It is also said that Urrea is raising a large force with which to attack Tampico; and that the American commander there was making active reparations for defence. Three companies, which were intended to be transported to Vera Cruz, were detained at Tampi co, in view of the anticipated attack. Still Later. July 14th, 10h. P. M. An extra of the New Orleans Times of July 7th announces the arrival of the steamship Alabama, which sailed from Vera Cruz on the 2nd. The latest dates are from the city of Mexico to the 10th of June. Santa Anna, it is said, has demanded a forced oan of nine millions dollars, and is raising the noney at the point of the bayonet. A letter further states that the work of fortifying every approach to the capital was proceeding with v gor. There is no further news from Gen. Scott, ex-cept that he had abandoned Jalapa, and that it was in possession of the Guerillas.
