Jour Boru, Esq., was called to the Chair, and L. A. Clark Esq., of the Telegraph, appointed Secretary.

The friends of temperance generally, in Alless of the different townships particularly, are respected back recommendations of the different townships particularly, are respected by invited to meet in Convention, on TUESDAY, the 7th of December, at 20°clock, P. M., in Temperance Hall, Pittsburgh, to consider what action should be taken in the present interesting crisis of the Temperance Reformation. The importance of this convention—is apparent, from the fact that the expressed will of the voters of this convention—is apparent, from the fact that territory which we had already conquered; as an act of mercy to an oppressed people, who, under the benign influences of a government like ours, would soon be taught to know and to value their would soon be taught to the gallant officers and brave soldiers of our the desiston of the United States has ever been elected without to the luties of his new through the table of the nature of the month to the stable of the country are one, and are hereby tendered, worthy citizens of our state.
