For the Morning Post. PARTY DISSENSIONS.

Ma. EDITOR :- Permit me to say a word, on the subject of party dissensions. A party, to be strong, private interests and aspirations, into a diffusive spirit of general good. Already distempered arti. defeated, and over one thousand of them taken but a Supper has been decided upon, and a fine administated justice between his fellow-citizens, but also by his aqility so the transaction of business. Kidd & Co.'s, the defeated, and over one thousand of them taken but also by his aqility so the transaction of business. It also breaks up the most distressing the lotter of a Buchanan; and that would detract the battle, Gen. Scott granted the ness connected with our higher Courts of justice. the lastre of a Buchanan; and that would detract also. After the partie, Gen. Scott granted the from the fair fame of a Dallas. The enemy is watching our movements; and hails with joy of October. On that day our Regiment was every symptom of disaffection in our ranks.—

Every affort which is made to break us into fac.

The enemy is Mexicans an armistice, which lasted until the 8th has gained for himself the earnest admiration of the bar, and the highest encoming the courts of Johnson Town and the highest encoming the courts of tions, is an effort of folly; it is insanity; it is battle of Molino del Rey, in which we lost a great madness! Is there a hope for the nomination of a many men. On the evening of the 11th, we Convention, if we appear there divided by scisms and reached Tacubaya about 2 o'clock, on the morning of the 12th, and before davlight we had man presented by Deposition. and in factions—if we have mutually dishonored and defiled the champions of our principles, the standard-bearers of our triumphant progress? No, there is no hope! What then should we do?—

Prudence, as well as common sense, gives the morning of the 12th, and before daylight we had built a battery, to bombard the Castle of Chapul the office of Canal Commissioners. I can say the o
