A Most Extraordinary Letter.

THE Rev. J. O. Gilbert, a Methodist Episcopal Preacher, writes to Dr. Jayne—Morristown, Ill. April 27, 1847. Dear Sir—I never but once used your medicines; it was as follows: I was at our country seat, and retired to bed about eleven o'clock, in good health, and fell asleep, but was soon awakened by extreme pain in one hand and arm. I succeeded in keeping my hand still about four o'clock. When I arose I found my hand badly swollen, or in a high state of inflammation. A small black spot on the back of my hand, about the size of a five cent piece. It soon rotted and came out to the bone. When I arose the pain was very severe, running into my head and over the whole system. By twelve o'clock my head and face were badly swollen. The glands of my throat swelled very much, and by this time every tooth in my head was more or less loose; two thirds of the skin of my mouth and lips peeled off; my sight quite efected; no physician near. I solicited my friends to take me home, (fifteen miles) but they were fearful I could not stand it, when T. F. Davenport, who kept the public house, requested me to go to his house. Chills, faintness and sickness was constantly increasing upon me; I had become almost insensible. As I rescued his house, his mother, alarmed at my appearance, met me at the stove with a spoonful of JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE, and requested the dose two or three times in the course of an hour, in which time the faintness, sickness and chills had principally left—a free perspiration was on the surface and the inflammation vastly abating. The third day I was able to ride home. The Rev. Dr. Plympton informed me the attack was one of the severest kind of Malignant Erysipelas, and that the use of your ALTERATIVE was the means of saving my life. Respectfully yours, &c.

JOSEPH O. GILBERT.
