20 IV.

Wasset in the crown of a stranger."

Before Herodotus composed his bistory of Greece, and centuries before the rest of western Europe emerged from the gloom of barbarism, the Milesians, (who had their origin from the Scythians, and their letters, arts and sciences from the Egyptians,) were an enlightened nation : and shone strangers; constant in their love; hating also,— of Niall the Great, which had swayed Ireland since seldom forgiving; too credulous; greedy of glory; the reign of that monarch, in the fourth century, and quick to resent injuries and insults." I might was transferred, A. D. 1002, to the house of Heber. go on with quotations; but these will suffice to and Brian was declared monarch of the whole is.

into the interesting field of ancient Irish literature his plans, relating to the government of that country is in for having lent too ready a faculty to it, without the country men will be required at the President's and science, previous to the introduction of Christry; and for the public welfare. Rigorous laws, careful examination into the objects of the war. As hands in I speak for myself and my constituents tianity. This may be a theme for a future article. Rapidly passing over centuries, when this isle Danes restore all the church property, and rebuild of the sea shone refulgent, in the world's the churches and monasteries they had destroyed; history," I arrive at the period (the fifth he re-established the universities and public schools, Ireland, with full apostolic power, as archbishop or ed; he encouraged professors of all the sciences, missionary commenced his labor, Ireland was prepared to receive the religion of Christ; as many placed garrisons for the public safety; the roads converts had been made by the brave pioneers who opened the way for him; and it is, besides, an incommenced his labor, Ireland was prepared to receive the religion of Christ; as many placed garrisons for the public safety; the roads who have when not whether those Whigs and Corwin as the spokesmen of the white patriots of the desendants of the white patriots of the Whig patriots of the American revolution, tamely and sitently yield by the Constitution of our country, to be violated and thempted upon by a President who possesses ries to the persons and property of our citizenes.

stone; and the consecrated ministers of God were
stone; and the consecrated ministers of God were glorious to Brian, who gained a complete victory truth; and they were therefore unwearied in their cover the enemy. The Danes lost 13,000 men and ors of the north, were of the same Gothic race of those who had seized the fairest portions of Engthose was broken, and forever lost in Ireland, yet the control of the United States. those who had seized the fairest portions of England; and who, at a later period, raveged the coasts of Europe, checking the progress of Charlemagne, in the conquest of the Saxons. In France, they were called Normans, in England Ostmans, or Danas; in Ireland and Scotland they were known by the name of "Locklannings," which signifies powerful on sea. As in my sketch of Alfred, I man of "Locklannings," which signifies shall bere designate them by the popular name of shall bere designate them by the popular name of Danes.

The same feeling of hatred to the Democratic lion of the United States.

The same same feeling of hatred to the Democratic lion of the United States.

The same men refused to pass a vote of thanks their course would justify the belief to Gen. Taylor and our brave and gallant country, they have been at all tired with their course would justify the belief to Gen. Taylor and our brave and gallant country, they have been at all tired with the preaders of the same of this kind, will recollect that their sympathies are with Mexico.

The bodies of the monarch and literary ability; and their course would justify the belief to Gen. Taylor and our brave and gallant country, they have been at all tired with the preaders of the same of this kind, will recollect that their sympathies are with Mexico.

The same men refused to pass a vote of thanks there of the Celts, was among the slain. Join of the United States.

The same men refused to pass a vote of thanks there of the clust with the their visit of the their than their course would justify the belief to Gen. Taylor and our brave and gallant country, when it is should be so, is a matter unaccountable for the same with Mexico.

A large convention of the Whigs of Greene country, as fair a general statement of Whigs in Geauga country, and hot of the People.

At a convention of the Whigs of Greene country, as practicable; and trust that our readers, if they have been at all tired with the preaders of this kind, will recollect that there is they have been at al its, then the wars of another Baran, and another Czontany! Athens and Lacedmmon; but, unfortunately for the same of our ancestors, they had no Thucydides THE MORNING POST oath, rather than vote according to the dictates of They are fighting in desence of their country."— to record, in immortal periods, the achievements. The MORNING POST oath, rather than vote according to the dictates of They are fighting in desence of their country."— his conscious to the according to the dictates of They are fighting in desence of their country."— his conscious to the dictates of They are fighting in desence of their country."— his conscious to the dictates of the aggressors in Europe or Asia ever to record, in immortal periods, the achievements of now forgotten times; to place before the eye of succeeding generations, in their true light, the heroic valor, the statesmanship and the patriotism of an ALPED; or, the equal heroism, wisdom and devotion to his country of BRIAN BORDINAS. In glancing rapidly over the chronicles of the Dock, and 440 N. Fourth street—is our only aucontests between the Celts and the Danes which thorised agent in Philadelphia. preceded the days of the illustrious Barase I will point to some acts of the Danes, which will show what cause the Irish had to execuate them, as in human monsters. At one time they pillaged the the eye; and beneath the surface of the soil, is to be found, in the greatest quantities, most of the susful metals; together with coal, alabaster, and marble;—the finny tribes rejoice in its lovely says Camden, "are warlike, witty, and remarkable for the just proportion of their limbs; and they possess a brave and elevated mind. Life is not regarded in their propensities; labor, cold, and hungar, are overlooked; their possessons are strong hungar, are everlooked; their possessons are strong hungar, are everlooked; their possessons are strong hungar, are everlooked; their possessons are strong battles became the renewed theme of the Celtic possesson are strong and they are not laborated in the research of the public enemy. Heroic acts and bloody hungar, are everlooked; their possessons are strong and they are hereigned to be the public enemy. Heroic acts and bloody with a view to conquest; and that they are hereigned to be the public enemy. He was selected to be the possesson are strong and they are hereigned to be the public enemy. He was selected to be the public enemy. He was selected to be the possesson and they are hereigned to be the public enemy. He was selected to be the propertion of their limbs; and they the coasts of Ireland, filling every barbor with distinctly avowed, but in which pretences, after-the distinctly avowed, but in which pretent avoi suitable to the times, were enacted. He made the nissionary commenced his labor, Ireland was pre- es were raised in every direction, in which he Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the -Mr. Ewing, Representative from Tennessee. over the island. The erection of churches, mon- lutes celleberrimus." His court was one of the tion an act, which he believed to be wrong. asteries, and abbeys, improved the architectural most brilliant in Europe : for there, beauty, valor, Mr. Clay has also said, in alluding to the oppotaste of the Irish; and that these were very nu virtue and intelligence, received their due homage. sition of the Federal party to the war of 1812-taste of the frish; and that these were very numerous, may be inferred from the fact, that there were more than three hundred bishoprics established in the lifetime of St. Patrick alone. The sixth, seventh, and eighth centuries, form the most prosperous epoch in the history of the country. Christianity produced no change in the fundamental constitution of the State. Men learned thereby to command and obey, by the purest principles of equality and justice; of which God was the source and object; as he was, to During the reign of Hugh Vistowards the close and object; as he was, to easily the reign of Hugh Vistowards the close and object; as he was, to easily the reign of Hugh Vistowards the close and object; as he was, to easily the reign of Hugh Vistowards the close and object; as he was, to easily the reign of Hugh Vistowards the close and object; as he was, to easily the fact of the federal party to the war of 1812—and of strengthening the slave power,—and of strengthening the slave power,—bis first act was A GROSS OUTRAGE Upon that the view of extending largety and of strengthening the slave power,—and of strengthening the slave power,—bis first act was A GROSS OUTRAGE Upon that the constitution, against the Constitution, against the Constitution, against the Union, and against Free-like the supposed by Mr. All the supposed by

But why should I go into a history of piratical with the Danes; who were at that time considergenerations, of pillagings, and of plunder?

Tho

with the Danes; who were at that time considerin the world; and he defeated depredations, of pillagings, and of plunder?

Tho

with the Danes; who were at that time considerin the world; and he defeated depredations, of pillagings, and of plunder?

Tho

with the Danes; who were at that time considerin the world; and he defeated depredations, of pillagings, and of plunder?

Tho

unreasonable, that many more among the Whigs

Union, the Constitution, and the free States."

the records of those dark and terrible times show throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of those dark and terrible times show throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of those dark and terrible times show throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of those dark and terrible times show throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of those dark and terrible times show throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of those dark and terrible times show throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of those dark and terrible times show throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of those dark and terrible times show throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of the Sound that difficulty could not occur—and a Democratic meeting held at that place, on the let each party offer their best speakers, and their of the Constitution, and the recorded it is constitution, and the record the Board.

The records of the Sound throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of the Sound throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of the Sound throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of the Sound throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of the Sound throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of the Sound throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of the Sound throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of the Sound throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of the Sound throw of the Northmen, in the battle of Clontarf.

The records of the Sound throw of the Northmen throw of the Northm other the heroic endurance and devotion of the patriot; yet, after the lapse of nearly ten centuries, they afford but little interest, and less instruction, they afford but little interest, and less instruction, Eight centuries have passed away, and what is of his countrymen, the names of patriots who speak of the present—of affliction—of poverty—ter, we do not doubt. He has had abundant opbe forced upon us, or if tt shall be acquired by the might else have ranked with Epaminondas or of tyranny! And why recall the glories of the portunities offered him, for knowing the true mogovernment, in any form, or under any pretext; we

L HARPER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. PITTSBURGH: TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 7, 1847. E. W. CARR, United States Newspaper much more worthy of a place in a State prison, archbishop, with nine hundred monks; at another war of 1812, and that of the Whige at this day, intration and its friends in sustaining it. Many Gazette. by Adrianus Junius, as speaking of its own advantages: "I am that toy Ierne, formerly so called by the Greeks, and well known to the mariners of Jason's ship. To me, God, the benign source of things created, has given the same privilege as to Greeks, and most of the magnificence, more of the beauties, and most of the magnificence, more of the beauties, and most of the rickes of Nature, have been lavished by the Author of all good upon the favored island. Its harbors are commandated and an opposite the magnificence, more of the beauties, and most of the rickes of Nature, have been lavished by the Author of all good upon the favored island. Its harbors are commandated and proposes of the war ware in the same privilege as to find fathers," Education of war, yet, when war was cite a few of these:

Mr. Clay's Speech--No. 4

"Talk of this wor as we may, shout, rejoice, and ith work is one which is well deserving of support.

"Talk of this wor as we may, shout, rejoice, and it is high work is one which is well deserving of support.

"Talk of this wor as we may, shout, rejoice, and it is necessary, and it is light wor did in, the defence of the citizen, should be in the counting room the benevolent designs of the correspondence of Mr. Trist.

The Whigs condenn the war, because the work was executed, and of submitty and it is high war is unjust."

"While the American President acknowledge—ments to those who have so kindly assisted work in the benevolent designs of the citizen, it is still a swor of injustic, of while the American President case, now, with a war is unjust."

"Alk of this wor as we may, shout, rejoice, and it.

"Talk of this wor as we may, shout, rejoice, and it is high work is one which is well deserving of support.

"The while the American President acknowledge—ments to those who have so kindly as were into the war in unjust."

"And the filis wor as we may, shout, rejoice, and it is light wor it is founders, and it is high work is one which is sell as twor of injustice, of While the American President acknowledge—with work was s streams; its air is healthful and serene; its sought to disgrace the administration of Mr. That the present war did not begin by the act of their acts." Good, an English priest, writing in the sixteenth century, says, "They are a nation to be praised for their strength, and particularly for the activity of their bodies; and for agreeatness of soul: they are witty and warlike, prodigal of life, hardy in bearing fatigues, cold, and hunger; prone to loose pleasures; constant in their love; hating also,— of Niall the Great, which had swared Ireland since.

interests of our country; and union with the levied by him.) ascended the throne of Munster, the first a curse wound a most ardent in all named Borsimhs, (on account of a peculiar tax. interests of our country; and union with the levied by him.) ascended the throne of Munster, the second of defence, and if the activity of their bodies; and for agreeatness.

A. D. 978.

Barar, on assuming the crown, defenced and applands on the strength and particularly for the activity of their bodies; and for agreeatness of our country; and union with the levied by him.) ascended the throne of Munster, incompant to defence, and if they are weak minded ruler. We are under the hones of managed at reading once knew, that they sought to dissuade their bey have nade a MANLY RESISTANCE TO GOOD, they are to be honored and applands on the strength and particularly from the activity of their bodies; and for agreeatness.

Barar, on assuming the crown, defenced war a gainst the Danes. In the battle of Glenananin, the slew 6000 of the enemy, and tax they are weak minded ruler. We are under the hones of Munster, in the factor of the war-interior is of opinion that it is ujust, imposition; in the product of the consult of the consult of the consultations and infidels of France. He knows, or all files defence, and if they have nade a MANLY RESISTANCE TO Good, and hunger; and the cornelless of the consultations of the consul show the primitive character of a race, which cen- land. An assembly of all the bishops and nobles, Federal party, during the war of 18121 Fat from New Ferki it is for having lent too ready a facility to it, without the day of final retribution the blood of our slaugh to a fair offset to this groundless boast, we might cite the course of the Whig authorities of Missal in the course of the Whig authorities of Missal in the course of the Whig authorities of Missal in the course of the Whig authorities of Missal in their power; and the constant efforts of Whig politicians to impress the seals of the seals of contestible fact, which I may here repeat, that, in the people went confusion in names, and in order that the ge abborrence. They are certainly entitled to no command the real respect of the meanest minion of Ireland were celebrated for their knowledge, in nealogies of families should be more carefully pre- word of praise or of commendation. Those who, that shouls in his train?"—Mr. Gentry, Representa many of the arts and sciences; and thus prepared, served, it was decreed by Brian, that all branches in Congress, voted to sustain the war, did so (ac- The whig governor, Bebb, of Ohio, in his in- is the case in a war like THAT IN WHICH WE ARE MY. J. K. Moorhead in the chair. by education, to receive the glorious truths of im of his people should adopt particular surnames.— cording to Mr. Clay's statements) believing that augustal address asks:—"Where is the man who mortality and happiness beyond the grave, as pro His own family prefixed O to their name, and thus they were uttering to the world a ris. They are loss not know and feel that this Mexican war is a mortslity and happiness beyond the grave, as promortslity and thus formed, for we were not president to the world a little formed, for we were not president to more promored the new promorts and thus formed, for we were not president to more promored to the world a little formed, for we were not president to more promored to the world a little formed, for we were not president to more promored to the world a little formed, for we were not president to more promored to the world a little formed, for we were not president to more promored to the world a little formed, for we were not president to more promored to the world a little formed, for we were not president to more promored to the world a little formed, for we were not president to more promored to the world a little formed, for we were not know and teel that this Mexican war is a more formed formed, for we were not know and Rome was introduced by the clergy; and colleges, guished as well for the greatness of his mind, as duty. Indeed, no man, worthy of the confidence ly, Mass., held at Lowell, on the 7th of October and seminaries of learning, were established all for his military exploits: "Princepe of animi vir- of the People, could ever allow himself to sanc- last, the following resolution was unanimously a me, BRIAN fought twenty-five pitched battles channel, is, therefore, the more difficult to account portunities offered him, for knowing the true mowill insist that there shall neither be slavery nor

| The Editorial Column, the name of James Doctars
| M. A. White, will be accommodated—which is more than we can say for the others. The driver might else have ranked with Epaminondas or Hannibal; with Wallace, or with Washington, are shorn of their glory, and seen but indistinctly, like the stars in a nebulæ. The wars of the Celta of Ireland, and the Saxons of England, against humiliation. The "emerald of Ireland, and the Saxons of England, against humiliation. The "emerald of Ireland, and the Saxons of England, against humiliation. The "emerald gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world "is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world "is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world "is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world "is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world "is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world "is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world "is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world "is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world "is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world "is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world "is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the western world "is now worn on the gem of the western world" is now worn on the gem of the will insist that there shall neither be slavery nor involuntary will insist that there shall neither be slavery nor involuntary involuntary involuntary involuntary will insist that there shall neither be slavery nor involuntary involuntary involuntary involuntary involuntary involuntary involuntary involuntary the fierce barbarians from the Cimbrian Chersonthe fierce barbarians from the Cimbrian Chersonthe most descendant of a Gothle pirate! Q for

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may have a warning to the people, in future, not the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may have expendent of the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may have a warning to the people, in future, not when the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may have constant the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may
have constant to the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may
have constant to the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may
have constant to the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may
have constant to the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may
have constant to the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may
have constant to the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may
have constant to the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may
have constant to the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may
have constant to the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may
have constant to the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may
have constant to the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may
have constant to the minds of our rules.

late Whig successes in some quarters; and it may have constant to the minds of the mind to place any reliance on the statements of Whig "We cannot say that we feel either pride or a di politicians. The man who can violate his officia upon this favored island. Its harbors are commodious, safe, and picturesque; its mountains, plains, and valleys, are fertile and charming to the eye; and beneath the surface of the soil, is to Forced at last by overstanding and in interest and firesides are invaded; victory tween "Whigs" of the present day, and the Fed. a Senator, I am not mistaken in that."—"You and purposes of the war were; that is, in a word, follows wave upon a stormy beach, so came the plains, and valleys, are fertile and charming to the eye; and beneath the surface of the soil, is to Forced at last by overstanding and in interest with the Fed. a Senator, I am not mistaken in that."—"You and purposes of the war were; that is, in a word, follows wave upon a stormy beach, so came the Whigs of 1812. We could then have some follows wave upon a stormy beach, so came the Whigs of 1847 are not identical in feelings, in neighbors—you must recal that army! Retract

And on another occasion—

Whigs of 1847 are not identical in feelings, in neighbors—you must recal that army! Retract

Courseless of the war were; that is, in a word, that the great object was acquisition or war.

Courseless of the war were; that is, in a word, that the great object was acquisition or war.

Courseless of the surface of the soil, is to Forced at last by overstanding the courseless of the war were; that is, in a word, that the great object was acquisition of 1812. We could then have some must call year army back! You must, unless you are that the great object was acquisition of 1812.

And on another occasion—

Courseless of the soil, is to store the duty of the present day, and the Fed. of the surface of the soil of the surface of the soil, is to store the surface of the soil of the surface of the soil of the surface of the soil of the surface of the surface of the soil of the surface of the soil of the surface of t marble;—the finny tribes rejoice in its lovely streams;—its air is healthful and serene;—its winters mild, and its summers delightful. Such is Ireland now—down-trodden, oppressed, christian Ireland;—and such was Ireland, when the limit reland;—and such was Ireland;—and such was Ire is Ireland, now—down-trodden, oppressed, christian Ireland;—and such was Ireland, when the south less they might, one day, make use of the ocean.

"Ames Black The Institute of the south was Ireland, when the south was Ireland, which was "commenced in the south of the Institute of the ocean.

In the boll of the Institute of the Sun. I was Investigated in their stead." "The ked orable Mr. Davis for the was Ireland was Ireland, was Ireland the south of the sout "The inhabitants of Ireland are tall and well made," says Petrus Lombardus; "and excel in hanting, horse racing, wrestling, and other like hanting, horse racing, wrestling, and other like exercises." According to Gratianus Lucius, the war of Ireland. Again of the war, far from being denied or controverted, what has no to their motives for the present war."

"The inhabitants of Ireland are tall and well made it is not necessary here to tell the stratagem of fatschood as to their motives for the present war."

"It [the war] was not voted for by any body; the meeting had been organized, and some business the meeting had been organized, and some business of the conquest of territory."

"It [the war] was not voted for by any body; the president's war!" "Merica" "He [the his country; and other like is none for the measure which opened it, But what excuse is found for the war itself?"—North what excuse is found for the war itself?"—North withheld the measure which opened it, but he was the general sentiment of the Federal party respecting the war of 1812, of which party excluded its without any vote at all." "He [the his country; and winning for himself, by unanished territory."

"It [the war] was not voted for by any body; the President's war!" "Merica" occupation of dispried territory. It is the President's war!" "Merica" occupation of dispried territory. It is the President's war!" "Merica" "All the recision of the meeting had been organized, and some business the recision of dispried territory. It is the President's war!" "Merica" "All the recision of the war itself or the conquest of territory. It is the President's war!" "Merica" "All the recision of the war itself or the conquest of territory. It is the President's war!" "Itself or the recision of the war of 1812, or which party is prosecuted territory. It is the President's war!" "Itself or the recision of the war of 1812, or which party is prosecuted for the recision of the war of 1812, or which party is prosecuted territory. It is the President's war!" "Itse exercises." According to Gratianus Lucius, they mous consent, the monarchy of Ireland. Again of the war, far from being denied or controverted, cution of such a war. I have no way left but to withhold the means to carry on that war." "We are the spires of churches arose towards Heaven, respectively." That of Greece, every year, at Tara. These exercises ligion and education flourished, and the Irish enconsisted of combats of gladiators, tournaments, joyed the sweets of peace and liberty! After the gentleman well knows, (or he has, from his adconstitutional in its origin. I hold it to be a war. races, on foot and on horseback, &c. "The Irish," death of this pious and excellent prince, the war of 1812, at every step of its pro-in their attachments; and in their quarrels implation of their attachments; and in their quarrels implated to continued eries of imbedility; and I pass them over to reach a period, when a Madison, by their continued eries of imbedility; act of Mr. Polk himself, in ordering an army to the commended him to his the commend cable: too credulous, greedy of glory,—they will hero, worthy of any age or nation, Baran, sur. truckling to France; hostility to the commercial march fato territory under the jurisdiction of Mex-different is the conduct of the Whig party of the Magistrate! I'll prove it destitute of any foun-for aid to any other than buman power, it must be present day, from that of the major part of the lationain truth!"—Mr. Culver, Representative from to the INFERNAL MACHINATIONS OF HELL-for primate of the whole country. Before this great so that literature began to flourish anew. Fortress and that Mexico is the injured party. Taking kion, and by a high handed usurpation of power." MENT."—Cincinnati Guzette.

Resolved, That the present war with Mexicoto gain the spoils, HAVE RESORTED TO THIS INcommenced by a most flagrant violation of the IQUITOUS SCHEME OF CONQUEST."

same spirit and under the auspices of men who,
to gain the spoils, HAVE RESORTED TO THIS INResolved, By the Stockholders of "That such a war of conquest, must be regarded that we have succeeded.

other the heroic endurance and devotion of the infinences; public schools and churches were eveto the inquiring mind. Heroes are mentioned by monastic annalists, but their names sound stranger ly on the ear. In wars that continue for centuries, with no great historian to chronicle the deeds of other times, with no great historian to chronicle the deeds of the reserved of his country men, the names of natriots who cannot at the country and the patriots. He has bed abundant on the forced upon us, or if it shall be acquired by the large to the patriots of the patriots. He has bed abundant on the patriots of the patriots of the patriots of the acquired by the large the act of the patriots. He has bed abundant on the patriots of the patriots of history," I arrive at the period (the hith he re-established the universities and piblic schools, obstacle in their power; and the constant entering with a constant entering with a good of white politicians, to impress the people with a good of white politicians, to impress the people with a good of white politicians, to impress the people with a good of white politicians, to impress the people with a good of white politicians, to impress the people with a good of white politicians, to impress the people with a good of white politicians, to impress the people with a good of the Uniting in UTTERING A BITTER CONDEM of Whig politicians, to impress the people with a belief, that their own government is in the wrong, and that Mexico is the injured party. Taking the Armerican revolution, and by a high handed usurpation of power."

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party, we know not whether those Whigs

Whig party, we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party, we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party, we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party, we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party we know not whether those Whigs

Messrs. Clay and Corwin as the spokesmen of the Whigs Party we know not whether the Whigs Party we know not whether the Whigs Party where the Messrs and after organizing, elected the following gentle men Directors:

Ment To Taking in UTTERING A BITTER CONDEM and after organizing, elected the following gentle men Directors:

John C. Plumer, Joseph Markle, George J.

Ashman, Alexander M. Hill, Thomas Bakewell, Ashman, Alexander M. Hill, Thomas Party and after organizing, elect perfidious, rascally attempt of demagogues at Pre been surrendered. Mr. R. then offered the annexed of the day. [Chicago Journal.

During the reign of Hugh VI stowards the close him, in the plain of Clontarf, two miles from the give us no reason for believing otherwise. A dis. Fexas, that it was unconstitutionally commenced as escaped convicts, and those who love to visit people into a contrary belief. We always prefer facts, in order to establish a point, rather than it in mind, that the third lecture of the regular of the regular per Express, at A. A. Mason & Co.'s 62 Market is deserving Institute, will be destructed, one of sup. Twilled Cashmeres.

passed by the meeting:

for Vice President.

favorably spoken of in saveral papers, as the Democratic candidate for Canal Commissioner. Mr Cisr of Cincinnati, estimates the present "To volunteer or vote a dollar to carry on the correctly determined. By this chart we are also human monsters. At one time they pillaged the In drawing a contrast between the conduct of the People, in relation to the present war, the cauwar, is moral treason against the God of Heaven, enabled, at a glance, to determine the precise numcelebrated abbey of Banchor, and slaughtered the the more violent Federalists, in relation to the see which led to it, and the motives of the admin and the rights of mankind."—Haverhill, (Mass.) ber of days from, any given day in one month, to any other day in any other month; and an easy like "a bright particular star," upon the brow of the Atlantic. That Ireland was the Ogygia of the ancients, will not admit of a doubt It was also known as Ierne; and in this name it is introduced.

Atlantic That Ireland was the Ogygia of the ancients, will not admit of a doubt It was also known as Ierne; and in this name it is introduced.

Atlantic That Ireland was the Ogygia of the ancients, will not admit of a doubt It was also known as Ierne; and in this name it is introduced.

Atlantic That Ireland was the Ogygia of the university, (which at that time, had been so tice to the subject. There were some of the old that the same spirit actuates the Whig party now, of American liberty, its impulse is TO JOIN THE given sum, is furnished. All the calculations appear to have been made with great care, and the returning their sincers and grateful acknowledge The open they plundered the rich church at Armagh; and we think Mr. Clay has altogether failed to do just high authorities in that party may be cited, to show the purchast of the university, (which at that time, had been so tice to the subject. There were some of the old that the same spirit actuates the Whig party now, of American liberty, its impulse is TO JOIN THE given sum, is furnished. All the calculations appear to have been made with great care, and the returning their sincers and grateful acknowledge
The plantic is in that party may be cited, to show the present of interest on any in weak. It was this that recommended him to his party. It was this that elected him. It has been not abandoned the hope that the Connellsville correctly said, that it is a curse upon a nation to have a weak-minded ruler. We are under the show the primitive character of a race, which centuries of oppression has not degenerated.

In the interesting field of ancient Irish literature into the government of that countrymen will be required at the President's proposing any obstacles to the prosecution of the prosecution of the prosecution of the interesting field of ancient Irish literature into the interesting field of ancient Irish literature into the since are reproachable at all, in congress that the Mexican Govier of the interesting field of ancient Irish literature into the interest matter into the bishops and nobles. Federal party, during the war of 18121 Fai from the interest matter into the bishops and nobles. Federal party, during the war of 18121 Fai from the interest matter into the interest matter into the bishops and nobles. Federal party, during the war of 18121 Fai from the search into the interest matter into the bishops and nobles. Federal party, during the war of 18121 Fai from the search into the bishops and nobles. Federal party, during the war of 18121 Fai from the search intoretic matter into the bishops and nobles. Federal party, during the war of 18121 Fai from the search intoretic matter intoreti same spirit and under the auspices of men who.

During the reign of Hugh VI, stowards the close of the sight century, the barbarians of the northof the eighth century, the barbarians of the northwho had been hitherto unknown to the Irish, made an incursion into the country; which was remarkable for its blood and slaughter. Towns were burnt, churches and monasteries were pillaged and destroyed; age and innocence fell upon the hearthtroyed; age and innocence fell upon the hearthtroyed; age and innocence fell upon the pears of God were the states and those who love to visit of the eighth century, the barbarians of the army was headed by the give us no reason for believing otherwise. A dis.

Texas: that it was unconstitutionally commenced as the state of the stroy, the barbarians of the northage monarch, and those who love to visit by the order of the President, to Gen. Taylor, to the A. A. MASON & Co.

The following gentlemen were unanimously the inim, in the plain of Clorator, two miles from the give us no reason for believing otherwise.

A dis.

The centre of the expenses already incurred.
Such military possession of iterritory in dispute to the wein the honor of their own country, and the state of the expenses already incurred.

The following gentlemen were unanimously
the wein the honor of their own country, and
the state of the expenses already incurred.

We have thus presented our readers with a few.

The following gentlemen were unanimously
among many hundreds of similar items of proof, the fill of the military possession of territory in dispute to the resident, to Gen. Taylor, to the wein the honor of their own country, and
the state of the expenses already incurred.

We have thus president, to Gen. Taylor, to the wein the honor of their own country, and the state of the expenses already incurred.

We have thus understood in the town the state of the president of the wein the bottle of the military possession of territory in dispute to the left by Malachi, ting of Mexit.

The following already the state of the bottle wein into the proof of man. The following, among other resolutions, was ested in the Railroad movements—the poor have

John A. Sample Esq., of Lycoming county, their desires.

RAILBOAD MERTINGS.—Yesterday was a stormy eminent medical gentlemen attending the Hospiday among the Railroad projectors. We never tal, and the the kind care and attention of those

THE OTHER COMPLET. In Philo Hall, in the to guard retr afternoon, the stockholders of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company, now the "Pitts." there is nothing put forth by it which is not business ident making; and is now being carried out in the Resolutions, which were adopted by the following dec? Resolved, By the Stockholders of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company, in General respectively paid in, after deducting from each hi

Thos. Bakewell, Joseph Pennock, J. Bissell, Jesse Carothers, J. K. Moorehead, F. Loren z.

Would it not be well to get up a public discussion tant facts? All our citizens feel interas much interest as the rich—and it is important that the facts should all be spread before the pubthe Allegheny bridge to Manchester and "intermediate ports." Persons who go in those run by its Editorial column, the name of James Buchan M. A. White, will be accommodated—which is TAKE NOTICE, that I have applied, by petition, enthusiastic. We shall notice it particularly to-

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE MERCY oath, rather than vote according to the dictates of his conscience; br who, on a matter of great national importance, can dare to conceal his real sentiments from the people, while, at the same time, he seeks to gain their confidence, and as time, he seeks to gain their confidence, and as the responsibility of acting for them, is

They are fighting in defence of their country."—

"None of the aggressors in Europe or Asia ever resorted to justificatory reasons, which were so false and hypocritical, as those alleged for our aggress. Rate Table, for Every Day in the Year: for committee of the Brotherhood of St. Joseph, to whom was entrasted the Superintendance of the Mercy Hospital, under the putting Interest at six per cent."

They are fighting in defence of their country."—

"None of the aggressors in Europe or Asia ever resorted to justificatory reasons, which were so false and hypocritical, as those alleged for our aggress. Rate Table, for Every Day in the Year: for committee of the Brotherhood of St. Joseph, to whom was entrasted the Superintendance of the Mercy Hospital, under the connected in folly and wickedness, and commenced by agross sustrpation on the part of the President. Warren, Ohio, a copy of which has been presented.

Ration of Table Committee of the Brotherhood of St. Joseph, to whom was entrasted the Superintendance of the Mercy Hospital, under the connected in folly and wickedness, and commenced by agross sustrpation on the part of the President. Warren, Ohio, a copy of which has been presented.

Kennetec (Me.) Journal.

much more worthy of a place in a State prison among criminals, than to be honored with a post among legislitors—the agents of the people, and who are supposed to reflect the popular will.

But it is not the whole number of Whig politicians, who these conceal their real sentiments from the supposed to reflect the popular will.

Mennevec (Me.) Journal.

"Let every one keep aloof from this unrighteous, and it will among legislitors—the agents of the people, and who are supposed to reflect the popular will.

But it is not the whole number of Whig politicians, who these conceal their real sentiments from the New Mark of the Mark the Lord for all that?"—

N. H. Statesman.

Warren, Ohio, a copy of which has been presented generally, the following statement of us by the author. It is in the form of a circular chart, so constructed that it may be made to last report to the annual revolution, for any number of years to come; by which, the day of the week at the commencement of any year or month, may be the commencement of any year or month, may be the commencement of any year or month, may be the commencement of any year or month, may be the commencement of any year or month, may be the commencement of any year or month, may be the commencement of any year or month, may be the commencement of any year or month, may be the commencement of any year or month, may be the commencement of any year or month, may be the properties.

The Received from October 1st to Dec. Ist. 71.

N. H. Statesman. Of the above, there were males

Colored patient,

Born in the soul of a smile; Would I were with thee; What Enchantment, by Mad. Picot; Queen of my soul; Sleeping I dreamed, love; The Raising Day; Oh give me a Home if in foreign lands; ow Gentle Gales-duett by Loder ; orgive, but dont Forget; Good-bye-Song; Come twine fresh Roses in my hair; Palmetto Waltz; Cast that Shadow from thy Brow;

The fountain of Pearls; The Moonlight Waltz; May Queen. Received and for sale b than be compelled to contribute to its mainten.

In which we are plunged.

Knowing all this, Mr. Clay remarks— How different is the conduct of the Whig party of the present day, from that of the major part of the Pederal party, during the war of 1812! Fat from opposing any obstacles to the prosecution of the Mr. Clay remarks— Opposing any obstacles to the prosecution of the Mr. Clay remarks— How different is the conduct of the whigh party of the Major explained his position.

In which we are plunged.

A consulting the war-making power."—Lebanon(O)

Star.

The Major explained in this country is follows:

A fearly to the spirit of our epublican institution; and sand sover our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

Me might be able to hold a lash over our eastern neighbors.

M

swaggering kind of bombast houses of respectability, the writer has thought proper to interpose his individual judgment against such presumption, in order Mr. J. K. Moorhead in the chair.

Mr. Robinson made a report, (so we are inhouse, who is well known in this city, and whose house, who is well known in this city, and whose house, who is well known in this city, and whose

CHAMOMILE FLOWERS—1 cask, fresh, just creceived and for sale by

B. A. FAHNESTOCK & Co.,

B. A. FAHNESTOCK & Co.,

nt of their instalments they may have the property paid in, after deducting from each his at 62 Market street. 10 ness superior Franch

CATHOLIC INSTITUTE. Our readers will bear the first day of January, 1848, fStockholders in the city of Pittsburgh will pay to Messra J. W. Robinson & Co. corner of Wood and Third streets in and near Salineville to Joseph G. Lacoek; in and near Wellsville to James Stewart, local treasurer,

A. G. CATLETT, Secretary. A CONSTANT supply of superior Shell Oysters, roasted or in the shell; also Game and every delicacy of the season, served up in superior style,

BANK EXCHANGE,
dec6-tf Third at. bet Wood and Market st. Notice to Creditors. more than we can say for the others. The driver of the "yellow omnibus" sets his passengers down just where he pleases, and is utterly regardless of this Common wealth, and that said court have appointed the Fourth Monday of December, instant, for the hearing of mer and my creditors, at the Court House, in the city of Pittaburgh, that they tolks last against at the court have appointed the Fourth Monday of Pittaburgh, that they show cause. If any there have applied, by petition, folks, last evening, at the Monongahela House, by Maj. Wm. Larimer. The meeting was large and Court locality in the may show cause, if any they have, why I should not be discharged as an insolvent debtor.!

PATRICK POWELSON, dec6-3tda1w