A Chance for Dwellings.
THE two very desirable Dwelling Houses on Rebecca street, in Allegheny city, one of which is now occupied by Robert S. Cassatt, Esq., each containing eight rooms and a fine garret, all finished in the most fashionable manner. The advantages of this excellent House are peculiar to itself, as those travelling by Canal, particularly in inclement weather, or landing at midnight, have only to step from the packet into the beautifully furnished apartments, where they will be contented and comfortable. In addition to the extensive accommodations belonging to this house, the proprietor has at great expense refitted, repaired, and made such additions as will secure to him the promise of his kind patrons "We'll call again."
The Bar, the Dining Room, the Chambers, and particularly the culinary departments, are so provided for that we challange competition anywhere.
The farm will be of the best the market affords, and the prices liberal.
The proprietor having been engaged in catering for gentlemen for many years past in the east, feels assured that by strict attention to business with a watchful eye to the comforts of his guests, he will deserve a share of public patronage.
