

The Morning Post

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 14, 1847. DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS. FRANCIS R. SHUNK, FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER.

The Federalists—The War.

All the papers in our country, which support Democratic measures, and all the active members of the Democratic party, have assumed, from the outset of the present war, to be in order to effect a speedy and honorable peace.

Operations of the New Tariff.

The commerce of the port of New York, for the last seven months, compared with the last 12 months, upon the adoption of the new tariff, exhibits, in a very striking degree, the beneficial effects of the enlarged policy introduced by the administration.

Another Letter.

The Federalists are determined that Gen. Taylor shall not touch anything; and the more they tell them, the more they like it. The Troy (N. Y.) Daily Post contains a letter from Gen. Taylor, in which he says that he will not touch anything.

Head-quarters Army or Occupation?

Dear Sir—It is with much pleasure I acknowledge the receipt of your most interesting letter of the 1st instant, and which you have so kindly and liberally expressed in your terms of my kind regards to you.

Head-quarters Army or Occupation?

Dear Sir—It is with much pleasure I acknowledge the receipt of your most interesting letter of the 1st instant, and which you have so kindly and liberally expressed in your terms of my kind regards to you.

'Aid and Comfort.'

We have had the following letter on hand, for publication, for some time past, and, though it will lose nothing of its interest by keeping, we conclude to give it to day. It is signed 'Aid and Comfort,' and is published in the Standard Democrat, (Ohio), and was written by one of the Volunteers now in Mexico.

Camp Vera Cruz, Mexico, April 21, 1847.

Dear Sir—Previous and subsequent to my leaving Ohio as a volunteer for Mexico, I have been able to see the treacherous course pursued by the whigs and abolitionists of Ohio on the war question.

Death of Mr. Dancy.

We learn by letters from Vera Cruz, that Mr. John Dancy, soldier to the Regt. Va. Volunteers, died at Vera Cruz on the 24th of June—American.

For the Morning Post.

Ma Hara—You will confer a favor, by publishing the following letter, addressed to our noble friend, Mr. Allen, Esq., from the Dublin Committee of Friends who have been engaged in the laudable cause of distributing the provisions for the relief of the Irish poor.

Respectful Friend.

I received yesterday your interesting letter, and was very sorry to hear that you were engaged in a bad cause, and that of arranging your affairs in a manner which would prevent your being able to do so.
