Human nature, left to itself, is a fierce and frightful thing; and the stories of savage life are nearly all of the same calibre, and all exhibit a dreadful love of revenge. About twenty years ago, a large encampment of Blackfeet and others had been formed in those prairies for the purpose of hunting. The warriors, however, growing tired of their peaceful occupation, resolved to make an incursion into the lands of the Assinaboins. They left into the lands of the Assinaboins. They left into the lands of the Assinaboins. hehind them the old men with the women and children. After a successful campaign, they turned their steps homewards, loaded with scalps and ther spoils; and on reaching the top of the ridge oked their camp, they gave note of their pproach by the usual shouts of victory. But no shout answered, and, on decending to their huts they found the whole of the inmates slaughtered. The Assinaboins had been there to take their re-

PRILADELPHIA, July 28, 3h. 30m. P. M. By the arrival of the James L. Day at New Oreans, we have received intelligence from Brazos Santiago to the 18th instant. At that time the Mexican forces at San Louis Potosi were variously estimated at 14,000, under the command of Gen. Yalencia, who was reported to be en route to join Santa Anna with a force of 9000. The troops under Gen. Wool were in good health

It is stated that Gen. Taylor has now connected, with his division of the army rations for 120 days; together with 800 wagons and 2000 mules - He was awaiting for the arrival of the Ohio and Indiana reinforcements under Cols. Brough and Gorman, with other detachments—the whole amounting to about 2900 men; when he would at once move forward upon San Luis Potosi. It is positively stated that Gen. Urrea was reales' son; and that treasonable correspondence had
