Business Prospects.

Our oldest and most substantial bus Dear Sir-I have the pleasure to transmit c say that the past season was amongst the most prosperous that they ever witnessed in Pittsburgh. Managers of the Western Pennsylvania Hospital When we take into consideration the fact, that a little over two years ago, one third of the city was a smouldering heap of ruins, and the earnings and the first of these resolutions designed to convey to yourself, and Mrs. Denny, the grateful ac-knowledgements of the board for your munifi-cent donation of a suitable site for the proposed accumulations of years were in a moment swept away by the devouring element-we are struck. The attainment of this object, sir, has long been
