The Allorating Post. L. HARPER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. PITTSBURGH: WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 30, 1847. DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS. FOR GOVERNOR FRANCIS R. SHUNK, OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER MORRIS LONGSTRETH. OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY. One of our exchanges says, that "not far from shows, too, that the people have not exhausted their resources in new purchases, but have paid their resources in new purchases, but have paid up their debts, and have an idle surplus. So if a merchant at any point has taken 1000 bushels of females employed in the various factories and merchant at any point has taken 1000 bushels of manufactures of straw hats, stocks, &c. About wheat from his various customers at 100 cents,

40,000 females are thus annually employed." This and sold it in New York for 175 cents, making 25 is an average of about $2,40°a week, for each female thus employed. With strict economy, therefore, each female averaging this amount, would probably be able to save, of her hard earnings, 50 cents profit over all charges, there will be $250 sales Michigan at $6,93. The amount must necessarily be very limited.

And here another thought arises, originating it this subject. Of course it is only the children of the poorer classes of our citizens who are thus required to labor to support themselves. Unless in their employment; and a chance for more of the enjoyments of life. They have not enough of these; and while so many others possess them, they cannot be content. Hence there are presented incentives to dishonesty and vice, which are unfortunately frequent and strong-too potent for a large number of those thus situated :-- they venture upon the unhallowed path; and disgrace and

Domestic Exchanges. Only a few days since we copied a paragraph from the New York Journal of Commerce, which we thought required a word of comment; and in the number for Saturday last, we find the following, which needs no comment. It is on the subject of domestic exchanges: "The country is now in a singular position in relation to domestic exchanges. Not only are bills on England at a discount, but bills on New York are at a discount all over the West and South.—
