freely, and generally pay the cash. The only drawback to business at present, is the difficulty experienced in shipping to the east. The rivers still continue in pretty good order for navigation.

GREAT ITALIAN REMEDY.

PHILADELPHIA, April 26, 1846.

Being afflicted for some 8 years with that most distressing disease, the asthma, and for the last 3 years much of the time confined to my room, and at several different times my life was despaired of; I concluded to obtain some of Mazoni's Sicilian Syrup, whtch was recommended to me by a friend from New York, who stated that it had cured some of the most inveterate cases known to the medical profession. Suffice it to say, that, after using the above medicine for about 4 weeks, I was entirely relieved, and I believe radically cured. Yours with respect,

OLIVER W. OWEN,
