

INDIAN SUMMER MORNING.

A smoke from a thousand wigwags... Swags like a heavy curtain in the air...

For the Morning Post.

Mr. Estlin... I have noticed in sundry scientific lectures... the stereotyped change of the persecution and torture of Galileo...

Who framed

The Thabala, wild and wondrous song... It is not my intention to relate the incidents of this poem...

After storm to us, we coasted on

Immediate of the western and the east... Of earth, and air, and sea... Thymus under the light...

Will we believe

Spring from the wars like lightning... Will we believe... The wonders of the ocean...

Heaven had here

In waters from a deep black heavy cloud... What shall I say... Cause down... yet like a diamond...

Will we believe

Of will and sense and pleasure... Not a cloud... Will we believe... The waters... Heaven had here...

Will we believe

Of will and sense and pleasure... Not a cloud... Will we believe... The waters... Heaven had here...

For the Morning Post.

The present war with Mexico has induced me to read several very interesting books...
