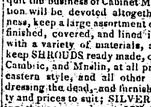
CORNER OF PENN AND ST. CLAIR STREETS, OPPOSITE THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, ENTRANCE ON PENN ST.,



PITTSBURGH CHAIR AND CABINET WAREHOUSE.
No. 92, Third Street, Pittsburgh.
THE subscribers would respectfully return their thanks to their friends and the public for the very liberal patronage bestowed since the commencement of the new firm, and would earnestly solicit a continuance of the same.

They would respectfully invite those who want to purchase anything in the furniture or chair line, to give them a call and examine their extensive stock now on hand, consisting of some of the most splendid Eastern and French patterns of Rosewood and Mahogany Furniture. Flattered by the very extensive patronage received in their business, they have, at considerable expense, made arrangements in New York, by which they will have the latest Eastern and French patterns forwarded monthly, thus giving the citizens of Pittsburgh an opportunity of patronizing home industry, and finding in their own city what they formerly would obtain only in the East. Having adopted the principle of small profits and quick sales, they will be able to sell at as low rates as any of the establishments in the Eastern Cities.

PORTER'S City Daguerrian Gallery, Philo Hall, Third st., Pittsburgh, Pa., and Franklin Buildings, Baltimore, Md.

Mr. Porter respectfully announces that he has at considerable expense fitted up apartments, and arranged light for Daguerreotyping purposes. His long experience in the art has enabled him to overcome many of the objections too common to pictures taken by this method.

Mr. Porter is aware that the impression has gone abroad owing to the many failures to produce good pictures, that clear and distinct Daguerreotypes cannot be made in Pittsburgh. His experiments, however, since he has opened his Gallery, fully warrant him in saying that as good pictures can be made here as elsewhere.

Ladies and gentlemen are invited to call and examine specimens.

Instructions given, and instruments and materials furnished upon reasonable terms.

All orders from country operators promptly attended to. nov25-tf

The advantages of this excellent House are peculiar to itself, as those travelling by Canal, particularly in inclement weather, or landing at midnight, have only to step from the packet into the beautifully furnished apartments, where they will be contented and comfortable. In addition to the extensive accommodations belonging to this house, the proprietor has at great expense refitted, renovated, and made such additions as will secure to him the promise of his kind patrons "Well call again."

The Bar, the Dining Room, the Chambers, and particularly the culinary departments, are so provided for that we challenge competition elsewhere.

The fare will be of the best the market affords, and the prices liberal.

The proprietor having been engaged in catering for guests for many years past in the east, feels assured that by strict attention to business with a watchful eye to the comforts of his guests, he will deserve a share of public patronage.

THE undersigned have had their attention called to a publication in a Pittsburgh paper, under the signature of a person calling himself Dayne. The Philadelphia and New York Pekin Tea Co., do not know said Dayne, having no such agent in Pittsburgh, and cannot therefore notice him, but will take occasion to inform the Merchants of Western Pennsylvania, that their Teas may be found in various places in that region, and that their authorized agent, Mr. J. R. Stockdale, will call upon them with samples of packed Teas, superior to any ever offered at the same price in the Western Country.

PULMONARY BALSAM—Messrs. Reed & Cutter: I feel it a duty I owe to my fellow creatures to state something more respecting your Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. Since I first used the Balsam, about eleven years ago; the happy effect of which I then gave an account of, I have had several complaints and attacks at my lungs, one a few days since, and in every instance I have used the Balsam alone with complete and perfect success. It has effected relief and cure within a very few days. It is certainly a safe medicine. I do not know that it will cure a fixed consumption, but I believe it will in many cases, a preventative, and preventation is better than cure. I do therefore, for the love of my fellow-men, earnestly recommend the use of this Balsam, in all pulmonary complaints. I am confident that it has been the means of preserving my life to this day.
