LOCAL MATTERS. THE EXPERIMENTS IN THE ODEON .- On Friday evening, agreeable to announcement, Mr. Gihon appeared upon the stage, with his subject, Miss Martha; he soon threw her into the Mesmeric state, and then asked for the appointment of a committee, Prof. Sec. his, and two others, were se lected. The eyes of the ladgewere bandaged with gloves, raw cotton and a white handkerchief, and over all this was spread a black muslin veit.

After some little conversation, the experiments commenced. A medallion of a peculiar kind was weight in either article will be paid for. To be delivered at the respective navy yards, as follows:

At Brooklyn, N. Y.....1,800......1,600
At Gusport, Va......1,800......1,600 elevation equal with her eye; she placed it upon the forehead, and after some little time described it 4,800 accurately. A hand bill was handed to her; upon 5,400 which she read a few of the largest words. Articles were held up in the addience, she described most of them well, though in some cases she paritally failed.

The audience were all satisfied, except those few persons to be found in every community, who will not believe the evidence of their own senses, when it conflicts with the teachings of the mammas.—
One or two of the committee, determined to be game to the last, asserted that she removed the bandage; but Prof. Stevens announced that it was not removed, and could not have been without being discovered. The veil was then submitted to inspection. It was the question, "Could the lady see, through it;" for it was evident that it had not been removed. Several persons tested it and came to the conclusion that it, without bandage, would be sufficient to blind the eyes of any person.
