THOUGHTS ON VARIOUS SUBJECTS. FROM DEAN SWIFT When a true genius appeareth in the world, you may know him by this infallible sign, that the I am ant to think that, in the day of judgment, there will be small allowance given to the wise for their want of morals, or to the ignorant for their want of faith, because both are without ex cuse. This renders the advantages equal of ignorance and knowledge. But some scruples in the wise, and some vices in the ignorant, will perhaps be forgiven, upon the strength of temptation to It is in disputes as in armies, where the weaker side setteth up false lights, and maketh a great numerous and strong than they really are. augll The Court of Death ! TITHIS Great and Magnificent Painting will be ex-THIS Great: and Magnificent Painting will be exhibited a few days and evenings in Pittsburgh, At PHIO HALL, commencing on Wednesday evening, Aug. 11. The Painting is 24 feet long, by 13 high, covering 312 square feet of canvass. There are 23 figures of the size of life. It is a work which, in its conception and execution, in the harmony of proportions, the beauty and naturalness of its figures, and the sublime moral of its combined impression, grows immensely upon the mind in proportion as it is studied. Dr. Cotton will give a brief descriptive Lecture, upon the painting, every evening. The se-
