GREAT ITALIAN REMEDY.

PHILADELPHIA, April 26, 1846.

Being afflicted for some 8 years with that most distressing disease, the asthma, and for the last 3 years much of the time confined to my room, and at several different times my life was despaired of; I concluded to obtain some of Mazoni's Sicilian Syrup, which was recommended to me by a friend from New York, who stated that it had cured some of the most inveterate cases known to the medical profession. Suffice it to say, that, after using the above medicine for about 4 weeks, I was entirely relieved, and I believe radically cured. Yours with respect,

OLIVER W. OWEN,

☞ WHOOPING COUGH.—Messrs Editors—I observed some time ago a communication over the signature for "A Parent," stating that Dr. Jayne's Indian Expectorant had been the means of saving the lives of three of his children, who were suffering severely with whooping cough; and having, but a short time before, lost one of my children by the same disease, and in hourly expectation of its death, I was induced to purchase a bottle of it, and commenced using it according to the directions—and to the surprise of all it began to mend in fifteen minutes after we commenced using it, and the child has now completely recovered.

I have no acquaintance with Dr. Jayne, but I hereby return him a husband's and a father's grateful acknowledgments.

J. L. SIMPKINS.

Jayne's Hair Tonic.—We commend to the attention of those desirous of restoring their hair or improving its beauty, to this elegant preparation We hear it every where highly spoken of, and especially by all who have made use of it, as greatly efficacious in stimulating the growth of the hair, and preventing and curing many affections of the skin. Its virtues are amply and sufficiently proved.—N. Y. Sun.

OLD COUNTRYMEN

Read and Judge for Yourselves!

A LONDON Letter in the Boston Traveller, o. the 18th May, says:

"Every person who can get money enough to leave the country is doing so. All the ships bound to the United States or Canada, are crowded. Any price is paid for a passage across the Atlantic; and too often the crowds of suffering Irish embark in frail ships, which prove their coffins. The recent dreadful shipwreck of the Exmouth is a case in point. She had two hundred and fifty emigrants, was only 320 tons burthen, and not fit for any voyage. The consequence was, she was lost in the gale of the 27th, a terrific gale, which your correspondent witnessed, all on board with the exception of three persons perished. When parties in America send money to their friends in Ireland to pay for their passage to the United States, they should always go to the well known house of Messrs. Harnden & Co., at New York or Boston, who not only have kind and faithful agents at Liverpool, and the seaports of Ireland, but they always give emigrants a passage in first class American packet ships, where they are properly accommodated, and if sick or short of provisions, they are kindly attended to."

Why will you be Sick!

MARION C. HOUSE, S. C., April 10th, 1847.

DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: It was some time before the people here would try your Medicines, but after they found out their real virtues, I sold out your EXPECTORANT and ALTERATIVE, and could have sold several dozen more of directly, and could have sold several dozen more of each since they gave out. Your SANATIVE PILLS are rising very high in the estimation of the people, and I shall be out of them in a few days. Several persons here speak well of the HAIR TONIC.—There is a young man in this neighborhood, who has been reduced to his bed by Scorfula; his physician told me that he must die; I told him that I thought that JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE would help him. He said, "if all the medicines in the world would not save him!" I think, said I, Docter, if you are done with him, I will try him. His reply was, "if you can cure him the medicine is worth a fortune." I sent the sick man a bottle of your Alterative, which he took, and in one month was able to visit his neighbors. The medicine, however, gave out before he was entirely well. I wish you, therefore, to send me more as soon as possible. I also gave the Alterative in a case of Cancer, with great success. In short, although I thought very little of your articles at first, I now think, like I heard an old Methodist Preacher say the other day, publicly, that your's were the "best medicines in the world."

Respectfully, yours,
