CLOTHING! CLOTHING!! CLOTHING!!!

The Three Big Prizes in the Western World!!!

150,000 WELL SELECTED GARMENTS

NOW made and ready to be offered on the most liberal terms to my old customers and the public generally. The Proprietor of the far famed and extensive establishment, has now, after returning from the Eastern cities, at much trouble and expense, just completed his fall and winter arrangements to supply his thousands of customers with one of the most desirable stocks of Clothing that has ever been offered in this or any other market west of the mountains. For neatness in style and workmanship, combined with the very low price which they will be sold for, must certainly render the old unrivalled Three Big Doors one of the greatest attractions of the western country. It is gratifying to me to be able to announce to my numerous friends and the public generally, that notwithstanding the extraordinary efforts which I have made to meet the many calls in my line, it is with difficulty I can keep time with the constant rush that is made on this popular establishment. It is a well established fact, that my sales are nearly three times larger than any other house in the trade, and this being the case on the amount sold, I can afford to sell at much less profit than others could possibly think of doing if they wished to cover competition. I intend to make a clean sweep of all my present stock before the beginning of next year; coming to this conclusion, I will make it the interest of every man, who wants a cheap suit, to call and purchase at the Three Big Doors.

Dr. Swayne—Dear Sir: In justice to yourself and a duty I owe to suffering humanity, I cheerfully give my testimony, and declare to the world the most astonishing effects, and the great cure your COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY performed on me, under the most unfavorable circumstances. I was taken with a violent Cough, Spitting Blood, severe Pains in the Side and Breast, which seemed to break down and enfeeble my constitution so that my physician thought my case beyond the power of medicine, and my friends all gave me up to die; but thanks to you and the effects of your great discovery, I now feel myself a well man, and raised from a mere skeleton to as fleshy and healthy a man as I have been for years, and shall be pleased to give any information respecting my case, by calling at my residence, Mechanic street, third door below George street, Northern Liberties.

ASTHMA OF 11 YEARS' STANDING permanently cured by DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY, after all other remedies had failed.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 19, 1847.

Dr. SWAYNE: This may certify that eleven years ago last Fall, I was troubled with the Phthisic which increased upon me in defiance of all the remedies I could hear of, until the year 1839 '40, when I was obliged to leave my Native New England, for a mild climate, which had the effect to mitigate my sufferings for three or four years, after which the disease increased until last winter, my sufferings were intense, almost beyond endurance, being obliged to set up night after night, from inability to sleep in bed. In the Fall I felt the symptoms earlier than usual in the season, but hearing that Dr. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY, was a sovereign remedy for Diseases of the Lungs, I immediately commenced its use, and the result was almost immediate relief. For the last six weeks I have not felt the least symptoms of the Asthma, and feel confident that I am well of it, and that I have been cured by the above named medicine.

Yours respectfully, J. W. KNIGHT.

But beware the base impostors who would desecrate this tree;

The "Balsam of Wild Cherry!" Oh! beware of such a cheat!
If you would clean this vessel-craft, be healthy and be wise,
Take "Dr. Swayne's Wild Cherry," the original and best.

Read the most remarkable cure ever recorded!

Dr. Swayne—Dear Sir: I feel called by a sense of duty I owe to suffering humanity, to acknowledge my grateful thanks for the wonderful effects of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry on me, after suffering month after month with the most affecting of all diseases, Consumption. The first symptoms were a very heavy cold which settled on my lungs, which gradually grew worse, with profuse night sweats, a hacking cough, spitting blood, with great debility: My constitution seemed broken down, and nervous system very much impaired. I went to Philadelphia, was treated there by physicians of the highest standing, but received no benefit whatever from them, but gradually grew worse, until my physicians, as well as myself, gave up all hopes of recovery, and I felt like one who is about to pass through the Valley of the Shadow of Death. At this "awful juncture" I heard of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, of which I purchased six bottles, and by the time I had got my family entirely cured me, and I am now enjoying better health than I ever have before in my life. Physicians who witnessed my case are highly recommending it in similar cases, and I now feel myself a well man, and raised from a mere skeleton to as fleshy and healthy a man as I have been for years, and shall be pleased to give any information respecting my case, by calling at my residence, Mechanic street, third door below George street, Northern Liberties.

Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam.

IN the winter of 1832 and 1833, I was seized with spitting of blood, which continued with occasional relief till spring. I consulted several eminent physicians and took much medicine, but the relief obtained was only transient. In the spring I commenced taking the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam.—At this time I was much reduced. The day before I commenced with the Balsam, I raised about a half a pint of blood, was oppressed with great hoarseness and a bad cough. I commenced taking the balsam thinking if this failed I should resort to medicine no further. But it did not disappoint my expectation. All the unfavorable symptoms were immediately relieved, the cough cured, and I have not been troubled with spitting of blood since. I am now about to resume my trade, (that of a rope maker,) which I had given up without any expectation of returning to it.

DR. CHRISTIE'S GALVANIC RINGS AND MAGNETIC FLUID.

THIS remarkable invention, which has received the universal approbation of the medical profession of Great Britain, comprises an entirely new application of Galvanism, as a remedial agent, by means of which the ordinary Galvanic Batteries, Electric and Magnetic Machines, &c., are entirely dispensed with, and the mysterious power of Galvanism applied without any of the objections which are inseparable from the general mode now in use. The strong doses, and irregular intervals, in which Galvanism is applied by the Machines, has been pronounced, after a fair and impartial trial, to be decidedly injurious, and
