

Later from Vera Cruz!

Arrival of the Steamship Massachusetts... DEATH OF REUTZ, COL. BURNETT... The U. S. ship Massachusetts, Wood, in nineteen days from Vera Cruz, arrived at N. York on Saturday.

The Massachusetts left Vera Cruz on the 5th inst., bringing two or three days later than our expectations... The editor of the Diario has received a number of private letters to the latest dates which confirm the particulars of the battles given by the Mexican Journals.

Intelligence from Queretaro and other States shows the existence of a league or conspiracy between the departments of Mexico, for the purpose of resisting the Americans to the last extreme.

The disappearance of Gen. Valencia, as well as the existence of a league of the States, Queretaro was the center, and the arrival of Gen. Valencia, who some letters say had already professed himself a friend of the American cause.
