Mr. Dallas—The Gazette.—The War. The editor of the Gazette, in view of the recent speech of Mr. Dallas, in this city, has become thoroughly riled.

Mr. Dallas, in referring to the Mexican War, (after mentioning the causes which led to it) and to the position of Gen. Taylor as connected with it, he, therefore, as once suggested and recommended to the Executive, the occupation of a post on the Rio Grande.

The information heretofore received, as to the intentions of Mexico, and the measures she may adopt, does not enable the administration here to give you more explicit instructions in regard to your movements, than those which have been already forwarded to you.

Under date of August 6th, 1845, Gen. Taylor is told: "The amount and description of the force to be mustered into the service of the United States, is left to your determination; and of course to be regulated by circumstances."

From Corpus Christi, August 10th, 1845, he writes: "I have received intelligence of the preparatory steps taken by Mexico to invade the territory of the United States. I shall spare no exertions to meet such a probable chance in the relations between the two countries, and the additional force ordered to join me as announced in your communication of July 31st, will, I trust, amply suffice to meet such a contingency."

On the 20th of August, 1845, the Secretary writes thus, after repeating the circumstances formerly named, which were to be recognized as a declaration of hostilities: "I am sorry to hear that you are with such force, well equipped, and in a position to be ready to move at any moment."
