THE TWO BLEDS. BY SAMUEL LOVER, ENQ. A bright bird lived in a golden cage, So gently tended by groom and page; And a wild bird came her pomp to see And suid, " I wish I could live with thee For thou canst sing And plume thy wing, While dainty fare Thy slaves prepare." ild bird came her pomp to see,

And said, "I wish I could live like thee!" Then came from the cage a plaintive voice, Which bade the wild bird to rejoice; For "I'd give my golden cage," said she, "For thy humble perch on the wild wood tree
